Samuel,2019-11-29 Widely considered the most complex of human emotions romantic love both shapes and reflects core societal values its expression offering a window into the cultural zeitgeist In popular culture romantic love has long been a mainstay of film television and music The gap between fictitious narratives of love and real life ones is however usually wide American s expectations of romance and affection often transcend reality Tracing the history of love in American culture this book offers insight into both the national character and emotional nature The German Emigrant; Or, Love and Sourkrout Charles White,1876 Film Year Book ,1938 Broadway Actors in Films, 1894-2015 Roy Liebman,2017-02-20 Many Broadway stars appeared in Hollywood cinema from its earliest days Some were 19th century stage idols who reprised famous roles on film as early as 1894 One was born as early as 1829 Another was cast in the performance during which Abraham Lincoln was assassinated One took her stage name from her native state Some modern day stars also began their careers on Broadway before appearing in films This book details the careers of 300 performers who went from stage to screen in all genres of film A few made only a single movie others hundreds Each entry includes highlights of the performer s career a list of stage appearances and a filmography The Film Daily Year Book of Motion Pictures ,1938 Visions of Agapé Craig A. Boyd,2017-03-02 This book brings together philosophical and theological perspectives on agapistic love The aim of the text is to illuminate the nature of unlimited love by distinct and integrative approaches to the intersection of the divine and the human Various scientific approaches to human forms of love seem to shed light on our nature as social beings But to what extent are the natural desires for affection sexual love and friendship augmented revised perfected or replaced by the gift of grace In other words we can ask how is it that agap modifies or shapes the natural loves Diverse theological and moral traditions address the question in quite startling contrast Thomists follow the dictum that Grace does not destroy nature but perfects it Lutherans draw a sharp contrast between law and Gospel while Wesleyans see charity as the sanctifying power of the Holy Spirit Some feminist theorists see the idea of self giving love as contrary to genuine self fulfilment while the neo Kantians see love as a duty to others and some Kierkegaardians see the command to love as an unusual manifestation of divine command ethics These diverse approaches in light of contemporary research in the natural and social sciences can provide fertile ground for the exploration of the intersection of human and divine love To date there is no text available that brings scholars from various theological and philosophical backgrounds together to engage in interdisciplinary dialogue on this important and much neglected aspect of research into the human and divine loves This book offers a significant attempt to remedy the situation Motion Picture and Television Almanac ,1935 A Classical Response to Relational Theism Brian J. Orr,2022-02-17 The classical doctrine of God expresses that the God of the Bible is triune a se simple immutable impassible eternal and the sovereign Lord over his creation which he created from himself Modern streams of theology within the evangelical circle continue to promote a doctrine of God that sharply contrasts the classical view the traditional view of God in Christian theism Therefore a critical response to such a theology is needed This study is a comprehensive analysis and sustained critique of Thomas Jay Oord s open relational doctrine of God Oord s model substitutes process metaphysics for classical metaphysics while attempting to retain foundational Christian doctrines that were established within a classical metaphysical framework A New Look at Love Elaine Hatfield,G. William Walster,1985 This fascinating review of what social psychologists know about love sex and intimacy puts to rest some tired clich s on the subject Begins by asking What is this thing called love and finds that people distinguish between two kinds of love passionate love and companionate love This study answers a variety of questions about love such as Where is the best place to find someone to love Do men and women want different things from love How can couples make love last Originally published by Addison Wesley in 1978 it won the American Psychological Foundation National Media Award in 1979 The Smart Set ,1914 Dating and Interpersonal Relationships Nicolae Sfetcu,2014-05-01 An introduction to interpersonal relationship methods advice and tips for friendship dating and online dating intimate relationship love and kiss flirting seduction romance marriage and wedding Interpersonal relationships are social associations connections or affiliations between two or more people They vary in differing levels of intimacy and sharing implying the discovery or establishment of common ground and may be centered around something s shared in common The study of relationships is of concern to sociology psychology and anthropology Dating is a form of courtship consisting of social activities done by two persons with the aim of each assessing the other s suitability as a partner in an intimate relationship or as a spouse Theology and the Science of Moral Action James A. Van Slyke,Gregory Peterson,Warren S. Brown,Kevin S. Reimer,Michael Spezio,2012-11-12 The past decade has witnessed a renaissance in scientific approaches to the study of morality Once understood to be the domain of moral psychology the newer approach to morality is largely interdisciplinary driven in no small part by developments in behavioural economics and evolutionary biology as well as advances in neuroscientific imaging capabilities among other fields To date scientists studying moral cognition and behaviour have paid little attention to virtue theory while virtue theorists have yet to acknowledge the new research results emerging from the new science of morality Theology and the Science of Moral Action explores a new approach to ethical thinking that promotes dialogue and integration between recent research in the scientific study of moral cognition and behaviour including neuroscience moral psychology and behavioural economics and virtue theoretic approaches to ethics in both philosophy and theology More particularly the book evaluates the concept of moral exemplarity and its significance in philosophical and theological ethics as well as for ongoing research programs in the cognitive sciences
