Modern Architecture in Alberta Trevor Boddy, University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, Alberta. Alberta Culture and Multiculturalism, 1987 Modern Architecture in Alberta Trevor Boddy, University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, Alberta. Alberta Culture and Multiculturalism, 1987 Canadian Modern Architecture Elsa Lam, Graham Livesey, 2019-11-19 Royal Architectural Institute of Canada RAIC President's Medal Award multi media representation of architecture Canada's most distinguished architectural critics and scholars offer fresh insights into the country's unique modern and contemporary architecture Beginning with the nation's centennial and Expo 67 in Montreal this fifty year retrospective covers the defining of national institutions and movements How Canadian architects interpreted major external trends Regional and indigenous architectural tendencies The influence of architects in Canada's three largest cities Toronto Montreal and Vancouver Co published with Canadian Architect this comprehensive reference book is extensively illustrated and includes fifteen specially commissioned essays Twelve Modern Houses, 1945-1985 Graham Livesey, University of Calgary. Canadian Architectural Archives, Michael McMordie, Geoffrey Simmins, 1995 This publication part of the ongoing mandate of the Canadian Architectural Archives to examine the characteristics of Canadian architecture as reflected in the collections of the University of Calgary Library examines twelve architect created houses designed between the 1940s and the 1980s for several distinct regions of Canada The architects chosen number among the most prolific and best known in Canada who were working during this period including Raymond T Affleck Raymond Moriyama Arthur Erickson Douglas Cardinal John B Parkin Associates and Patkau Architects Other architects with perhaps a more regional reputation have also been included such as the Vancouver based firm of McCarter Nairne Calgary's Jack Long and Edmonton's Peter Hemingway Apart from the documentation of the twelve houses drawings and photos there are interpretative essays on each A co authored introductory essay explores several related themes modernity the contemporary house approaches to landscape and the role of drawings in contemporary practice Contemporary Architects Muriel Emanuel, 2016-01-23 Suburban Modern Robert M. Stamp, 2004 While avant garde modernism disrupted the art salons architecture schools and design studios of the world's more sophisticated urban centres in the 20th century Calgary slept through the cultural upheavals as a provincial backwater Calgary's initiation to modernism might be dated to February 13 1947 when Imperial Oil blew in its famous well at Leduc Or the 1948 football season when Tom Brooks and Les Lear wrapped the Calgary Stampeders football team around an innovative and modernist looking T formation backfield to win the Grey Cup Calgarians embraced the modern age after the Second World War taking modernism into the streets and into the suburbs They went beyond art architecture and design and redefined modernism to include homes furniture appliances and cars In the process Calgarians democratized feminized and suburbanized modernism Suburban Modern examines controversies over coloured margarine and mixed drinking in post war Calgary It shows how new petro office buildings

transformed the downtown skyline during the 1950s and 1960s and how new bus lines roads and bridges changed the city's transportation network As the city sprawled horizontally to engulf its ever expanding suburbs shoppers deserted downtown for suburban malls The book follows young couples into their post war dream homes with modern furnishings and barbecue appointed patios Suburban Modern argues that the suburbs rather than the downtown defined Calgary's approach to modernism
