Modern Egypt and Its Heritage Carolyn Fluehr-Lobban, 1990 Love, Sex, and Desire in Modern Egypt L. L.

Wynn, 2018-11-23 Cairo is a city obsessed with honor and respectability and love affairs Sara a working class woman has an affair with a married man and becomes pregnant only to be abandoned by him Ayah and Zeid a respectably engaged couple argue over whether Ayah's friend is a prostitute or a virgin Malak a European belly dancer who sometimes gets paid for sex wants to be loved by a man who won't treat her like a whore just because she's a dancer and Alia a Christian banker who left her abusive husband is the mistress of a wealthy Muslim man Haroun who encourages business by hosting risqu parties for other men and their mistresses Set in transnational Cairo over two decades Love Sex and Desire in Modern Egypt is an ethnography that explores female respectability male honor and Western theories and fantasies about Arab society L L Wynn uses stories of love affairs to interrogate three areas of classic anthropological theory mimesis kinship and gift She develops a broad picture of how individuals love and desire within a cultural and political system that structures the possibilities of and penalties for going against sexual and gender norms Wynn demonstrates that love is at once a moral horizon an attribute that naturally inheres in particular social relations a social phenomenon strengthened through cultural concepts of gift and kinship and an emotion deeply felt and desired by individuals Contemporary Archaeology in Theory Robert W.

analyses of individual texts over half a century this intriguing history of the dynamics of Islam and culture in modern Egypt presents the conflict between tradition and secular values in a challenging new light Including literature and film as crucial sources this book is accessible to general readers and scholars alike The Oxford Handbook of Modern Egyptian

History Beth Baron, Jeffrey Culang, 2024 Until relatively recently scholars of Egyptian history understood the modern period to begin with the movement of European people and ideas to Egypt's northern shores precipitated by Napoleon's invasion in 1798 From this perspective modern Egyptian history was animated by the diverse and sometimes contradictory ways in which Egyptians responded over time to colonial power and modern forms of knowledge This handbook featuring 26

originally commissioned essays by top scholars in the field adds to a growing literature that complicates the facile colonizer colonized and modern tradition binaries undergirding this view Modern Egyptian history is a continuous process of translation and adaptation invention and reinvention Bringing together a dynamic and accomplished group of historians of Egypt the book maps the present state of modern Egyptian history highlighting the most promising avenues of research and laying new ground upon which future generations of scholars may build The contributors address both long persisting themes in the field though in new ways as well as new themes reshaping how we understand modern Egyptian history and thus Middle Eastern and global history These include environment family infrastructure intellectuals labor law literature medicine politics popular culture and slavery Within these categories they explore issues of gender race and class The questions these scholars consider reflect pressing contemporary concerns and debates including medical sovereignty and bodily autonomy the management of the environment the rights and movements of workers courts and legal struggles cultural expression production and reception and the relationship between the army state and society Routledge Handbook on Contemporary Egypt Robert Springborg, Amr Adly, Anthony Gorman, Tamir Moustafa, Aisha Saad, Naomi Sakr, Sarah Smierciak, 2021-03-30 Investigating key features of contemporary Egypt this volume includes Egypt's modern history politics economics the legal system environment and its media and modes of cultural expression It examines Egypt's capacities to meet developmental challenges ranging from responding to globalization and regional competition to generating sufficient economic growth and political inclusion to accommodate the interests and demands of a rapidly growing population The macrohistory of Egypt is complemented by the microhistories of specific institutions and processes that constitute separate sections in this handbook The chapters revolve around political economy it is shaped by the people and their abilities political and legal institutions organization of the economy natural and built environments and culture and communication Politics has been overwhelmingly authoritarian and coercive since the military seized power in 1952 consequently the contributions address both the causes and consequences of unbalanced civil military relations military rule and persisting authoritarianism in the political society This multidisciplinary handbook serves a dual purpose of introducing readers to Egypt's history and contemporary political economy and as a comprehensive key resource for postgraduate students and academics interested in modern Egypt View of Ancient and Modern Egypt Michael Russell, 1835

Sufism, Mystics, and Saints in Modern Egypt Valerie J. Hoffman, 2023-02-07 A fascinating insider's account of Sufi life in contemporary Egypt For centuries Sufism Islamic mysticism held a major place in Islamic spirituality intellectual life and popular religion While many scholars have commented on Sufism's decline few have delved deeply into present day Egyptian Sufism or considered it as a system in its own right Drawing on her detailed fieldwork and a variety of little known literary sources Valerie J Hoffman presents Sufism as it exists in Egypt today in the vivid experiences of its adherents With an array of conclusions that overturn widely held beliefs about modern Sufis Hoffman argues that the apparent assimilation of

