Leadership Mindsets Linda Kaser,Judy Halbert,2009-03-04 The evidence is clear school leaders make a difference to the learning of the pupils they serve And yet not all leaders have the same degree of impact What are the factors that make the difference to student learning Why are some leaders able to raise student achievement in schools in the most challenging circumstances whilst other leaders struggle to simply maintain the status quo Drawing from international case study research over many years from the experience of hundreds of school leaders serving widely diverse communities Judy Halbert and Linda Kaser argue that there are six distinct mindsets that characterize the way successful learning oriented leaders operate and make sense of their professional world These leaders are motivated by intense moral purpose knowledgeable about current models of learning consistently inquiry oriented able to build trusting relationships evidence informed able to move to wise action This book outlines an alternative way of thinking about school leadership It examines research evidence that leaders will find most useful and suggests how they might use this evidence to maximise their learning and the learning of their students Leadership Mindsets has been written specifically for aspiring to newly appointed school leaders who are determined and motivated to create quality and equality for learners in the schools they serve through networks of inquiry learning and support

God the Leader Kathleen M. Rochester,2020-06-04 What kind of a leader is God Is he a benevolent Santa Claus Or is he really a narcissist Is his leadership centered on law enforcement Or is his priority focused on relationships Is his interest in nations and systems Or is he personally alongside the mistreated and oppressed Is he a leader of armies Or is he a leader of peace These and many other questions about God s character and leadership are in the back if not the front of many people s minds questions especially about the God of the Old Testament who is often painted very differently from the God of the New Testament Our image of God as leader is highly likely to influence how we act when we are leaders whether as parents bosses teachers politicians or leaders of any group small or large This book assists us in observing God s leadership through the varied contours of the Old Testament journey and offers human illustrations of leadership both positive and negative to help us in our reflections
