Reflections On The Fantastics:

Walking Shadows Ib Johansen, 2015-08-25 Walking Shadows focuses on the American fantastic and the American grotesque attempting in this manner for the first time to establish an overview of and a theoretical approach to two literary modes that have often been regarded as essential to an understanding of the American cultural canon The central importance of these two literary forms has been pointed out earlier by important theorists such as Stanley Cavell David Reynolds and William Van O Connor A number of literary works from the beginning of the nineteenth to the end of the twentieth centuries are taken up in order to illustrate the inherent links or family resemblances between the two modes with special reference to the way in which a Bakhtinian reading may facilitate our appreciation of their status within the canon These excursions into the House of Fantastic and Grotesque Fiction may be of interest not only to hardcore aficionados but also to philosophically minded readers in general in particular perhaps to those who have paid acute attention to debates on late twentieth and early twenty first century post structuralism and deconstruction where the classic positions of Foucault Derrida et al still appear to be relevant Chinese Fantastics Thomas Steep, 1925 The Princess and the Butterfly Or the Fantastics Arthur W. Pinero, 1898 Fantastics and Other Fancies Lafcadio Hearn, 1914 Personal Reflections of Joan of Arc Mark Twain, 2015-09-16 The Biography of the Greatest French Heroine One day riding along we were talking about Joan's great talents and he said But greatest of all her gifts she has the seeing eye I said like an unthinking fool The seeing eye I shouldn't count on that for much I suppose we all have it No he said very few have it Then he explained and made his meaning clear He said the common eye sees only the outside of things and judges by that but the seeing eye pierces through and reads the heart and the soul finding there capacities which the outside didn't indicate or promise and which the other kind of eye couldn't detect Mark Twain Personal Recollections of Joan Of Arc After the death of his family at just five years of age Louis de Conte is sent to a small village to live with a priest There she meets Joan of Arc a young peasant girl who would change French history forever Enchanted by Joan Louis de Conte becomes her servant and also her biographer Xist Publishing is a digital first publisher Xist Publishing creates books for the touchscreen generation and is dedicated to helping everyone develop a lifetime love of reading no matter what form it takes Rambles Among Words William Swinton, 1864
