Religion And Peace In The Middle East Papers From A Conference Of The Council:

Religion and Peace in the Middle East Frank Kaufmann, Justin Watson, 1988 The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences, 1989 Religious Transnational Actors and Soft Power Jeffrey Haynes, 2016-03-23 Haynes looks at religious transnational actors in the context of international relations with a focus on both security and order With renewed scholarly interest in the involvement of religion in international relations many observers and scholars have found this move unexpected because it challenges conventional wisdom about the nature and long term historical impact of secularisation The return of religion to international relations necessarily involves deprivatisation Recent challenges to international security and order emanate from various entities notably extremists people often said to be excluded from the benefits of globalisation for reasons of culture history and geography This study looks at the dynamics of this new religious pluralism as it influences the global political landscape Several specific transnational religious actors are examined in the chapters including American Evangelical Protestants Roman Catholics the Organisation of the Islamic Conference Sunni extremist groups al Qaeda and Lashkar e Taiba and Shia transnational networks While varying widely in what they seek to achieve they also share an important characteristic each seeks to use religious soft power to advance their interests In sum these religious transnational actors all wish to see the spread and development of certain values and norms which impact on international security and order Gender, Religion and Change in the Middle East Inger Marie Okkenhaug, Ingvild Flaskerud, 2005-03-01 The complicated link between women and religion in the Middle East has been a source of debate for centuries and has special resonance today Whether religion reinforces female oppression or provides opportunities for women or a combination of both depends on time place and circumstance This book seeks to contextualize women's roles within their religious traditions rather than through the lens of a dominant culture Gender Religion and Change in the Middle East crosses boundaries and borders and will appeal to a global audience This book provides a comprehensive survey of women in Muslim Jewish and Christian communities in the Middle East during the last two centuries The authors consider women's defined roles within these religious communities as well as exploring how women themselves develop and apply their own strategies within religious societies The wide ranging accounts draw on case studies from Iran Turkey Afghanistan Israel Jordan Egypt Palestine and Lebanon since 1800 Throughout the authors challenge our understanding of patriarchy to offer a more nuanced account Taking a balanced look at the issues of religion gender and change in the Middle East this unique interdisciplinary study gives new insight to the theme of women and religion in the Middle East The Muslim World in the 21st Century Samiul Hasan, 2012-01-15 Islam is not only a religion but also a culture tradition and civilization There are currently 1.5 billion people in the world who identify themselves as Muslim Two thirds of the worldwide Muslim population i.e. approximately a billion people live in forty eight Muslim majority countries MMC in the world all of which except one are in Africa and Asia Of these MMCs in Africa and Asia only twelve inhabited by about 165 million people have ever achieved a high score on the Human Development Index HDI the index that measures life expectancy at birth education and standard of living and ranks how developed a country is This means that the majority of the world s Muslim population lives in poverty with low or medium level of human development The contributions to this innovative volume attempt to determine why this is They explore the influence of environment space and power on human development The result is a complex interdisciplinary study of all MMCs in Africa and Asia It offers new insights into the current state of the Muslim World and provides a theoretical framework for studying human development from an interdisciplinary social cultural economic environmental political and religious perspective which will be applicable to regional and cultural studies of space and power in other regions of the world      Call to Mission and Perceptions of Proselytism John Baxter-Brown,2022-04-13

Proselytism remains one of the most divisive issues in global Christianity jeopardizing many ecumenical initiatives and projects Almost all traditions accuse others of proselytism but none readily confess to it as one tradition s mission and evangelism is another s proselytism This work brings together for the first time significant formal statements from Christian bodies and churches alongside articles from leading commentators in this hotly contested issue It gives clergy academics and students a vital resource in understanding the perspectives of different traditions and therefore the opportunity to study and understand viewpoints and opinions from competing perspectives The volume originates in a process of work commissioned by the World Pentecostal Fellowship the World Council of Churches the World Evangelical Alliance and the Roman Catholic Church under the auspices of the Global Christian Forum We discovered that there are no easy answers that resolve the tensions and debates about proselytism but through listening and understanding different voices new opportunities for establishing constructive relationships can and do emerge      Holy Places of Jerusalem in Middle East Peace Agreements Enrico Molinaro,2009-12-01

Throughout history Jerusalem and its Holy Places have witnessed fierce religious controversy and political dispute This study analyses an international and diplomatic perspective which highlights the state national territorial versus global transnational approach to Jerusalem with respect to possession and the right to worship      Secular States and Religious Diversity Bruce J. Berman,Rajeev Bhargava,André Laliberté,2013-10-25

Contemporary nation states have seen the rise of religious pluralism within their borders brought about by global migration and the challenge of radical religious movements Secular States and Religious Diversity explores the meaning of secularism and religious freedom in these new contexts The contributors chart the impact of globalization the varying forms of secularism in Western states and the different kinds of relations between states and religious institutions in the historical traditions and contemporary politics of Islamic Indic and Chinese societies They also examine the limitations and dilemmas of governmental responses to religious diversity and grapple with the question of how secular states deal and should deal with such pluralism This volume brings in perspectives from the non Western world and engages with viewpoints that might increase states capacities to accommodate religious diversity positively      Middle East, the Strategic Hub, and North Africa Army Library (U.S.),1973      The

