Lost In Familiar Places Creating New Connections Between The Individual And Society:

Lost in Familiar Places Edward R. Shapiro, A. Wesley Carr, 2011      Trapping Safety into Rules Mathilde

Bourrier, 2017-05-15 Rules and procedures are key features for a modern organization to function. It is no surprise to see them to be paramount in safety management. As some sociologists argue, routine and rule following is not always socially resented. It can bring people comfort and reduce anxieties of newness and uncertainty. Facing constant unexpected events entails fatigue and exhaustion. There is also no doubt that proceduralization and documented activities have brought progress, avoided recurrent mistakes, and allowed for best practices to be adopted. However, it seems that the exclusive and intensive use of procedures today is in fact a threat to new progress in safety. There is an urgent need to consider this issue because there is doubt that the path chosen by many hazardous industries and activities is the most effective safety-wise, considering the safety level achieved today. As soon as safety is involved, there seems to be an irresistible push towards a wider scope of norms, procedures, and processes whatever the context implied. This book is not a plea against proceduralization, but it does take the view that it is time to reassess how far it can still go and to what benefit. Underlying these questions, there is a growing suspicion that the path taken might in fact lead to a dead end, unless the concept of procedure and the conditions under which these procedures are developed are revisited.

A Theology for Pastoral Psychotherapy Brian

Grant, Richard L. Dayringer, 2014-01-02 The role of the pastoral psychotherapist requires balance between the individual, the community, and God. Are you ready to take on this challenge? This unique book examines the role of pastoral psychotherapy as it relates to the individual, the community, and God, and describes the process of pastoral psychotherapy in detail. It identifies healing as a mark of God's activity and then shows how God, through healing, creates communities that ultimately shape the selves and personalities within them. Pastoral psychotherapy is a sanctified act taking place in a sanctified space. It occurs in sacred space as defined, created, hallowed by God, the community, the therapist, and the client. The delineating of this sanctified, holy space separates what goes on in therapy from the secular, ordinary processes of life. A Theology for Pastoral Psychotherapy: God's Play in Sacred Spaces finds God in the creation of each sacred space. Pastoral psychotherapy has developed as a means of enabling individuals and communities to cope with the ills of the modern age. It addresses sin and evil in today's world, changing the way that clients relate to people, ideas, and events in their communities, families, and individual psyches. A Theology for Pastoral Psychotherapy: God's Play in Sacred Spaces describes the process of psychotherapy from a theological point of view. It shows how God hallows sacred spaces and explores the power of God to stimulate the search for healing. A Theology for Pastoral Psychotherapy: God's Play in Sacred Spaces explores the sharing of selves as presented by theorists on intersubjectivity, identifies the creation of the therapy dyad in the work of the Holy Spirit, drawing on new trinitarian theology, explores ways in which therapy both is and is not an extension of the work of Christ, shows how God lures us toward spiritual growth, links psychoanalysis to the mystical disciplines, interweaving mystical

Christianity object relations view of psychoanalysis and process theology Based on the theories of Bion Klein Winnicott Bollas and Whitehead A Theology for Pastoral Psychotherapy God's Play in Sacred Spaces is an in depth examination of the intricate interplay of God community the individual and the therapist in pastoral psychotherapy at www.HaworthPress.com
