Love And Gold In A High Desert Valley:

Love and Gold in a High Desert Valley Frances Little,1990 The Desert Valley JACKSON GREGORY,2024-01-02

The Desert Valley by using Jackson Gregory is a riveting Western book set against the dry backdrop of the American frontier Gregory s story of adventure love and the pursuit of justice takes readers to difficult settings and captivating characters The tale follows the protagonist a decided and innovative cowboy as he faces the hardships of the wasteland terrain Set in opposition to the backdrop of a harsh and merciless environment the tale delves into topics of survival loyalty and the conflict between desirable and evil Gregory s rich descriptions carry the wasteland terrain to existence making it an individual in the tale alongside the individuals who live there The protagonists encounter the tough realities of the frontier including both natural elements and the complexities of human interactions The Desert Valley exemplifies Gregory s capacity to seize the temper of the American West Through his bright storytelling he creates a world in which braveness and perseverance are essential for both people and nature This Western classic remains a riveting read for individuals who are inquisitive about stories of the uncooked untamed frontier Southern California's Best Ghost Towns Philip Varney,1994-03-01 The ghost towns of Southern California some dramatic and nearly intact others devastated are well worth visiting Most are remnants of once colorful mining towns though there are also railroad towns a World War II relocation center a promoter s swindle and a failed socialist colony Some excellent attractions remain One of the best preserved stamp mills in the West is in Skidoo Smelters homes stores and the remarkable wooden American Hotel can be found in Cerro Gordo which the author calls California s best true ghost town Seasoned back roads traveler Philip Varney who has visited nearly a hundred ghost towns in the area provides a down to earth and helpful guide to more than sixty of the best in Southern California and nearby Inyo and Kern counties He defines a ghost town as a town with a population markedly decreased from its peak one whose initial reason for settlement no longer keeps people there It can be completely deserted have a resident or two or retain genuine signs of vitality but Varney has eliminated those towns he considers either too populated or too empty of significant remains The sites are grouped in four chapters in Inyo County Death Valley the Mojave Desert and Kern River and the regions surrounding Los Angeles and San Diego Each chapter provides a map of the region a ranking of sites as major secondary and minor information on road conditions trip suggestions and tips on the use of particular topographic maps for readers interested in more detailed exploration Each entry includes directions to a town a brief history of that town and notes on its special points of interest Current photographs provide a valuable record of the sometimes fragile sites Southern California s Best Ghost Towns will be welcomed both by those who enjoy traveling off the beaten path and by those who enjoy the history of the American West The 1931-1940: American Film Institute Catalog of Motion Pictures Produced in the United States American Film Institute,1993 The entire field of film historians awaits the AFI volumes with eagerness Eileen Bowser Museum of Modern Art Film Department Comments on previous volumes The source of last resort for finding socially
