Modern in the Making Austin Porter, Sandra Zalman, 2020-10-29 Today the Museum of Modern Art is widely recognized for establishing the canon of modern art yet in its early years the museum considered modern art part of a still unfolding experiment in contemporary visual production By bracketing MoMA s early history from its later reputation this book explores the ways the Museum acted as a laboratory to set an ambitious agenda for the exhibition of a multidisciplinary idea of modern art Between its founding in 1929 and its 20th anniversary in 1949 MoMA created the first museum departments of architecture and design film and photography in the country marshaled modern art as a political tool and brought consumer culture into a versatile yet institutional context Encompassing 14 essays that investigate the diversity of modern art this volume demonstrates how MoMA s programming shaped a version of modern art that was not elitist but fundamentally intertwined with all levels of cultural production

Modern Art David Cottington, 2005-02-24 As public interest in modern art continues to grow as witnessed by the spectacular success of Tate Modern and the Bilbao Guggenheim there is a real need for a book that will engage general readers offering them not only information and ideas about modern art but also explaining its contemporary relevance and history This book achieves all this and focuses on interrogating the idea of modern art by asking such questions as What has made a work of art qualify as modern or fail to How has this selection been made What is the relationship between modern and contemporary art Is postmodernist art no longer modern or just no longer modernist in either case why and what does this claim mean both for art and the idea of the modern Cottington examines many key aspects of this subject including the issue of controversy in modern art from Manet s Dejeuner sur l'Herbe 1863 to Picasso s Les Femmes d'Alger and Tracey Emin s Bed 1999 and the role of the dealer from the main Cubist art dealer Kahnweiler to Charles Saatchi ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable

Making the Modern Terry Smith, 1993 Smith reveals how this visual revolution played an instrumental role in the complex psychological social economic and technological changes that came to be known as the second industrial revolution From the role of visualization in the invention of the assembly line to office and building design to the corporate and lifestyle images that filled new magazines such as Life and Fortune he traces the extent to which the second wave of industrialization engaged the visual arts to project a new iconology of progress

Second Edition* Bernard Samuel MYERS,1959 Making It Modern: Essays on the Art of the Now Linda Nochlin,2022-03-08 A selection of key essays on art from the nineteenth century to the present day by one of the most influential voices in art history This illustrated collection of essays brings together some of art historian Linda Nochlin's most important writings on modernism and modernity from across her six decade career Before the publication of her seminal essay on feminism in art Why Have There Been No Great Women Artists she had already firmly established herself as a major practitioner of a politically sophisticated and class conscious social art history Nochlin was part of an important cohort of scholars writing on modernity determined to rethink the narratives of the subject under the pressure of contemporary events such as student uprisings the women's liberation movement and the Vietnam War with the help of politically engaged literary criticism that was emerging at the same time Nochlin embraced Charles Baudelaire's conviction that modernity is meant to be of one's time and that the role of an art historian was to understand the art of the past not only in its own historical context but according to the urgencies of the contemporary world From academic debates about the nude in the eighteenth century to the work of Robert Gober in the twenty first whatever she turned her analytic eye to was conceived as the art of the now Including seven previously unpublished pieces this collection highlights the breadth and diversity of Nochlin's output across the decades including discussions on colonialism fashion and sex

Making Modernism Michael C. FitzGerald,1996-01-01 Artists don't achieve financial success and critical acclaim during their lifetimes as a result of chance or luck Michael FitzGerald's assiduously researched book documents Picasso's courting of dealers critics collectors and curators as he established his reputation during the first forty years of the twentieth century FitzGerald describes the care patience and resourcefulness invested by Paul Rosenberg Picasso's dealer and close collaborator from 1918 to 1940 in building the financial value and public acceptance of Picasso's art The book is based on and quotes generously from previously unpublished correspondence between Picasso and dealers collectors and museum curators Modern Art in the Making George Pratt Shultz,1959 A Companion to Modern Art Pam Meecham,2018-02-13 A Companion to Modern Art presents a series of original essays by international and interdisciplinary authors who offer a comprehensive overview of the origins and evolution of artistic works movements approaches influences and legacies of Modern Art Presents a contemporary debate and dialogue rather than a seamless consensus on Modern Art Aims for reader accessibility by highlighting a plurality of approaches and voices in the field Presents Modern Art's foundational philosophic ideas and practices as well as the complexities of key artists such as Cezanne and Picasso and those who straddled the modern and contemporary Looks at the historical reception of Modern Art in addition to the latest insights of art historians curators and critics to artists educators and more Making Contemporary Art Linda Weintraub,2003

