Subcommittee on Human Services, 1982 Handbook of Caribbean Economies Robert Looney, 2020-11-10 This volume aims to illustrate the uniqueness of the economies of the countries and territories of the Caribbean as well as the similarities they share with other regions While most countries in the region share many of the characteristics of middle income countries theirs is a matter of extremes Their generally small size suggests a fragility not found elsewhere While much of the world is beginning to feel some effects of climate change the Caribbean is ground zero These factors suggest a difficult road ahead but the chapters presented in this volume aim to help to spur the search for creative solutions to the region's problems The chapters written by expert contributors examine the Caribbean economies from several perspectives Many break new ground in questioning past policy mindsets while developing new approaches to many of the traditional constraints limiting growth in the region The volume is organized in four sections Part I examines commonalities including issues surrounding small economies tourism climate change and energy security Part II looks at obstacles to sustained progress for example debt natural disasters and crime In Part III chapters consider the specific role of external influences including the USA and the European Union the People's Republic of China as well as regional co-operation The volume concludes in Part IV with country case studies intended to provide a sense of the diversity that runs through the region Crime and the Elderly United States. Congress. Senate. Special Committee on Aging, 1981 Criminal Tom Gash, 2016-05-05 The way we see and understand crime falls into two types of story that in essence have been told and retold many times throughout human history in fiction as in fact Criminality is either a selfish choice an aberration or a forced choice the product of social factors These two stories continue to dominate both our views of and responses to crime And says Tom Gash they are completely wrong In seeking to dispel the myths that surround and inform our views of crime Criminal argues that our obsession with big arguments about crime s causes can lead us to mistake individual cases as proof of universal rules How he asks can we suspend our knee jerk reactions and begin to understand crime for what it is as a risk that can be managed and reduced

Domestic Commerce United States. Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce,1946 Daddy Lost His Head Jack Kamen,2017-10-04 In this collection of twisty EC tales there are scheming spouses vampires voodoo and an ancient mummy s curse Famed for his deft delineations of beautiful scheming women handsome jealous husbands and not so innocent children Kamen returns with a collection of classic EC horror tales from The Vault of Horror Tales From the Crypt and The Haunt of Fear In the title tale a cruel stepfather sends his stepdaughter to bed without her supper but the old crone next door gives the hungry girl a candy figure made in the likeness of her father In What the Dog Dragged In one of the EC s earliest adaptations of a Ray Bradbury story a wheelchair bound blind woman asks her faithful dog to go find her fianc unaware that he had been killed in an auto accident In Loved to Death a rejected suitor spends one dollar to buy a potion that makes a woman fall in love with him but when it works too well he discovers the price of the antidote is more than he can afford Plus over 20 more tales of madness and horror as only EC can do them
