Reflection A Novel:

The Reflection Joe Bright, 2002 Reflection Willie Corbett, 1996-04-01 Reflection. A Novel Dorothy Alice Bonavia HUNT, 1937 Reflection in Sequence Sandra J. Schumm, 1999-07

The codes of conduct imposed on females by Spain's dictator Francisco Franco after the Spanish Civil War 1936-39 created a stifling environment for women until his death in 1975. Beginning with Carmen Laforet's 1944 Nadal Prize winning novel Nada, novels by women many of which explore female identity began to proliferate in Spain. The works examined in this study: Nada (Primera memoria 1960) by Ana Maria Matute, La placa del Diamant 1962 by Merce Rodoreda, Julia 1969 by Ana Maria Moix, El cuarto de atrás 1978 by Carmen Martín Gaité, El amor es un juego solitario 1979 by Esther Tusquets, and Questio d amor propi 1987 by Carme Riera feature female protagonists struggling for self-realization and by extension for change in a restrictive Spanish society. Schumm's analysis of the seven novels demonstrates how examination of metaphoric tropes and mirror images provides insight into the protagonists' development.

The Void of Ethics Patrizia McBride, 2006

In a pluralistic society without absolute standards of judgment, how can an individual live a moral life? This is the question Robert Musil (1880-1942), an Austrian-born engineer and mathematician turned writer, asked in essays, plays, and fiction that grapple with the moral ambivalence of modern life. Though unfinished, his monumental novel of Vienna in the febrile days before World War I, The Man without Qualities, is identified by German scholars as the most important literary work of the twentieth century. In a fresh examination of his essays, notebooks, and fiction, Patrizia McBride reconstructs Musil's understanding of ethics as a realm of experience that eludes language and thought. After situating Musil's work within its contemporary cultural philosophical horizon as well as the historical background of rising National Socialism, McBride shows how the writer's notion of ethics as a void can be understood as a coherent and innovative response to the crises haunting Europe after World War I. She explores how Musil rejected the outdated rationalistic morality of humanism while simultaneously critiquing the irrationalism of contemporary art movements including symbolism, impressionism, and expressionism. Her work reveals Musil's remarkable relevance today, particularly those aspects of his thought that made him unfashionable in his own time: a commitment to fighting ethical fundamentalism and a literary imagination that validates the pluralistic character of modern life.

Fact, Fiction, and Representation Louis Mackey, 1997

First ever full-length study of four works by Gilbert Sorrentino, the contemporary American novelist. Gilbert Sorrentino is the most innovative and experimental writer now working in America. In a long and still continuing series of novels, he has broken down the barriers of fictional realism in ways which undercut the traditional boundaries between fact and fiction, exposing the problematical character of representation. However, although his position in contemporary American fiction is assured, he has not yet received the serious critical attention his work deserves. This volume is the first full-length treatment of his work in depth and detail; it examines four novels published by Sorrentino in the 1980s: Crystal Vision, Odd Number, Rose Theatre, and Misterioso, aiming to identify the critical and philosophical problems raised in his work and assessing his achievements in dealing with them The Reflections Series Books 1 - 7 Dean Murray, 2015-05-22 The opening installment in a series that has received more than 2 200 5 star reviews This omnibus edition includes the first FIVE novels in the popular Reflections Series plus two short stories and is more than 1200 pages of romance action and danger set in one of the richest most complex worlds in the genre Adri Paige s arrival in Sanctuary thrusts her into a dangerous shadowy world most people don t believe exists and places her in the middle of a war between darkly handsome Alec Graves and charismatic Brandon Worthingfield that threatens to consume the entire town On the surface both Alec and Brandon are nothing more than average high school guys but as Adri is pulled ever more deeply into their conflict she realizes that one of them wants to kill her Adri needs to decide who to trust before her time runs out once and for all The first seven installments of the breathtaking epic paranormal romance Reflections series are finally available in one place for more than 50% off of the normal retail price This Bundle includes Broken Torn Splintered Intrusion Numb Trapped Forsaken Keywords Young Adult Romance Paranormal Paranormal Romance YA Shape shifters Werewolves Teen Urban Fantasy Vampires Portals of Promise Debbie Pushor, the Parent Engagement Collaborative the Parent Engagement Collaborative, 2013-10-30 Working with parents is a significant aspect of educators roles yet it is rare to find curriculum in teacher education programs designed to prepare individuals to consider in philosophical theoretical and pedagogical ways who they will be in relationship with parents and why Schools therefore remain hierarchical structures in which parents are marginalized in relation to decisions affecting teaching and learning This book begins with Pushor s conceptualization of a curriculum of parents a curriculum which explores beliefs and assumptions about parents a vision for education in which educators work alongside parents and family members in the learning and care of children and a desire for reform She describes a curriculum of parents in the form of three graduate teacher education courses which she lived out in relationship with students Graduate students then capture their experiences immersed in this curriculum what they each took up how it shaped their knowledge attitudes and practices and how they lived it out as they returned to their classrooms schools and early learning centres This book is a storied account of their intense immersion in a curriculum of parents and the resulting impact living that curriculum has had on who they are in relation to parents and families It is an honest and vulnerable account of their shared and individual journeys They puzzle over the complexities and the successes of their work and the resulting impact This is not a book of best practice but an invitation to other educators to consider as they did what they do and how it could be different The Novel Stage Marcie Frank, 2020-02-14 2020 Choice Outstanding Academic Title Marcie Frank s study traces the migration of tragicomedy the comedy of manners and melodrama from the stage to the novel offering a dramatic new approach to the history of the English novel that examines how the collaboration of genres contributed to the novel s narrative form and to the modern organization of literature Drawing on media theory and focusing on the less examined narrative contributions of such authors as Aphra Behn Frances Burney and Elizabeth Inchbald
