Models Of Love:

Models of Love Barry Vissell, Joyce Vissell, 1986 Modeling Love Dynamics Sergio E. T. Al RINALDI, 2015-10-22 This book shows for the very first time how love stories a vital issue in our lives can be tentatively described with classical mathematics Focus is on the derivation and analysis of reliable models that allow one to formally describe the expected evolution of love affairs from the initial state of indifference to the final romantic regime The models are in full agreement with the basic philosophical principles of love psychology Eight chapters are theoretically oriented and discuss the romantic relationships between important classes of individuals identified by particular psychological traits The remaining chapters are devoted to case studies described in classical poems or in worldwide famous films Cultural Typologies of Love Victor Karandashev, 2022-09-01 This timely volume offers an integrative approach and a culturally diverse view of love conceptions experiences and expressions building on both individual and cultural typologies of love It comprehensively presents cultural and cross cultural studies on how culture affects love and offers a systematic description of types and cultural models of love The comprehensive reviews of methodology and findings provide a solid empirical basis for the creation of formal typologies This book will be useful for researchers interested in cross cultural studies of love across many disciplines Its accessible language also makes it ideal for undergraduate and graduate students Readers will gain a comprehensive understanding of Cultural conceptions of love and methods for their research Multiple perspectives in the studies of love across world cultures Cultural models and typologies in an international perspective Cultural models and typologies from an interdisciplinary scientific perspective Blackwell Handbook of Social Psychology Garth J. O. Fletcher, Margaret S. Clark, 2008-05-12 This authoritative handbook provides a cutting edge overview of classic and current research as well as an assessment of future trends in the field of interpersonal processes Ensures thorough and up to date coverage of all aspects of interpersonal processes Includes contributions by academics and other experts from around the world to ensure a truly international perspective Provides a comprehensive overview of classic and current research and likely future trends Fully referenced chapters and annotated bibliographies allow easy access to further study Now available in full text online via xreferplus the award winning reference library on the web from xrefer For more information visit www.xreferplus.com Close

Relationships Harry T. Reis, Caryl E. Rusbult, 2004-08-02 Each of the chapters in this reader is written by leading scholars in the area of relationships reflecting the diversity of the field and including both contemporary and key historical papers for comprehensive coverage of research Synthesis of Adequate Mathematical Descriptions of Physical Processes Yurii Menshykov, 2020-08-11 For effective use of the results of computational calculations it is necessary that the computational schemes used correspond to real physical processes so that the schemes are adequate The issue of adequacy is currently poorly understood and there are also no generally accepted criteria of adequacy This book is the first to address the questions of constructing adequate mathematical descriptions of physical processes and their reasonable use in the future for various purposes It proposes two adequacy criteria quantitative and qualitative and describes several possible algorithms for synthesis of cases when the physical process is composed of a system of ordinary differential equations or a mathematical model in algebraic form The algorithms described here will be useful for specialists in areas where methods of mathematical modeling are used such as mechanics

Modeling Human Behavior With Integrated Cognitive Architectures Kevin A. Gluck, Richard W. Pew, 2006-04-21 Resulting from the need for greater realism in models of human and organizational behavior in military simulations there has been increased interest in research on integrative models of human performance both within the cognitive science community generally and within the defense and aerospace industries in particular This book documents accomplishments and lessons learned in a multi year project to examine the ability of a range of integrated cognitive modeling architectures to explain and predict human behavior in a common task environment that requires multi tasking and concept learning This unique project called the Agent Based Modeling and Behavior Representation AMBR Model Comparison involved a series of human performance model evaluations in which the processes and performance levels of computational cognitive models were compared to each other and to human operators performing the identical tasks In addition to quantitative data comparing the performance of the models and real human performance the book also presents a qualitatively oriented discussion of the practical and scientific considerations that arise in the course of attempting this kind of model development and validation effort The primary audiences for this book are people in academia industry and the military who are interested in explaining and predicting complex human behavior using computational cognitive modeling approaches The book should be of particular interest to individuals in any sector working in Psychology Cognitive Science Artificial Intelligence Industrial Engineering System Engineering Human Factors Ergonomics and Operations Research Any technically or scientifically oriented professional or student should find the material fully accessible without extensive mathematical background

New Philosophical Essays on Love and Loving Simon Cushing, 2021-09-20 New philosophical essays on love by a diverse group of international scholars Topics include contributions to the ongoing debate on whether love is arational or if there are reasons for love and if so what kind the kinds of love there may be between humans and artificial intelligences between non human animals and humans whether love can explain the difference between nationalism and patriotism whether love is an necessary component of truly seeing others and the world whether love like free will is fragile and may not survive in a deterministic world and whether or not love is actually a good thing or may instead be a force opposed to morality Key philosophers discussed include Immanuel Kant Iris Murdoch Bernard Williams Harry Frankfurt J David Velleman Niko Kolodny Thomas Hurka Bennett Helm Alfred Mele and Derk Pereboom Essays also touch on the treatment of love in literature and popular culture from Graham Greene's The End of the Affair to Spike Jonze's movie Her

Creating Love John Bradshaw, 2013-04-24 Why are so many of us at times completely baffled by a relationship? How can we think we know someone so well and admit in the end that we hardly knew that person at all? Why do many people who work diligently and strenuously to gain wholeness and balance still feel so frustrated about having a fulfilling relationship? Why have so many people given up on love from the Prologue John Bradshaw's bestselling books and compelling PBS series have touched and changed millions of lives. Now in Creating Love he offers us a new way to understand our most crucial relationships with our romantic partners and spouses with our parents and children with friends and co-workers with ourselves and with God. Bradshaw's compassionate approach shows that many of us have been literally entranced by past experiences of counterfeit love so we unknowingly re-create patterns that can never fulfill us. Here he provides both the insights and the precise tools we need to keep those destructive patterns from repeating in the present. And then he shows how we can open ourselves to the soul-building work of real love and create healthy loving relationships where we can be fully ourselves in every part of our lives.

