Unmaking Love Ashley T. Sheldon,2017-01-10 The contemporary novel does more than revise our conception of love it explodes it queers it and makes it unrecognizable Rather than providing union connection and completion love in contemporary fiction destroys the possibility of unity harbors negativity and foregrounds difference Comparing contemporary and modernist depictions of love to delineate critical continuities and innovations Unmaking Love locates queerness in the novelistic strategies of Ian McEwan Zadie Smith Hanif Kureishi Alan Hollinghurst and Hari Kunzru In their work queer love becomes more than shorthand for sexual identity It comes to embody thwarted expectations disarticulated organization and unnerving multiplicity In queer love social forms are deformed affective bonds do not bind and social structures threaten to come undone Unmaking Love draws on psychoanalysis and gender and sexuality studies to read love s role in contemporary literature and its relation to queer negativity

Choosing Love Dawne Moon,Theresa W. Tobin,2025-05-05 What does the battle between conservative Christians and LGBTQ people look like from the vantage point of those who are both If a culture war is happening LGBTQ conservative Christians are on the front lines While many people assume LGBTQ people have to say goodbye to the religions they grew up with and many do others occupy the intersection of LGBTQ existence and conservative Protestantism Choosing Love shows what happens when two identities that seem diametrically opposed conservative Christian and LGBTQ are joined together within one person Drawing on participant observation conducted within organizations for LGBTQ Christians and on more than 100 interviews with LGBTQ Christians former Christians and allies especially Black people Indigenous people and other people of color Dawne Moon and Theresa W Tobin show how a number of LGBTQ Christians and their heterosexual cisgender allies are working to make their families churches and communities more inclusive loving and just In telling their stories Choosing Love shares lessons about what it means to be human relational beings who need mutual connection to thrive These stories expose the brutality of treating shame as a special sacrament for LGBTQ people and the toxicity of treating a particular construction of gender as sacred They teach us the difference between arrogance and relational pride and that humility is the core of true allyship Finally they offer contemporary examples of the radical potential of love in movements for social justice Written in an approachable style and drawing from such diverse sources as Martin Buber Martin Luther King Black Third World feminism and queer thinkers of color Choosing Love is for anyone interested in the centrality of relationships in human life the place of love in the struggle for justice and the need for justice in any effort to love Love, Across All Languages Jotham Ndanyuzwe,2024-02-08 Love

Ocean of Love, or Sea of Troubles? Geoffrey Harris,2016-12-22 The title of Dr Harris book suggests that life is like a two sided coin it can be an Ocean of Love but can also be a Sea of Troubles The subtitle clarifies this paradox first there are many signs of God's reality and activity in the world and the first section of the book examines ways in which people are aware of God as both a creative and immanent presence in life The signs of God are not philosophical proofs but empirical realities accessible to all people In the second section the biblical responses to suffering in the world are explored through both Old and New Testaments In the third section the writings of two modern apologists C S Lewis and Philip Yancey are assessed and then finally there is a chapter of interviews with people who have known suffering in their lives
