Painted Pottery J. J. Brody, 1977 The Mimbres cultural florescence between about AD 1000 and AD 1140 remains one of the most visually astonishing and anthropologically intriguing questions in Southwest prehistory In this revised edition noted Mimbres scholar Dr J J Brody incorporates the extensive fieldwork done since the original publication in 1977 updating his discussion of village life the larger world in which the Mimbres people lived and how the art that they practiced illuminates these wider issues He addresses human and animal iconography the importance of perspective and motion in perceiving Mimbres artistry and the technology used to produce the ceramics This lively engaging work will interest archaeologists art historians and all people who enjoy the beauty of Mimbres pottery Featuring over one hundred new illustrations and insights drawn from a lifetime of study and contemplation this book is much more than a revised edition it establishes a new standard for the artistic interpretation of a classic Southwestern culture for the new century Painted by a Distant Hand Steven A. LeBlanc, 2004 Highlighting one of the Peabody Museum's most important archaeological expeditions the excavation of the Swarts Ranch Ruin in southwestern New Mexico by Harriet and Burton Cosgrove in the mid 1920s Steven LeBlanc's book features rare never before published examples of Mimbres painted pottery considered by many scholars to be the most unique of all the ancient art traditions of North America Made between A D 1000 and 1150 these pottery bowls and jars depict birds fish insects and mammals that the Mimbres encountered in their daily lives portray mythical beings and show humans participating in both ritual and everyday activities LeBlanc traces the origins of the Mimbres people and what became of them and he explores our present understanding of what the images mean and what scholars have learned about the Mimbres people in the 75 years since the Cosgroves expedition
