Methods And Nations Cultural Governance And The Indigenous Subject:

Methods and Nations Michael J. Shapiro, 2004 Shapiro seeks to bring recognition to forms of political expression that have existed on the margins of the nationhood practices of states and the complicit nation sustaining conceits of social science

Unarrested Archives Linda M. Morra, 2015-01-15 Calling upon the archives of Canadian writers E Pauline Johnson 1861 1913 Emily Carr 1871 1945 Sheila Watson 1909 1998 Jane Rule 1931 2007 and M NourbeSe Philip 1947 Linda M Morra explores the ways in which women's archives have been uniquely conceptualized in scholarly discourses and shaped by socio political forces She also provides a framework for understanding the creative interventions these women staged to protect their records Through these case studies Morra traces the influence of institutions such as national archives and libraries and regulatory bodies such as border service agencies on the creation presentation and preservation of women's archival collections The deliberate selection of the five literary case studies allows Morra to examine changing archival practices over time shifting definitions of nationhood and national literary history varying treatments of race gender and sexual orientation and the ways in which these forces affected the writers reputations and their archives Morra also productively reflects on Jacques Derrida's Archive Fever and postmodern feminist scholarship related to the relationship between writing authority and identity to showcase the ways in which female writers in Canada have represented themselves and their careers in the public record

Global Politics Jenny Edkins, Maja Zehfuss, Thomas Gregory, 2025-01-31 Global Politics A New Introduction engages directly with questions that those coming to the study of world politics bring with them From that innovative starting point it explores key issues through a critical and inquiring perspective presenting theoretical ideas and concepts in conjunction with a global range of historical and contemporary case studies Revised and updated throughout the fourth edition offers examples engaging with the latest developments in global politics the climate crisis and anthropocentrism Indigenous experiences and thinking racism and the rise of xenophobia artificial intelligence citizen journalism global health and pandemic response and drone warfare Global Politics examines most significant issues in global politics poverty development colonialism human rights gender inequality race war peacebuilding security violence nationalism authority and what we can do to change the world offers chapters written to a common structure ideal for teaching and learning and features a key question an illustrative example general responses and broader issues integrates theory and practice throughout the text drawing on international relations political theory postcolonial studies sociology geography peace studies and development This exciting up to date and ground breaking textbook is essential reading for all those concerned about global politics

The Literature of the Lebanese Diaspora Jumana Bayeh, 2014-10-23 The Lebanese civil war which spanned the years of 1975 to 1990 caused the migration of hundreds of thousands of Lebanese citizens many of whom are still writing of their experiences Jumana Bayeh presents an important and major study of the literature of the Lebanese diaspora Focusing on novels and writings produced in the aftermath of Lebanon's protracted civil war Bayeh explores the complex relationships between place displacement and belonging and illuminates the ways in which these writings have shaped a global Lebanese identity Combining history with sociology Bayeh examines how the literature borne out of this expatriate community reflects a Lebanese diasporic imaginary that is sensitive to the entangled associations of place and identity Paving the way for new approaches to understanding diasporic literature and identity this book will be vital for researchers of migration studies and Middle Eastern literature as well as those interested in the cultures history and politics of the Middle East

Sensible Politics William A. Callahan, 2020 Visual images are everywhere in international politics But how are we to understand them In Sensible Politics William A Callahan uses his expertise in theory and filmmaking to explore not only what visuals mean but also how visuals can viscerally move and connect us in affective communities of sense The book s rich analysis of visual images photographs film art and visual artifacts maps veils walls gardens cyberspace shows how critical scholarship needs to push beyond issues of identity and security to appreciate the creative politics of social ordering and world ordering Here sensible politics isn t just sensory but looks beyond icons and ideology to the affective politics of everyday life It challenges our Eurocentric understanding of international politics by exploring the meaning and impact of visuals from Asia and the Middle East Sensible Politics offers a unique approach to politics that allows us to not only think visually but also feel visually and creatively act visually for a multisensory appreciation of politics

Politics and Time Michael J. Shapiro, 2016-09-06 Catastrophic events like the bombing of Hiroshima Hurricane Katrina s devastation of New Orleans and drone strikes periodically achieve renewed political significance as subsequent developments summon them back to public awareness But why and how do different conceptions of time inform and challenge these key events and the narratives they create In this book Michael J Shapiro provides an approach to politics and time that unsettles official collective histories by introducing analyses of lived experience articulated in cinematic televisual musical and literary genres His investigation is framed by questions of our responsibility to acknowledge those victims of violence and catastrophe who have failed to rise above the threshold of public recognition Ultimately by focusing on time as an active force shaping our conception of political life we can deepen our understanding of complex political dynamics and improve the theories and methods we rely on to interpret them This bold and original book will be of interest to students and scholars of political theory cultural studies and cinema studies looking for a new perspective on the temporal aspects of political life

National Affects Angharad Closs Stephens, 2022-08-11 Identity is widely acknowledged to be a felt experience yet questions of atmosphere mood and public sentiments are rarely made central to understanding the global politics of nationalism This book asks what difference it makes when we address national identity as principally an affective force National Affects traces how ideas about us and them take form in ordinary spaces in ways that are both deeply felt and hardly noticeable in studies of global events that range from the London 2012 Olympic Games to responses to acts of terror the European refugee crisis and Brexit In this timely intervention Angharad Closs

Stephens addresses the affective dimensions of being together to open new angles in the study of nationalism and global politics She asks how the nation is felt in everyday life as well as differently experienced and investigates different forms of enacting being together to generate new insights in the study of national identity National Affects draws on academic theories in the study of Politics International Relations and Human Geography as well as stories performance works and novels to establish a new tone of critical enquiry Informed by longstanding critical interrogations of the politics of us and them this book argues that these ideas are not as stable as they are often made to seem Drawing on a combination of artistic and academic interventions this book offers a refreshing approach to conceptualising the politics of nationalism identity and citizenship In its focus on everyday atmospheres it identifies new registers for intervening politically Overall National Affects outlines other ways of imagining and practising being political together beyond the exclusionary politics of nationalism
