A Storybook Love Alice Sharpe, 1990-04      French Mediaeval Romances from the Lays of Marie de France De France active 12th century Marie, 2019-11-20 In French Mediaeval Romances from the Lays of Marie de France the author weaves a tapestry of enchanting narratives that embody the essence of medieval courtly love and chivalric ideals. Composed in the 12th century, these lays, short narrative poems, reflect the oral traditions of the time, characterized by their lyricism and rich characterizations. Marie's use of verse not only aids in the memorization and transmission of these stories but also serves to elevate the emotional stakes of her characters, grounding them in universal themes of desire, betrayal, and redemption, while meticulously integrating elements of both Breton folklore and contemporary court life. Marie de France, one of the earliest known female poets in the French literary canon, likely drew from her experiences in the courts of England and France, where she observed the complexities of aristocratic relationships. Her unique perspective as a female author in a male-dominated literary tradition provided her with a voice that is both innovative and significant. The influence of her cultural context can be seen in her embrace of themes like female agency and the juxtaposition of magical realism with reality, challenging societal norms of her time. This anthology is highly recommended for readers seeking to delve into the rich heritage of medieval literature. Scholars and enthusiasts alike will appreciate Marie's nuanced storytelling, and her lays remain relevant today, inviting readers to reflect on the enduring complexities of love and the human condition.      Michigan in the Novel, 1816-1996, 1998 Michigan in the Novel records 1,735 novels published from 1816 through 1996 that are set wholly or partially in the state of Michigan.
