Messerschmitt Aces Walter A. Musciano,1982      Aces Bill Yenne,2020-10-13 Aces is an illustrated history of the brave World War II fighter pilots who earned the title of ace with archival and modern photos of their aircraft      Messerschmitt Bf 110 Zerstörer Aces of World War 2 John Weal,2012-10-20 This volume is the first of its type to be devoted exclusively to the Zerstörer day fighter aces spanning the war years from Poland to the defence of the Reich Although Messerschmitt's single engined Bf 109 has received most of the plaudits for achieving virtual air superiority over Europe in 1939-40 the exploits of the manufacturer's twin engined Bf 110 the Ju 88 and the Me 410 Zerstörer in the first year of the war also make for very impressive reading Indeed on the eve of World War 2 a posting to a Bf 110 unit was considered to be the best career move available in the Luftwaffe      Morane-Saulnier MS.406 Aces Kari Stenman,Christian-Jacques Ehrengardt,2014-05-20 The story of the aces who flew the MS 406 an important aircraft not only because it was built in larger numbers than any other French fighter of the period but also because it was the first modern fighter in the Armée de l'Air inventory Although comparable to the British Hurricane and early models of the German Bf 109 it was outclassed when flown against the more powerful and faster Bf 109E With little or no protection no armour or self-sealing tanks the MS 406 sustained heavy losses during the Battle of France Too lightly armed and fitted with unreliable weaponry the French fighter struggled to down German bombers It therefore comes as no surprise that only a dozen French pilots became fully fledged aces on the type during this period despite the aircraft being present in significant numbers However a score of pilots who bagged their very first kills at the controls of the MS 406 fought on after the fall of France flying Dewoitine D 520s Spitfires and even Soviet Yak 3s to attain ace status against both Allied and Axis opponents      Aces High Bill Yenne,2009-02-03 Capturing the hearts of a beleaguered nation the fighter pilots of World War II engaged in a kind of battle that became the stuff of legend They cut through the sky in their P 38s to go one on one against the enemy and those who survived the deadly showdowns with enough courage and skill earned the right to be called aces But two men in particular rose to become something more They became icons of aerial combat in a heroic rivalry that inspired a weary nation to fight on Richard Dick Bong was the bashful pink-faced farm boy from the Midwest Thomas Tommy McGuire was the wise cracking fast talking kid from New Jersey What they shared was an unparalleled gallantry under fire which won them both the Medal of Honor and remains the subject of hushed and reverent conversation wherever aerial warfare is admired What they had between them was a closely watched rivalry to see who would emerge as the top scoring American ace of the war What they left behind is a legacy of pride we will never forget and a record of aerial victories that has yet to be surpassed anywhere in the world      P-36 Hawk Aces of World War 2 Lionel Persyn,Kari Stenman,Andrew Thomas,2012-12-20 A fascinating account of a plane that served on both sides during World War 2 and in a variety of environments from Pearl Harbor to the deserts of North Africa to the barren forests of Karelia and the jungles of Burma The Curtiss P 36 was considered a revolution in performance design in comparison to other US fighters Yet by the time of the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor the P 40 was increasingly supplanting the P 36 which the US then exported to France under the guise of the Hawk 75 Flown by the French captured by the Germans sold to the Finns transferred to India and Africa and even incorporated into the RAF the Hawk 75 saw service in every theatre of operations and in a variety of combat environments This book depicts the interesting life of this plane with colour artwork photographs and first hand accounts

The German Aces Speak Colin D. Heaton, Anne-Marie Lewis, Brig. Gen. Robin Olds, USAF (Ret.), Oberleutnant Kurt Schulze, 2011-11-15

For the first time four German WWII pilots share their side of the story

Few perspectives epitomize the sheer drama and sacrifice of combat more perfectly than those of the fighter pilots of World War II As romanticized as any soldier in history the WWII fighter pilot was viewed as larger than life a dashing soul waging war amongst the clouds In the sixty five plus years since the Allied victory stories of these pilots heroics have never been in short supply But what about their adversaries the highly skilled German aviators who pushed the Allies to the very brink of defeat

