Sacred Texts of World Religions Edited by: Kisak, 2015-09-01 Religious texts also known as scripture scriptures holy writ or holy books are the texts which various religious traditions consider to be sacred or central to their religious tradition Many religions and spiritual movements believe that their sacred texts are divinely or supernaturally revealed or inspired Attitudes towards sacred texts differ widely between religions Some religions make written texts widely and freely available while others hold that sacred secrets must remain hidden from all but the loyal and the initiate Most religions promulgate policies defining the limits of the sacred texts and controlling or forbidding changes and additions Some religions view their sacred texts as the Word of God often contending that the texts are inspired by God and as such should never be altered Translations of texts may receive official sanction but an original sacred language often has defacto absolute or exclusive authority This book serves as a reference guide that lists the works that the corresponding religions are based upon

Scriptures of the World's Religions James Fieser, John Powers, 2004 This anthology of scriptures from the world's living religions offers selections that vary in length from a few paragraphs to 10 pages accompanied by brief introductions that discuss the nature and scope of scripture within each religion as well as the history of each scripture presented The anthology is also available in two volumes Scriptures of The East contains sacred writings of Hinduism Jainism Buddhism Sikhism Confucianism Taoism Shinto and indigenous religions of the East Scriptures of The West contains sacred writings of Zoroastrianism Judaism Christianity Islam the Baha'i faith and indigenous religions of the West Sacred Writings of World Religions Fernand Comte, 1992 This book provides an insight into the texts of the greatest religions which have provided a basis of faith to millions including writings from wherever man has heard the divine word Sacred Scriptures of World-religion, 1914 World Scripture Andrew Wilson, 1991 Demonstrating the commonality of the world's religions and our common humanity this rich and varied anthology of scripture offers a highly useful collection of religious quotations passages and excerpts from the holy texts representing a new holistic approach to the world's religions Sacred Texts of the World Ninian Smart, Richard D. Hecht, 2007 For a contemporary world in which religious belief exercises a more potent some might say more dangerous influence on global events than many would have thought possible a generation ago the nature and interpretation of the core tenets of religious faith has become a matter of compelling and widespread interest both within and outside practising religious communities Each of the 14 chapters of Sacred Texts is devoted to one of the principal religious and other belief systems of humanity both defunct and extant The chapters follow a consistent pattern a short and accessible introduction to the faith in question followed by extracts that clearly illustrate its mythic narratives its spiritual and theological doctrines its central moral teachings its rituals and modes of worship and its mystical traditions Accompanying notes make clear the meanings of all the quoted passages Taken together the extracts provide a rounded and coherent picture of each religious tradition Sacred Texts covers not only Judaism Christianity Islam Hinduism Buddhism Jainism Taoism Confucianism Shintoism and Sikhism but also small scale traditional religions new religions and secular worldviews such as humanism It is an essential reference for those who wish to understand the nature and continuing appeal of religious belief in a globalised multi faith world