Egyptian Sufism masks a thriving movement hidden from the Western world From her experiences as a quasi disciple of a Sufi master she offers new insights into the movement s evolution the vital role of women in Sufism and Sufi perspectives on gender and sexuality Heritage and War William Bülow,Helen Frowe,Derek Matravers,Joshua Lewis Thomas,2023-02-07 The world responded with horror to ISIS s campaign of destruction of cultural heritage across the Middle East including with calls for an international response to prevent such damage At the same time newspapers and screens were filled with images of human destruction devastated cities and thousands of refugees fleeing the conflict This juxtaposition caused a backlash against those voicing their concerns about the destruction of ancient ruins popularly framed as dispute about stone versus lives In the face of so much human suffering it can seem inappropriate to worry about anything but the urgent basic needs of people Heritage and War addresses this issue within the context of a wider debate amidst a range of moral questions Eleven original essays investigate a variety of philosophical and moral questions arising from the phenomenon of heritage destruction in war such how we ought to respond to heritage that is damaged in war the nature of the harm caused by such damage and the morally appropriate treatment of sites of war and conflict that have themselves become heritage sites Such issues are philosophically rich and yet they have been largely neglected by academic philosophers This book makes a substantial contribution to developing this new philosophical territory and identifying the role that philosophers have to play in developing our understanding of and responses to these important issues A History of World Egyptology Andrew Bednarski,Aidan Dodson,Salima Ikram,2021-05-27 A History of World Egyptology is a ground breaking reference work that traces the study of ancient Egypt over the past 150 years Global in purview it enlarges our understanding of how and why people have looked and continue to look into humankind s distant past through the lens of the enduring allure of ancient Egypt Written by an international team of scholars the volume investigates how territories around the world have engaged with and have been inspired by ancient Egypt and its study and how that engagement has evolved over time Chapters present a specific territory from different perspectives including institutional and national while examining a range of transnational links as well The volume thus touches on multiple strands of scholarship embracing not only Egyptology but also social history the history of science and reception studies It will appeal to amateurs and professionals with an interest in the histories of Egypt archaeology and science The Routledge Handbook of Museums, Heritage, and Death Trish Biers,Katie Stringer Clary,2023-07-26 This book provides a comprehensive examination of death dying and human remains in museums and heritage sites around the world Presenting a diverse range of contributions from scholars practitioners and artists the book reminds us that death and the dead body are omnipresent in museum and heritage spaces Chapters appraise collection practices and their historical context present global perspectives and potential resolutions and suggest how death and dying should be presented to the public Acknowledging that professionals in the galleries libraries archives and museums GLAM fields are engaging in vital discussions about repatriation and anti colonialist narratives the book includes reflections on a variety of deathscapes that are at the forefront of the debate Taking a multivocal approach the handbook provides a foundation for debate as well as a reference for how the dead are treated within the public arena Most important perhaps the book highlights best practices and calls for more ethical frameworks and strategies for collaboration particularly with descendant communities The Routledge Handbook of Museums Heritage and Death will be useful to all individuals working with studying and interested in curation and exhibition at museums and heritage sites around the world It will be of particular interest to those working in the fields of heritage museum studies death studies archaeology anthropology sociology and history

Sharia and the Making of the Modern Egyptian Reem A. Meshal, 2014 In this book the author examines sijills the official documents of the Ottoman Islamic courts to understand how sharia law society and the early modern economy of sixteenth and seventeenth century Ottoman Cairo related to the practice of custom in determining rulings In the sixteenth century a new legal and cultural orthodoxy fostered the development of an early modern Islam that broke new ground giving rise to a new concept of the citizen and his role These issues resonate today several centuries later in the continuing discussions of individual rights in relation to Islamic law

Public Culture and Islam in Modern Egypt Hatsuki Aishima, 2016-04-25 What does it mean to be an intellectual in Egypt today What is expected from an authentic scholar Hatsuki Aishima explores these questions by examining educated urban Egyptians and their perceptions of what it means to be cultured and middle class something that as a result of the neoliberal policies of Egyptian government is widely thought to be a shrinking sector of society Through an analysis of the media representations of Abd al Halim Mahmud 1910-78 the French trained Sufi scholar and the Grand Imam of al Azhar under president Anwar al Sadat Aishima discusses the connection of Islam to these middle class considerations and makes an original contribution to the debate on the commodification of religious teaching and knowledge Public Culture and Islam in Modern Egypt is thereby a unique addition to the fields of anthropology Middle East and media studies