Of all of the Luftwaffe's fighter aces the stories of Walter Krupinski Adolf Galland Eduard Neumann and Wolfgang Falck shine particularly bright In The German Aces Speak for the first time in any book these four prominent and influential Luftwaffe fighter pilots reminisce candidly about their service in World War II Personally interviewed by author and military historian Colin Heaton they bring the past to life as they tell their stories about the war their battles their lives and perhaps most importantly how they felt about serving under the Nazi leadership of Hermann Goring and Adolf Hitler From thrilling air battles to conflicts on the ground with their own commanders the aces' memories disclose a side of World War II that has gone largely unseen by the American public the experience of the German pilot

Aces of the 325th Fighter Group Tom Ivie, 2014-01-20 The 325th FG was activated under General Order number 50 on 30 July 1942 and set up training operations at Theodore F Greene Field in Providence Rhode Island By mid December 1942 the group was considered ready for combat and the alert for overseas duty arrived on 2 January 1943 The pilots and their P 40s departed on the carrier USS Ranger on 8 January and flew their aircraft off the vessel into Cazes airfield near Casablanca on 19 January 1943 After the remainder of the personnel arrived in late February the group prepared for combat and finally flew its first mission on 17 April 1943 as part of the Twelfth Air Force During the next four months it participated in the North African campaign and operations against enemy held islands in the Mediterranean Sea By the end of the Sicilian campaign on 17 August the 325th FG had scored 128 aerial victories been the first P 40 unit to deliver 1 000 lb bombs against enemy targets and had escorted 1 100 bombers without losing a single one of them to enemy action

Vanished Hero Jay A. Stout, 2016-09-30 A superb edge of the seat account of Elwyn Righetti's stellar combat career during the final months of the air war against Germany Eric Hammel author of Two Flags over Iwo Jima A hell bent for leather fighter pilot Elwyn G Righetti remains one of the most unknown yet most compelling colorful and controversial commanders of World War II Arriving late to the war he led the England based 55th Fighter Group against the Nazis during the closing months of the fight with a no holds barred aggressiveness that transformed the group from a middling organization of no reputation into a headline grabbing team that made excuses to no one Indeed Righetti s boldness paid off as he quickly achieved ace status and scored more strafing victories twenty seven than any other Eighth Air Force pilot Ultimately Righetti s calculated recklessness ran full speed into the odds His aircraft was hit while strafing an enemy airfield only four days before the 55th flew its last mission Almost farcically aggressive to the end he coaxed his crippled fighter through one more firing pass before making a successful crash landing Immediately he radioed his men that he was fine and asked that they reassure his family Righetti was never heard from again Vanished Hero tells a story worthy of a Hollywood blockbuster It is a fitting tribute to both Righetti and the man who collected his life s journey Military Heritage An excellent biography of a true American hero a worthy contribution to an understanding of the application of air power in the Second World War History News Network Aces of the 78th Fighter Group Thomas McKelvey Cleaver,2013-09-20 Dubbed the Eagles of Duxford the 78th Fighter Group FG was unique in being the only fighter unit in the Mighty Eighth to fly the P 38 Lightning P 47 Thunderbolt and P 51 Mustang operationally The 78th FG produced the very first Eighth Air Force ace and flew exclusively from Duxford throughout its time in the UK Initially equipped with the P 38 Lightning the group received P 47 Thunderbolts in March 1943 followed by the iconic American ace maker the P 51 Mustang in December 1944 Arriving in the European Theatre of Operations ETO in November 1942 and eventually committed to combat five months later the 78th along with the 4th and 56th FGs wrote the book on long range fighter escort by VIII Fighter Command in the ETO This volume charts the group s highs and lows during its two years in action from Duxford focusing on the exploits of the 51 pilots who achieved ace status with the 78th during World War 2 These men included Capt Charles London the very first Eighth Air Force ace and Maj Quince Brown who was the 78th s most successful aerial ace prior to being murdered by the SS after he was shot down over Germany Alongside stunning illustrations Thomas McKelvey Cleaver explains how by VE Day the Eagles of Duxford had downed 316 aircraft and destroyed a further 320 machines on the ground during strafing attacks on German airfields
