Reel Arguments:

Reel Arguments Andrew Light, 2018-03-08 In Reel Arguments Andrew Light known for his work in environmental ethics and the philosophy of technology addresses the role of film in society By looking at films and the creators of such films as Alice in the Cities Enemy of the State The Conversation Falling Down City of Hope and Matewan Light persuasively argues that film can be highly philosophical and influential Though not the first to make such a claim Light brings new insights into the readings of these films as visual arguments covering a range of issues identity politics urban landscapes the politics of space and the unexpected dimensions of technology This volume will be of special interest to readers of film and philosophy

Ecologies of the Moving Image Adrian J. Ivakhiv, 2013-10-07 This book presents an ecophilosophy of cinema an account of the moving image in relation to the lived ecologies material social and perceptual relations within which movies are produced consumed and incorporated into cultural life If cinema takes us on mental and emotional journeys the author argues that those journeys that have reshaped our understanding of ourselves life and the Earth and universe A range of styles are examined from ethnographic and wildlife documentaries westerns and road movies sci fi blockbusters and eco disaster films to the experimental and art films of Tarkovsky Herzog Malick and Brakhage to YouTube s expanding audio visual universe

Thinking on Screen Thomas E. Wartenberg, 2007-10-31 Thinking on Screen Film as Philosophy is an accessible and thought provoking examination of the way films raise and explore complex philosophical ideas Written in a clear and engaging style Thomas Wartenberg examines films ability to discuss and even criticize ideas that have intrigued and puzzled philosophers over the centuries such as the nature of personhood the basis of morality and epistemological skepticism Beginning with a demonstration of how specific forms of philosophical discourse are presented cinematically Wartenberg moves on to offer a systematic account of the ways in which specific films undertake the task of philosophy Focusing on the films The Man Who Shot Liberty Valance Modern Times The Matrix Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind The Third Man The Flicker and Empire Wartenberg shows how these films express meaningful and pertinent philosophical ideas This book is essential reading for students of philosophy with an interest in film aesthetics and film theory It will also be of interest to film enthusiasts intrigued by the philosophical implications of film Cinema, Philosophy, Bergman Paisley

Livingston, 2009-07-02 Can cinema be a medium for philosophy If so how is the philosophizing done Paisley Livingston explores the philosophical value of cinema As a case study for his intentionalist theory of authorship and interpretation he focuses on Ingmar Bergman s cinematic explorations of motivated irrationality inauthenticity and self knowledge

Understanding Realism Richard Armstrong, 2019-07-25 In a world in which camcorders and CCTV are witness to our every move and Big Brother and The Blair Witch Project are phenomenally popular and widely imitated the divide between reality and fiction has become increasingly blurred Surveillance Studies David Lyon, 2007-07-30 The study of surveillance is more relevant than ever before The fast growth of the field of surveillance studies reflects both the urgency of civil liberties and privacy questions in the war on terror era and the classical social science debates over the power of watching and classification from Bentham to Foucault and beyond In this overview David Lyon one of the pioneers of surveillance studies fuses with aplomb classical debates and contemporary examples to provide the most accessible and up to date introduction to surveillance available The book takes in surveillance studies in all its breadth from local face to face oversight through technical developments in closed circuit TV radio frequency identification and biometrics to global trends that integrate surveillance systems internationally Surveillance is understood in its ambiguity from caring to controlling and the role of visibility of the surveilled is taken as seriously as the powers of observing classifying and judging The book draws on international examples and on the insights of several disciplines sociologists political scientists and geographers will recognize key issues from their work here but so will people from media culture organization technology and policy studies This illustrates the diverse strands of thought and critique available while at the same time the book makes its own distinct contribution and offers tools for evaluating both surveillance trends and the theories that explain them This book is the perfect introduction for anyone wanting to understand surveillance as a phenomenon and the tools for analysing it further and will be essential reading for students and scholars alike

Outers' Book-recreation ,1922 South Africa's Renegade Reels L. Modisane,2012-12-28 Despite incredible political upheavals and a minimal national history of film production movies such as Come Back Africa 1959 uDeliwe 1975 and Fools 1998 have taken on an iconic status within South African culture In this much needed study author Litheko Modisane delves into the public critical engagements around old renegade films and newer ones revealing instructive details both in the production and the public lives of South African movies oriented around black social experiences This illuminates the complex nature of cinema in modern public life enriching established methodologies by expanding the cultural and conceptual boundaries of film as a phenomenon of textual circulation

The Reaper: Argument of W. H. Seward, in the Circuit Court of the United States, October, 24, 1854

William Henry SEWARD,1854 To Educate American Indians Larry C. Skogen,2025-11 From 1900 to 1909 Indian school educators gathered at annual meetings of the National Educational Association's Department of Indian Education The papers they delivered were later published in the Journal of Proceedings and Addresses of the National Educational Association but strict guidelines often meant they were heavily edited before publication In this second volume of Department of Indian Education papers Larry C Skogen presents selected complete papers from the years 1905 to 1909 and provides historical context During this period educators promoted the belief that Natives could never be fully integrated into white society and argued instead for vocational and practical education near or on reservations a clear break from earlier years when prominent Indian school administrators advocated education far removed from Native communities Indian school educators at these annual meetings also shared their methods with other educational thinkers and practitioners who were seeking alternative pedagogies as new immigrants arrived in U S cities and challenges arose from new island territories

These selected writings reveal how the NEA influenced Indian school educators and how those educators in turn affected mainstream educational thinking
