Sacred Tradition And Present Need:

Sacred Tradition and Present Need Jacob Needleman, Dennis Lewis, 1975 The True Significance of Sacred Tradition and Its Great Worth, by St. Raphael M. Hawaweeny St. Raphael M. Hawaweeny, 2017-01-17 Never before published the theological thesis of St Raphael Hawaweeny 1860 1915 is a fascinating work that shows the intersection of Roman Catholicism Protestantism and Eastern Orthodoxy in the late nineteenth century Canonized by the Orthodox Church in 2000 St Raphael was the first Orthodox bishop consecrated in the western hemisphere His thesis reflects the life of the Orthodox community under Ottoman rule and is an apologia for Orthodox tradition acting as a response to arguments advanced by Roman Catholic and Protestant missionaries in the Middle East Patrick Viscuso s introduction explains the complex historical and theological forces at work in St Raphael s world Since the sixteenth century the Roman Catholic Church had launched major proselytization efforts toward Orthodox Christians in the Ottoman Empire with the support of the great Western powers In the late nineteenth century the United States dominated Protestant efforts in the region The powerful language in St Raphael s thesis and his refutation of Roman Catholic and Protestant positions reflect an active dialogue with Western Christianity The thesis dated May 1 1886 was written as part of the requirements for graduation from the Theological School of the Great Church of Christ an institution of the Ecumenical Patriarchate located on the island of Halki in the Sea of Marmara near present day Istanbul Patrick Viscuso s translation is based on his transcription of the handwritten Greek text Viscuso provides this transcription along with translations of the 1874 Regulations of the Theological School and a contemporary account of life at the school This important volume will appeal to historians of the Ottoman Empire and Christianity specialists interested in religious pluralism in America and general readers interested in religion and Christian dialogue The Only Tradition William W. Quinn, 1997-02-06 Examines the first principles of the perennial philosophy or ancient wisdom tradition as expressed in the writings of its great exponents Rene Guenon and Ananda K Coomaraswamy and offers a critique of the West from the standpoint of traditional principles Sufism Jean-Louis Michon, Roger Gaetani, 2006-03-24 For hundreds of years the inner spiritual core of Islam has been the focus of Sufi thinkers These essays allow the reader to understand the wisdom and history of Sufism Lost Christianity Jacob Needleman, 2003-08-25 Unavailable for several years Lost Christianity is a profound reexamination of the essence of Christian thought and faith Philosopher and bestselling author Jacob Needleman has sought out the ancient texts and modern practitioners of essential Christianity whose message speaks directly to contemporary seekers What Is God? Jacob Needleman, 2009-12-24 In his most deeply personal work religious scholar Needleman cuts a clear path through today s clamorous debates over the existence of God illuminating an entirely new way of approaching the question of how to understand a higher power I n this new book philosopher Jacob Needleman whose voice and ideas have done so much to open the West to esoteric and Eastern religious ideas in the twentieth and twenty first centuries intimately considers humanity's most vital question What is God Needleman begins by taking us more than a half century into the past to his own experience as a brilliant promising Ivy-educated student of philosophy atheistic existential and unwilling to blindly accept childish religiosity But an unsettling meeting with the venerated Zen teacher D T Suzuki combined with the sudden need to accept a dreary position teaching the philosophy of religion forced the young academician to look more closely at the religious ideas he had once thought dead Within traditional religious texts the scholar discovered a core of esoteric and philosophical ideas more mature and challenging than anything he had ever associated with Judaism Christianity and the religions of the East At the same time Needleman came to realize as he shares with the reader that ideas and words are not enough Ideas and words no matter how profound cannot prevent hatred arrogance and ultimate despair and cannot prevent our individual lives from descending into violence and illusion And with this insight Needleman begins to open the reader to a new kind of understanding The inner realization that in order to lead the lives we were intended for the very nature of human experience must change including the very structure of our perception and indeed the very structure of our minds In What Is God Needleman draws us closer to the meaning and nature of this needed change and shows how our present confusion about the purpose of religion and the concept of God reflects a widespread psychological starvation for this specific quality of thought and experience In rich and varied detail the book describes this inner experience and how almost all of us atheists and believers alike actually have been visited by it but without understanding what it means and why the intentional cultivation of this quality of experience is necessary for the fullness of our existence

,2011-10-14 This book examines the scholarly genre of geographia sacra in early modern Europe tracing its contours the outlooks and concerns of its practitioners as well as the intersections of religion and geography in an age that saw dramatic revolutions in both fields Holy Book and Holy Tradition Frederick Fyvie Bruce, Ernest Gordon Rupp, 1968 Mother of the Lamb Matthew J. Milliner, 2022-10-04 Mother of the Lamb tells the remarkable story of a Byzantine image that emerged from the losing side of the Crusades Called the Virgin of the Passion in the East and Our Lady of Perpetual Help in the West the icon has expanded beyond its Byzantine origins to become one of the most pervasive images of our time It boasts multiple major shrines on nearly every continent and is reflected in every epoch of art history since its origin even making an appearance at the Olympics in 2012 Matthew Milliner first chronicles the story of the icon's creation and emergence in the immediate aftermath of the Third Crusade whereupon the icon became a surprising emblem of defeat its own fame expanding in inverse proportion to Christendom's political contraction Originally born as a Christian response to the Christian violence of the Crusades it marked the moment when Mary's ministry of suffering love truly began Having traced the icon's origin and ubiquity Milliner teases out the painting's theological depth and continues the story of the icon's evolution and significance from its origins to the present day As the story of the icon moves well beyond Byzantine art history both temporally and thematically it engages religion politics contemporary art and feminist concerns at once Always though the icon exemplifies dignity in suffering a lesson that through this image Byzantium bequeathed to the wider world Encapsulating eleven centuries of development of the mourning Mary in Byzantium the Virgin of the Passion emerges as a commendable icon of humility a perennial watchword signaling the perils of imagined political glory The Virgin of the Passion emblemizing political humility the powerful agency of women and the value of inter Christian and extra Christian concord is an exemplary Marian image for the fledgling twenty first century René Daumal Kathleen Ferrick Rosenblatt,1999-02-25 Demonstrates how Rene Daumal author of Mount Analogue a study of Hindu philosophy and poetics and the teaching of G I Gurdjieff combined with Daumal s early surrealist tendencies in determining the quality of his writing
