Kindai Chūgoku Shakai Kenkyū George William Skinner, Winston Hsieh, 1973 Modern Chinese Society: an Analytical Bibliography, 1973 Modern Chinese Society, 1973 Modern Chinese Society, 1973 Modern Chinese Society, 1973 Modern Chinese Society George William Skinner, 1973 Modern Chinese Society: Skinner, G.W., ed. Publications in Western languages, 1644-1972, 1973 Modern Chinese Society: Skinner, G.W. and Hsieh, W., editors. Publications in Chinese, 1644-1969, 1973 Area Bibliography of China Richard T. Wang, 1997 A combination of scholarly commercial and popular interests has generated a large quantity of literature on every aspect of Chinese life during the past two decades This bibliography reflects these combined interests it is broken up into sections by subject headings and cross references refer the researcher to related topics The Chinese [migr]s of Thailand in the Twentieth Century Disaphol Chansiri, 2008 examines Thai Chinese relations dating back to the first Thai dynasty Sukhothai to the present Ratanakosin The study explores the Thai domestic policies that have affected the Chinese population since World War II and assimilation policies of the Thai government towards the Chinese This book also analyzes both Skinner s and Chan and Tong s arguments and their main idea in the context of the present day environment and situation for the ethnic Chinese This research supports the Skinnerian paradigm which asserts that a majority of the descendants of Chinese immigrants in each generation merge with Thai society and become indistinguishable from the indigenous population to the extent that fourth generation Chinese are practically non existent The validation of the Skinnerian paradigm rejects Chan and Tong s hypothesis which claims that Skinner has overemphasized the forces of assimilation and that the Chinese in Thailand have not assimilated but retained their Chinese identity To support Skinner s assertion and reject Chan and Tong s argument this book presents rich empirical data collected via surveys conducted with the ethnic Chinese in Thailand from 2003 2004 This study uncovers that the forces of assimilation occur at two levels On the first level the Chinese in Thailand possess natural attributes which facilitate social and cultural integration and assimilation into Thai society On the second level government pro assimilation policies driven by the bilateral relations between Thailand and China and the political situation in both countries are also responsible for the assimilation of the Chinese in Thailand As the most current in depth study on the Chinese in Thailand The Chinese migr s of Thailand in the Twentieth Century is a critical addition for all collections in Asian Studies as well as Ethnic and Immigrant Studies *Modern Chinese Society: Publications in Chinese, 1644-1969, edited by G. Lew, Edwin Pak-wah Leung, 2013-07-29 The Chinese Civil War which lasted several years or several decades depending on how you define it was one of the most momentous wars of the 20th century for it determined the fate of the world's most populous country and was bitterly fought with millions of combatants involved and hundreds of millions of civilians affected More to the point it was won by the Chinese Communist Party under Mao Zedong who imposed Communist rule while the Nationalists retreated to Taiwan It also heated up the Cold War for quite some time as the Communists were supported by the Soviet Union and the Nationalists by the United States This second edition of the Historical Dictionary of the Chinese Civil War studies the longer broader war and its chronology carefully tracks the major events The introduction then provides a broad overview describing the contending forces and showing how the Communists come out on top The details and these are crucial are laid out in over 200 cross referenced dictionary entries dealing with the opposing forces and parties the major campaigns and battles the Long March and of course the leadership on both sides This book one of few such in English provides a very solid basis for study but that can be accomplished more effectively by consulting the titles listed in an extensive bibliography

Schools Into Fields and Factories Ming K. Chan, Arif Dirlik, 1991 In this collaborative effort by two leading scholars of modern Chinese history Ming K Chan and Arif Dirlik investigate how the short lived National Labor University in Shanghai was both a reflection of the revolutionary concerns of its time and a catalyst for future radical experiments in education Under the slogan Turn schools into fields and factories fields and factories into schools the university attempted to bridge the gap between intellectual and manual labor which its founders saw as a central problem of capitalism and which remains a persistent theme in Chinese revolutionary thinking The authors bring to bear the perspectives of institutional and intellectual history on their examination of the structure and operation of the university presenting new material on its faculty curriculum physical plant and history They demonstrate how the prominent features and problems of Chinese higher education during the early years of the Guomindang regime prefigure the Marxist program of the Cultural Revolution and continue to have an influence on revolutionary thinking in the situation of China today Jacket

Historical Dictionary of the Chinese Civil War Edwin Pak-wah Leung, 2002-10-16 The Chinese Civil War has been regarded by many as an important subject in the study of modern Chinese history as this protracted struggle ultimately led to the Communist victory on the Mainland and the Nationalist government's retreat to the island of Taiwan in 1949 Considered an extremely important turning point in modern Chinese history the Civil War is also of great international significance This resource the first of its kind written in English details the microscopic and macroscopic views of the Chinese Civil War people events places and institutions
