Metaphysical Aporia And Philosophical Heresy:

Metaphysical Aporia and Philosophical Heresy Stephen David Ross, 1989-01-01 From Descartes to the present there has been a call for a new beginning in philosophy Contemporary continental philosophy and American pragmatism continue to proclaim the end of one philosophic tradition and the beginning of another The basis for many of these developments is the repudiation of metaphysics The purpose of this book is to rethink the metaphysical traditions in terms of the continental and pragmatist critiques rejecting a single view The major works in the tradition are viewed as heretical Philosophy has recurrently acknowledged aporia moments in the movement of thought in which it finds itself faced with unconquerable obstacles resulting from conflicts in its understanding of its own intelligibility A chapter is devoted to each of the eight major philosophers and movements in the Western canonical tradition the pre Socratics Plato Aristotle Spinoza Leibniz empiricism Kant and Hegel The last three chapters are devoted to contemporary discussions of the end of metaphysics including the development of a local metaphysics that is able to express its own locality and aporia Aristotele's Metaphysics Roberto Radice, Richard Davies, 1997 The authors collaborated with 50 scholars from around the world to produce an exhaustive annotated bibliography on the central work of the Aristotelian corpus It brings together signed descriptions of more than 3200 books and articles as well as several thousand reviews and notes originally published in English Italian German French Spanish and Russian Descriptions are fully cross referenced to one another The first Italian edition Vita e Pensiero Milan 1996 has been thoroughly revised corrected and updated and is complemented by an index of the most important loci Aristotelici Locality and Practical Judgment Stephen David Ross, 1994 The philosophical viewpoint Ross examines in Locality and Practical Judgment is related to the American naturalist and pragmatist traditions and to the views of many twentieth century European philosophers It bears affinities with historicism and existentialism insofar as both emphasize aspects of human finiteness What is new is the systematic development of locality in application to practical experience

Spinoza in English Wayne I. Boucher, 1991 Spinoza in English is the first bibliography to bring together the entire 325 year record of books monographs dissertations and articles in English on Benedict de Spinoza 1632 1677 including translations of his works into English Well over 2100 citations are presented bringing this record through early 1991 Arranged alphabetically by author or editor and internally cross referenced for ease of use this bibliography also cites its own sources where appropriate and in many cases provides guidance on how to obtain unpublished or out of print titles Additionally it restores or corrects a good deal of earlier bibliographic detail identifies dozens of publications hitherto overlooked and beginning with titles from the mid 1800 s presents the citations in a uniform style Injustice and Restitution Stephen David Ross, 1993-09-28 This book addresses the nature and injustice of authority retracing the ideas of reason and law from ancient Greece to the present pursuing a line of thought begun with Anaximander who speaks of the ordinance of time as restitution for immemorial injustice and Heraclitus who speaks of justice as strife Predominantly philosophical exploring the authority of Western philosophy in twentieth century continental and pragmatist writings the book explores alternative voices as challenges to authority in feminist and multicultural writings in Greek mythology and African narratives in Greek drama and twentieth century literature The Highroad Around Modernism Robert Cummings Neville, 1992-09-01 Discussions of modernism and postmodernism in philosophy and the arts are usually based on a narrow reading of the Western tradition and are not conscious of the narrowness The modern period beginning with the European Renaissance spawned many developments not just the modernist one in terms of which the tradition has been read From the standpoint of the highroad around modernism both modernism and post modernism look like nothing more than two late modern movements perhaps too preoccupied with themselves and their historical place to engage a swiftly changing world containing more than the Western tradition The Highroad Around Modernism develops and defends an explicitly non modernist and non postmodernist extension of modernity applicable to the problems of world wide cultural interactions

Encountering the Other(s) Gisela Brinker-Gabler, 1995-03-09 Europe and the United States now confront many of the same unresolved issues of nationalist religious racial and ethnic intolerance The book addresses the question How can the humanistic disciplines and social sciences play a role in a political transformation or address cultural difference This difference the other may be a racial ethnic gendered religious or colonial Other Contributors to this book focus on the serious political questions posed by the problems of strangeness the other in the present climate of accelerating social change and global shifts in political power Dialectic and Narrative Thomas R. Flynn, Dalia Judovitz, National Endowment for the Humanities Professor of French Dalia Judovitz, 1993-01-01 Dialectic and narrative reflect the respective inclinations of philosophy and literature as disciplines that fix one another in a Sartrean gaze admixing envy with suspicion Ever since Plato and Aristotle distinguished scientific knowledge episteme from opinion doxa and valued demonstration through formal final causes over emplotment mythos the palm has been awarded to dialectic as the proper instrument of rational discourse the arbiter of coherence consistency and ultimately of truth The matter becomes more complicated when we recognize the various uses of the term dialectic in the tradition some of which complement and even overlap the narrative domain By confronting these concepts with one another either de facto or ex professo the following essays not only raise anew the ancient questions of the identities of philosophy and literature but do so in the context of recent postmodern challenges to their relative autonomy Expanding Process John H. Berthrong, 2008-10-23 Expanding Process explores how comparative philosophy expands our understanding of the critical themes of process change and transformation John H Berthrong examines how notions of process manifest and shape the classical Confucianism of Xunzi the early medieval Daoism of the Liezi and Zhu Xi s Song Dynasty daoism Teaching of The Way Berthrong links these various Chinese views of process and transformation to contemporary debates in the American process pragmatic and naturalist philosophical movements Stressing how our pluralistic world calls for comparing and even appropriating insights from diverse cultural traditions

Berthrong contends that comparative philosophy and theology can broaden the intellectual frontiers and foundations of any serious student of contemporary global thought

Plotinus Stephen R. L. Clark, 2016-05-04 A bold work that applies a new approach to the interpretation of the thought of the founder of Neoplatonism beautifully written Notre Dame Philosophical Reviews Plotinus the Roman philosopher c 204 270 CE who is widely regarded as the founder of Neoplatonism was also the creator of numerous myths images and metaphors They have influenced both secular philosophers and Christian and Muslim theologians but have frequently been dismissed by modern scholars as merely ornamental In this book distinguished philosopher Stephen R L Clark shows that they form a vital set of spiritual exercises by which individuals can achieve one of Plotinus s most important goals self transformation through contemplation Clark examines a variety of Plotinus s myths and metaphors within the cultural and philosophical context of his time asking probing questions about their contemplative effects What is it for example to think away the spatiality of material things What state of mind is Plotinus recommending when he speaks of love or drunkenness or nakedness What star like consciousness is intended when he declares that we were once stars or are stars eternally What does it mean to say that the soul goes around God And how are we supposed to bring the god in us back to the god in all Through these rich images and structures Clark casts Plotinus as a philosopher deeply concerned with philosophy as a way of life Highly enjoyable His book is the tool by which we learn to read Plotinus in a dynamic way that transforms our very selves Classical World