Arab-Israeli Conflict Gregory S. Mahler, 2009-09-10 The Arab Israeli conflict has been one of the most protracted and contentious disputes in the Middle East This wide ranging textbook examines the diplomatic and historical setting within which the conflict developed from both the Israeli and Palestinian perspectives and gives a comprehensive overview of the peace process Enabling students to easily access and study original documents through the supportive framework of a textbook The Arab Israeli Conflict presents the seventy most important and widely cited documents in the history of the Israeli Palestinian conflict presents these documents in an edited form to highlight key elements includes an introductory chapter which sets the context for the study of the history of the area covers a comprehensive historical period ranging from the 19th Century to the present day incorporates a wide range of pedagogical aids original documents maps and boxed sections This important textbook is an essential aid for courses on the Arab Israeli conflict and the Middle East peace process and will be an invaluable reference tool for all students of political science Middle East studies and history The National Union Catalogs, 1963- ,1964 Documents on the Arab-Israeli Conflict M. Cherif Bassiouni, 2023-04-17 This comprehensive compilation of some 595 documents on the Arab Israeli conflict and a variety of related issues includes all the materials the researcher analyst and student of this conflict and region needs in a single text from the years 1897 to 2003 Documents are listed in chronological order because many documents refer to more than one subject They are however identified in the introduction according to subject matter When different aspects recurred in a number of UN resolutions only the main document is included while others are referred to The compilation is not only about Palestinian issues It includes all relevant documents between Arab states and Israel from the armistice agreements 1949 to the peace treaties with Egypt 1979 and Jordan 1994 as well as their protocols and other documents that derive from these treaties The subject matter content is as varied as the legal and political issues presented by this conflict It includes geographical boundaries refugees water rights regional security elimination of weapons of mass destruction and of course human rights and peace Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint The print edition is available as a set of two volumes 9781571052902 Heirs of Abraham Bradford E. Hinze, Irfan A. Omar, 2013-01-09 Argues that collaboration and bonds of respect are possible between Muslim Jews and Christians today The three Abrahamic traditions have a long history of clashes often with disastrous results This book offers an alternative to those who see only a future like the past of increasing friction and violence Three of the most respected figures representing Catholic Christianity Judaism and Islam Archbishop Michael Fitzgerald Professor Reuven Firestone and Professor Mahmoud Ayoub show that collaboration can work that it is possible to foster mutual understanding and appreciation of the different traditions in practical ways Sacred Space in Israel and Palestine Marshall J. Breger, Yitzhak Reiter, Leonard Hammer, 2013-06-19 Religion and religious nationalism have long played a central role in many ethnic and national conflicts and the importance of religion to national identity means that territorial disputes can often focus on the contestation of holy places and sacred territory Looking at the case of Israel and Palestine this book highlights the nexus between religion and politics through the process of classifying holy places giving them meaning and interpreting their standing in religious and civil law within governmental policy and within international and local communities Written by a team of renowned scholars from within and outside the region this book follows on from Holy Places in the Israeli Palestinian Conflict Confrontation and Co existence to provide an insightful look into the politics of religion and space Examining Jerusalem s holy basin from a variety of perspectives and disciplines it provides unique insights into the way Jewish Christian and Muslim authorities scholars and jurists regard sacred space and the processes grass roots and official by which spaces become holy in the eyes of particular communities Filling an important gap in the literature on Middle East peacemaking the book will be of interest to scholars and students of the Middle East conflict conflict resolution political science urban studies and history of religion

The Routledge Handbook of Religions and Global Development Emma Tomalin,2015-02-11 This Handbook provides a cutting edge survey of the state of research on religions and global development Part one highlights critical debates that have emerged within research on religions and development particularly with respect to theoretical conceptual and methodological considerations from the perspective of development studies and its associated disciplines Parts two to six look at different regional and national development contexts and the place of religion within these These parts integrate and examine the critical debates raised in part one within empirical case studies from a range of religions and regions Different religions are situated within actual locations and case studies thus allowing a detailed and contextual understanding of their relationships to development to emerge Part seven examines the links between some important areas within development policy and practice where religion is now being considered including Faith Based Organisations and Development Public Health Religion and Development Human rights Religion and Development Sustainable Development Climate Change and Religion Global Institutions and Religious Engagement in Development Economic Development and Religion Religion Development and Fragile States Development and Faith Based Education Taking a global approach the Handbook covers Africa Latin America South Asia East and South East Asia and the Middle East It is essential reading for students and researchers in development studies and religious studies and is highly relevant to those working in area studies as well as a range of disciplines from theology anthropology and economics to geography international relations politics and sociology

Biennial Report of the United States Institute of Peace United States Institute of Peace,1991 The Post-Colonial State and Civil War in Sudan Noah R. Bassil,2015-08-25 The humanitarian crisis in Darfur a consequence of the civil war and ongoing violence has attracted significant international media attention Here Noah Bassil offers a re conception of the conflict in Darfur by examining the origins and progression of the conflict through the broader issue of state failure in post colonial Sudan By moving away from a localised view of the conflict Bassil is able to demonstrate the extent to which the breakdown of social relations in Darfur is interconnected with the wider breakdown of Sudanese and post colonial societies offering an examination of the nexus between international national and local forces Through its coherent framework for understanding the causes of the civil war that erupted in the Darfur region in 2003 this book provides a unique examination of the conflict and the wider post colonial situation making it an important contribution to the fields of History International Relations and Peace Studies Visions of the End Times Laura Duhan-Kaplan, Anne-Marie Ellithorpe, Harry O. Maier, 2022-11-11 Global challenges fill the news today It s not always easy to balance fear with hope That s why this book points to resources for optimism and action A diverse group of scholars draw on Jewish Christian Islamic and M ori traditions to describe challenges and hopes They recognize the ruptures of militarism trauma colonialism religious nationalism climate change and more But they also describe the healing power of communal action spiritual practices biblical literature and the arts Public Papers of the Presidents of the United States: Jimmy Carter United States.