The Indispensable Dad Stephen Gabriel, 2019 The best givers of advice are those who encourage while they share their own accounts of learning through failure and celebrating success. This book offers just that. As a father of eight adult children, Stephen Gabriel has years of flubs, wins, trial and error, joys, sorrows, lessons learned, lessons shared, observing, trench time, and plenty of reflection on the vocation of fatherhood. His book offers a go-to virtue checklist of sorts full of relatable stories that relate to the grind of the Everyday Dads. Use this book as a measure and reminder of your indispensable role as virtuous leaders of your family. With reliance on the grace and guidance of the Heavenly Father, the sacraments, a life of prayer, the blessing of friendship and community, and common sense, Gabriel's insight is a source of invigorating support for all fathers.

I'm the Boss of Me Jeanne Beliveau-Dunn, 2016-06-29 If you're like most people, you've had good bosses and bad bosses. Some bosses have inspired you. Others have caused you to scratch your head and think, "How did this person get to be in charge?" But you might not realize that you have one amazing boss: someone who's capable of incredible accomplishment and legendary leadership, probably the best boss you'll ever have: YOU. Yes, you. There will always be bosses, teachers, parents, and others to whom you are accountable. All those people will influence and guide you. But only you can choose your ultimate course, and I'm the Boss of Me will show you how. Jeanne Beliveau-Dunn left childhood behind when she became fatherless at age 12. From this financially unstable starting point, which she calls "contrast," Jeanne developed a philosophy of life based on love and meeting life's challenges with resilience and a deep willingness to learn. Now, with more than 20 years of executive-level experience in the technology industry and having founded the Internet of Things Talent Consortium, Jeanne shares career-building lessons, strategies, and tactics interspersed with stories about how she and others have used contrast, courage, resilience, and persistence to propel themselves forward into stellar careers in music, sports, real estate, technology, and many other fields. With a passion for mentoring others, Jeanne offers this guide to developing a self empowered approach to work career and life The book delivers easy to follow instruction on how to Build a Vision Strategy Execution plan Develop a personal brand statement Use networking to develop a bench of supporters who will help you bring your career dreams to reality Visit Jeanne at jeannedunn.com and <https://www.facebook.com/jbeliveaudunn>

Metaphors of Anger, Pride, and Love Zoltán Kövecses,1986-01-01 This study is an attempt to uncover the structure of three emotion concepts anger pride and love The results indicate that the conceptual structure associated with these emotions consists of four parts 1 a system of metaphors 2 a system of metonymies 3 a system of related concepts and 4 a category of cognitive models with a prototypical model in the center This goes against an influential view of the structure of concepts in linguistics psychology anthropology according to which the structure of a concept can be represented by a small number of sense components

Shalom Perry B. Yoder,2017-03-24 The biblical challenge of shalom is one which ought to draw all Christians together in a common struggle so that God s will might be done and God s kingdom might come on earth as it is in heaven People as well as structures need to be transformed People who are caught in oppressive structures need to be liberated from the values and perspectives inculcated by these structures The shalom maker as a result is involved in a mission of conversion converting people to a new understanding and way of life This conversion based on God s love for them in Jesus frees them from old patterns of thought If we struggle for shalom we shall suffer because we are actively confronting and resisting the structures of oppression and working for the liberation of powerless and oppressed people Shalom love is not love at a distance not love in the abstract not love in the rocking chair it is the love of confrontation of strike of protest and of disobedience to the structures of violence Shalom love is suffering love because it is militant love struggling for human liberation justice and shalom which is God s will for our world

The Philosophy of Ang Lee Robert Arp,Adam Barkman,James McRae,2013-04-11 Ang Lee b 1954 has emerged as one of cinema s most versatile critically acclaimed and popular directors Known for his ability to transcend cultural and stylistic boundaries Lee has built a diverse oeuvre that includes films about culture clashes and globalization Eat Drink Man Woman 1994 and The Wedding Banquet 1993 a period drama Sense and Sensibility 1995 a martial arts epic Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon 2000 a comic book action movie Hulk 2003 and an American western Brokeback Mountain 2005 The Philosophy of Ang Lee draws from both Eastern and Western philosophical traditions to examine the director's works The first section focuses on Taoist Confucian and Buddhist themes in his Chinese language films and the second examines Western philosophies in his English language films but the volume ultimately explores how Lee negotiates all of these traditions strategically selecting from each in order to creatively address key issues With interest in this filmmaker and his work increasing around the release of his 3 D magical adventure The Life of Pi 2012 The Philosophy of Ang Lee serves as a timely investigation of the groundbreaking auteur and the many complex philosophical themes that he explores through the medium of motion pictures
