Modern Age Modern Historian In Memoriam Gyorgy Ranki 1930-1988:

Modern Age--modern Historian Ferenc Glatz, 1990 Agrarianism as Modernity in 20th-Century Europe Alex Toshkov, 2019-09-05 Whilst Soviet communism and its relationship with modernity has been widely studied to date the agrarian experiment in Eastern Europe has been relegated to the margins of historical analysis In this comparative study Alex Toshkov uncovers the history of agrarianism after the First World War and explores its place as an alternative modernity to liberal democracy and capitalism Drawing on a wealth of archival material this book explores the transnational connections between the paradigmatic cases of Bulgaria Yugoslavia and Czechoslovakia as well as the International Agrarian Bureau in Prague teasing out contradictions hidden records and silenced interpretations of agrarianism In addition it uses a microhistorical approach to present an innovative theoretical framework which adds to our understanding of nationalism political corruption and alterity and the subaltern This fascinating study restores interwar agrarianism to its rightful place as one of the most original and significant political currents in 20th century Europe Entangled Histories of the Balkans - Volume Two Roumen Daskalov, Diana Mishkova, 2013-11-14 Modern Balkan history has traditionally been studied by national historians in terms of separate national histories taking place within bounded state territories The authors in this volume take a different approach They all seek to treat the modern history of the region from a transnational and relational perspective in terms of shared and connected as well as entangled histories transfers and crossings This goes along with an interest in the way ideas institutions and techniques were selected transferred and adapted to Balkan conditions and how they interacted with those conditions resulting in mingles and hybridization The volume also invites reflection on the interacting entities in the very process of their creation and consecutive transformations rather than taking them as givens Contributors include Diana Mishkova Alexander Vezencov Constantin Iordachi Roumen Daskalov Tchavdar Marinov Blagovest Njagulov Dictionary of East European History Since 1945 Joseph Held, 1994 The Economic Development of Belgium Since 1870 Herman van der Wee, Jan Blomme, 1997 This comprehensive volume comprises articles on the main aspects of Belgian social economic history Various topics are discussed within the volume to give a global picture of the Belgian economy since 1870 the Belgian economy in the long run demography macroeconomic studies with respect to the different economic sectors technological innovation public policy and standards of living The Economic Development of Belgium since 1870 will be of particular interest to students and researchers of social and economic history demography economics and sociology Budapest Review of Books, 2000 Nationalisme économique et industrialisation Thomas David, 2009 De la Révolution française la Seconde Guerre mondiale les politiques d'industrialisation connaissent trois vagues successives le proto nationalisme économique 1789-1860 le nationalisme économique libéral 1860-1914 et le nationalisme économique 1918-1939 Après en avoir fait l'histoire Thomas David traite des conséquences économiques et sociales de ces politiques Comparant l'expérience de la Finlande avec celle des nations d'Europe centrale et orientale il met en exergue comment durant l'entre-deux-guerres le nationalisme économique en Europe de l'Est s'est soldé par un échec dans la mesure où l'état ne s'était pas appuyé sur la société civile. L'ouvrage montre enfin que dans une perspective historique le nationalisme économique est étroitement lié à la mondialisation. À l'heure où l'on assiste à la résurgence de ces politiques dans de nombreuses régions de la planète, l'étude du passé est riche d'enseignements.
