A Love No Less Pamela Newkirk, 2004-03-03 A delightful paean to African American AA love this treasury of 50 letters written by well known figures and ordinary folk alike resonates with the joy and tenderness of romance and offers glimpses into the social literary and political lives of AAs for more than 2 centuries An elegantly designed volume printed in sepia and enhanced with photos the book presents the letters of AA lovers of all walks of life from slave letters to those of the celebrated turn of the 20th cent poet Paul Dunbar soldiers fighting WW2 and notable entertainers businessmen and civic leaders The letters are eloquent expressions of the writers most intimate feelings and touching revelations of the things that mattered most in their lives

A Love No Less Pamela Newkirk, 2003 A Delightful paean to African American love this treasury of fifty letters written by well known figures and ordinary folk alike resonates with the joy and tenderness of romance and offers glimpses into the social literary and political lives of black Americans throughout the last two centuries An elegantly designed volume printed in sepia and enhanced with photographs A LOVE NO LESS presents the letters of African American lovers of all walks of life from slave letters to the celebrated turn of the twentieth century poet Paul Laurence Dunbar to soldiers fighting World War II to notable entertainers businessmen and civic leaders Whether they were penned by literary masters or hastily scribbled by soldiers writing home to their wives or girlfriends the letters are eloquent expressions of the writers most intimate feelings and touching revelations of the things that matter most in their lives A LOVE NO LESS is a testament to black love and to the bonds that endure in the face of physical separation harsh times and personal misfortunes It also provides a peek into the more public arena as writers tell their lovers about their everyday activities and encounters Paul Laurence Dunbar writes to his wife about meeting Booker T Washington and attending a lecture by W E B DuBois Letters from the Harlem Renaissance capture the excitement and vibrancy of that extraordinary period with stories about dinners theater parties shows and social outings with Langston Hughes Carl Van Vechten and other luminaries In a letter to her new husband written in the 1930s stage and screen star Fredi Washington describes seeing a stereo for the first time and recounts her negotiations for a role in a Paramount film An enchanting and inspiring look at the power of love to transform and sustain A LOVE NO LESS is the perfect gift for Valentines Day anniversaries birthdays and weddings a book that everyone who has ever been in love will treasure

Queering Romantic Engagement in the Postal Age Pamela VanHaitsma, 2019-09-18 2020 Winifred Bryan Horner Book Award Honorable Mention from the Coalition of Feminist Scholars in the History of Rhetoric and Composition Romantic letters are central to understanding queer history Debates about letters of romantic friendship however too often reduce them to unstudied expressions of heartfelt feeling In Queering Romantic Engagement in the Postal Age Pamela VanHaitsma shows how the genre should be understood as a learned form of rhetoric VanHaitsma argues that epistolary instruction in the nineteenth century United States shaped civic engagement in predictably heteronormative ways even as it opened up possibilities for queer rhetorical practices Her archival study draws on writings whose authors diverse by gender race class and education all developed ways of queering cultural norms and generic conventions in their same sex relationships VanHaitsma theorizes a new concept of rhetorical education for romantic engagement to account for the significant yet understudied role of such training in inventing both civic and romantic life

The Press Geneva Overholser, Kathleen Hall Jamieson, 2005 With the guidance of editors Geneva Overholser and Kathleen Hall Jamieson this superb collection of essays written by the nation's leading authorities on journalism illuminates the role of the press in a democracy investigating alternative models used throughout world history to better understand how the American press has evolved into what it is today The book also examines the history identity roles and future of the American press with an emphasis on topics of concern to both practitioners and consumers of American media