Making Contemporary Art is the ideal launchpad for anyone wanting to understand all the essential but sometimes elusive aspects of art making today In her inimitable voice accessible straightforward and jargon free Linda Weintraub explores the conceptual and practical concerns that go into making contemporary art Six clearly defined thematic sections Scoping an Audience Sourcing Inspiration Crafting and Artistic Self Expressing an Artistic Attitude Choosing a Mission and Measuring Success draw on the work of forty contemporary artists including Matthew Barney Chris Ofili Isaac Julien Nan Goldin and Mariko Mori to create a complex understanding of how to make and look at contemporary art A series of interviews with various artists sheds light on every aspect of their work from how they conceive and create their pieces to their more prosaic practical concerns In addition to being a fine read for anyone who simply wants to understand how to look at contemporary art Making Contemporary Art is also an exceptional teaching tool and one that plugs a huge gap in the art education market Product description Modern Art in the Making Bernard S. Art World Pedith Pui Chan,2017-03-06 The Making of A Modern Art World explores the artistic institutions and discursive practices prevailing in Republican Shanghai aiming to reconstruct the operational logic and the stratified hierarchy of Shanghai s art world Using guohua as the point of entry this book interrogates the discourse both of guohua itself and the wider discourse of Chinese modernism in the visual arts In the light of the sociological definition of art world this book contextualizes guohua through focusing on the modes of production and consumption of painting in Shanghai examining newly adopted modern artistic practices namely art associations periodicals art colleges exhibitions and the art market

How Folklore Shaped Modern Art Wes Hill,2015-11-19 Since the 1990s artists and art writers around the world have increasingly undermined the essentialism associated with notions of critical practice We can see this manifesting in the renewed relevance of what were previously considered outsider art practices the emphasis on first person accounts of identity over critical theory and the proliferation of exhibitions that refuse to distinguish between art and the productions of culture more generally How Folklore Shaped Modern Art A Post Critical History of Aesthetics underscores how the cultural traditions belief systems and performed exchanges that were once integral to the folklore discipline are now central to contemporary art s post critical turn This shift is considered here as less a direct confrontation of critical procedures than a symptom of art s inclusive ideals overturning the historical separation of fine art from those uncritical forms located in material and commercial culture In a global context aesthetics is now just one of numerous traditions informing our encounters with visual culture today symptomatic of the pull towards an impossibly pluralistic image of art that reflects the irreducible conditions of identity Making contemporary art Linda Weintraub,2003 In the Making Linda

Weintraub,2003 A creative poetic biography based on the dreams and many thoughts of the author Tim O Bryan A Pittsburgh Pennsylvania native former South Carolinian who now lives in Ohio with his wife and kids Since '45 Katy Siegel,2011-03-15 Since 45 details the collision of American history and modern art Since World War II New York has been the indisputable center of the art world and as Katy Siegel shows it has had a profound influence on the preoccupations that contemporary art would come to have Tracing art history over the past decades she shows how anxieties over race mass culture the individual suburbia apocalypse and nuclear destruction have supplanted the legacy of European artistic traditions Siegel s study encompasses a variety of works including Rothko s planes of color Warhol s serial silkscreens Richard Prince s cowboys Robert Longo s Men in Cities Faith Ringgold s Black Light and Laurie Simmons s dollhouses and moves fluidly from discussions of artists works art museums and galleries to cultural influences and significant historical events Rather than arguing on nationalist grounds or viewing American culture as representative of a now devalued nation Siegel explores how American culture dominated not only American artists but created conditions that now after the full globalization of the art world affect artists around the world Since 45 will interest all readers engaged in post war and contemporary art in the United States and beyond Frameworks for Modern Art Jason Gaiger,2003-01-01 This generously illustrated volume the first in the Art of the Twentieth Century series introduces and explores a range of contemporary issues and debates about art and its place in the wider culture today The opening chapter discusses key concepts such as modernity modernism autonomy spectatorship and globalization Four case studies follow each devoted to a specific work of art across the span of the century Marcel Duchamp s Bottlerack Barnett Newman s Eve Ana Mendieta s Silueta series and Yarla by the Australian Aboriginal Yuendumu community These works have been selected not only for their intrinsic interest but also for the way in which they open up wider questions of meaning and interpretation that are central to understanding twentieth century art The Changing Boundaries and Nature of the Modern Art World Richard Kalina,2021-04-08 Concentrating on the shifting boundaries and definition of art Richard Kalina offers a panoramic view of the contemporary art scene over the last 30 years His focus is on the ongoing development of concepts the transformation of art worlds and the social matrices in which they are created Discussing painting in general and abstract painting in particular his survey takes in photorealism sculpture and art forms found outside of the modernist tradition Kalina s group of artists includes Mel Bochner Joan Mitchell Cy Twombly Franz West and Alma Thomas who in their ongoing projects explicitly or implicitly questioned the aesthetic assumptions of their times Merging an examination of animating philosophies and context political social and personal with a sharply focused look at the works of art themselves Kalina brings us closer to understanding the social matrices in which art is embedded and responds to bigger questions about the object nature of the work of art in today s world
