institutions while emblematic fictional female figures like Ophelia functioned as idealized templates of Victorian womanhood Rhodes examines the widely disseminated representations of Ophelia from works by visual artists and writers to interpretations of her character in contemporary productions of Hamlet revealing her as a nexus of the struggle for the female body's subjugation By considering a broad range of materials including works by Anna Lea Merritt Elizabeth Siddal Dante Gabriel Rossetti and John Everett Millais and paying special attention to images women produced Rhodes illuminates Ophelia as a figure whose importance crossed class and national boundaries Her analysis yields fascinating insights into high and mass culture and enables transnational comparisons that reveal the compelling associations among Ophelia gender roles body image and national identity

Death and Delusion Jerry S.

Piven,2006-09-01 This book argues that conventional interpretation of Freudian psychology has not accounted for the death anxiety and its relation to illusions and delusions It contends that there is evidence to support the view that death anxiety is a very normal and central emotional threat human beings deal with by impeding awareness of the threat The Conformists Evgenija Garbolevsky,2011-05-25 The complexities and paradoxes of the Bulgarian film industry during the era of Communist rule 1945 1989 are explored This influential industry was mobilized for the needs of the state During its creation and development cultural institutions and those involved in film production operated within a relatively closed system based on rewards and punishments imposed by the Communist bureaucratic apparatus Sub textual content in films produced in Bulgaria during this period highlights the attitude of the elite towards the regime Understanding this multifaceted relationship helps explain why so many intellectuals found the film industry to be an attractive field in which to work and decided to remain loyal to the regime instead of leaving or openly rebelling against it This work challenges the historiographical perception that the arts in the Eastern Bloc during the Cold War were largely unsuccessful vehicles of propaganda and dissent By using a comparative methodological approach the cinema arts in the East and West are shown following similar paths despite the Iron Curtain Provided by publisher Psychological Undercurrents of History Henry Lawton,Jerry S. Piven,2001 Psychological Undercurrents of History gathers together salient works of scholarship which endeavor to interpret the madness and imagination of our past from ancient religion to the Holocaust to Millennialism and Apocalyptic violence Traumatic Reliving in History, Literature and Film Rudolph Binion,2018-03-26 Traumatic Reliving in History Literature and Film explores an intriguing facet of human behavior never yet examined in its own right an individual or a group may contrive unawares to repeat a half forgotten traumatic experience in disguise Such reliving has shaped major careers and large scale events throughout history Insight into it is therefore vital for understanding historic causation past and present Traumatic Reliving has also proliferated in literature since antiquity and lately in film as well indicating its tacit acceptance as a piece of life by the reading and movie going public This book examines the evidence of history literature and film on how this irrational behavioral mechanism works Life Sentences Zohreh Bayatrizi,2008-01-01 Zohreh Bayatrizi examines the many concerted attempts from the last 350 years to strip death of its mystery and to order manage and transform it from an individualized and fatalistic event to a social phenomenon that allows intervention Eroticisms Jerry S. Piven,2003 Eroticisms Love Sex and Perversion explores the elusiveness of human sensuality In an era of conflicting moral relativism political correctness validation of lifestyle choices liberation hedonism and postmodern pansexualism versus resurgent puritanism conservatism fundamentalism and theological anti sexualism this fifth volume of Psychological Undercurrents of History penetrates current debates and delves into the past to grasp the viscous ambiguities of sexuality and reassess the question of whether the erotic can be perverse Cyberpunk & Cyberculture Dani Cavallaro,2000-04-01 Cyberpunk and Cyberculture explores the work of a wide range of writers Acker Cadigan Rucker
