Building a Regime for the Waters of the Euphrates-Tigris River Basin Aysegul Kibaroglu, 2021-10-18 Due to a variety of reasons water resources on the globe are becoming scarcer The degree of water scarcity and its political economic and social implications are felt more severely in regions like the Middle East The Euphrates Tigris river basin is one of the major sources of water but also a source of tension in the region Unless cooperation is achieved among the riparian countries namely Turkey Syria and Iraq in the areas of management allocation and utilisation of the waters of the Euphrates Tigris basin growing scarcity may result not only in conflict but also in further devastation of an extremely vital source Recently water has become a subject matter of international law and formal and informal deliberations in international conferences have produced general principles and norms for using and managing water resources effectively Hence this book is an attempt to put together a meaningful set of principles norms rules and decision making procedures of a region specific regime framework for effective utilisation of the waters of the Euphrates Tigris river basin with a view to promoting cooperation among the riparian countries

Water Governance in the Arab Region United Nations Development Programme. Regional Bureau for Arab States,2013 The publication looks at the alarming current water situation in the Arab countries with demand for water increasing exponentially as a result of rapid population expansion changing lifestyles urbanisation and the pressures of economic growth The high dependency of the region on transboundary waters and growing competition over water use further intensifies the water crisis Furthermore the repercussions of climate change will exacerbate these ongoing challenges This water crisis is at its core an issue of governance often managed by fragmented government institutions with inadequate capacities leading to inefficient provision of potable water and sanitation services Lastly the Arab region s current political and economic transformations present an opportunity to advance water governance reform while effective water governance systems can in turn catalyse region wide aspirations for overall good governance and sustainable human development

The Lebanese Connection Jonathan Marshall,2012-05-16 Long before Mexico Colombia and Afghanistan became notorious for their contributions to the global drug traffic Lebanon was a special target of U S drug agents for harboring the world s greatest single transit port in the international traffic in narcotics In the words of one American official certain of the largest traffickers are so influential politically and certain highly placed officials so deeply involved in the narcotic traffic that one might well state that the Lebanese Government is in the narcotics business Using previously secret government records The Lebanese Connection uncovers for the first time the story of how Lebanon s economy and political system were corrupted by drug profits and how by financing its many ruthless militia Lebanon s drug trade contributed to the country s greatest catastrophe its fifteen year civil war from 1975 to 1990 In so doing this book sheds new light on the dangerous role of vast criminal enterprises in the collapse of states and the creation of war economies that thrive in the midst of civil conflicts Taking a regional approach to the drug issue Jonathan Marshall assesses the culpability of Syria Israel and of Palestinian factions and other groups that used Lebanon as their battleground On the international level he documents Lebanon s contribution to the hard drug problem of major consuming countries from the days of the French Connection through the Pizza Connection as well as Lebanon s unrivaled place in the global hashish market
