The Three Secular Plays of Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz Guillermo Schmidhuber,2021-12-14

Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz 1648-1695 wrote poetry, prose, and plays and is considered the greatest of Mexican women writers. She was an intellectual prodigy, reportedly mastering Latin in twenty lessons, and at sixteen she entered a convent so that she might continue her learning. One of the most influential early feminists in the New World, she answered a bishop's criticism in a letter that has become a classic defense of the education of women. She collected a private library of 4,000 volumes, but when she was told that her studies were delaying the progress of her spiritual education, she gave away her books and devoted herself to religious studies. Traditionally, scholars have attributed only one complete play to Sor Juana, but in 1989 Guillermo Schmidhuber discovered a lost play, The Second Celestina, which he proved conclusively to be Sor Juana's earliest comedia co-authored with Agustín Salazar y Torres. Schmidhuber's critical study is the first dedicated exclusively to the secular plays and the first to confirm Sor Juana's authorship of three dramatic pieces. Combining literary history and criticism, Schmidhuber explores the life and originality of Sor Juana's dramas and helps elucidate her enigmatic genius. Though Sor Juana's work as a poet and intellectual has received increasing attention in the last decade, writing about her has rarely taken into account her role as dramatist. Schmidhuber helps correct this critical imbalance by examining Sor Juana's plays in light of dramatic theory. He finds elements of both mannerist and baroque theater in her work, sometimes both within the same play.

Giuseppe Mazzotta, 1993-10-20 At the center of Petrarch's vision announcing a new way of seeing the world was the individual a sense of the self that would one day become the center of modernity as well This self however seemed to be fragmented in Petrarch's work divided among the worlds of philosophy faith and love of the classics politics art and religion of Italy France Greece and Rome In recent decades scholars have explored each of these worlds in depth In this work Giuseppe Mazzotta shows for the first time how all these fragmentary explorations relate to each other how these separate worlds are part of a common vision Written in a clear and passionate style The Worlds of Petrarch takes us into the politics of culture the poetic imagination into history and ethics art and music rhetoric and theology With this encyclopedic strategy Mazzotta is able to demonstrate that the self for Petrarch is not a unified whole but a unity of parts and at the same time that culture emerges not from a consensus but from a conflict of ideas produced by opposition and dark passion These conflicts intrinsic to Petrarch's style of thought lead Mazzotta to a powerful rethinking of the concepts of fragments and unity and finally to a new understanding of the relationship between them Essential to students of Medieval and Renaissance literature this book will engage anyone interested in the development of modernity as it has evolved in culture and is understood today

Sharpening Her Pen Sidney L. Sondergard,2002-08 Sharpening Her Pen demonstrates how six early modern authors exploit or evade a rhetorical discourse founded upon images tropes and dialectics of violence to secure authorization for their work as writers and empowerment for the personal agendas unique to each of them Rhetorical violence functions both as a literary phenomenon facilitating the polemics of each author and as an analytical methodology enabling scholars to derive meaning from a particular organic facet of a writer s intellectual structure The subjects of the study represent a balance between writers who have received considerable scholarly attention Elizabeth I Aemilia Lanyer and Lady Mary Wroth and those who have received relatively little Anne Askew Anne Dorwiche and Lade Anne Southwell Exercising rhetorical strategies that reflect their idiosyncrasies as intellectuals they share a canny awareness of the persuasive power of violence in their age as physical reality and as metaphor
