Modern Indonesia, Tradition & Transformation Sartono Kartodirdjo, 1988 Modern Indonesia, Tradition & Transformation Sartono Kartodirdjo, 1984 Modern Indonesia, Tradition & Transformation Sartono Kartodirdjo, 1991 Traditions and Transformations of Habitation in Indonesia Bagoes Wiryomartono, 2020-03-04 This book raises the issue of the practice of patrimonial power with a focus on habitations particularly in the urban areas of Indonesia. An assemblage of interdisciplinary studies within the framework of environmental humanities covering the arts, architecture, urban studies, geography, cultural anthropology, and sociology, this multifaceted framework divulges the interactive connectivity between Indonesia's patrimonial culture and the socio-culturally constructed system of habitation. The interdisciplinary study of the pertinent practices of patrimonial power that have been represented and been manifested by various political and traditional regimes in terms of the built environment and habitation in Indonesia contributes to a new understanding of Indonesian urban spatial development from the pre-colonial era to the present. The book poses that in order to understand the politics of Indonesia, one must understand the culture and tradition of the political leadership of the country. The author presents such an understanding in exploring and unpacking the relationship between people and place that constructs, develops, sustains, and conserves Indonesian culture and traditions of habitation. This book is of interest to graduate scholars and researchers in Asian Studies in numerous disciplines including urban studies, urban planning and design, political science, architecture, anthropology of space, public administration, and political philosophy.

Youth Identities and Social Transformations in Modern Indonesia, 2015-11-16 Youth Identities and Social Transformations in Modern Indonesia addresses current struggles and opportunities facing Indonesia's youth across the archipelago. Contributions to this volume delve into youth aspirations and their everyday lives: education, friendship, work, leisure, sexuality, religion, described through the lens of the young people themselves. They are well educated but employment is hard to find; alternative paths to adulthood can include early marriage or joining street protest movements. In public rhetoric, youth is often associated with moral panics related to sexual morality and also to violent religious identities and street protests. The authors include leading scholars of Indonesia and its youth reporting on ethnographic research from across the archipelago. Contributors are Linda Rae Bennett, Patrick Guinness, Noorhaidi Hasan, C. Ugik Margiyatin, Pam Nilan, Lyn Parker, Kathryn Robinson, Patricia Spyer, Puju Semedi, Ben White, Tracy Wright, Webster.

Reinventing Indonesia Ginandjar Kartasasmita, Joseph J. Stern, 2015-06-24. Reinventing Indonesia presents an insider's view of the tumultuous transition that took place in Indonesia from 1997 to 2004. This was a period of unprecedented changes in democratized governance and decentralizing power throughout the country amidst significant economic turmoil. The results of these changes were not pre-ordained but were the result of the social forces unleashed by the Asian Financial Crisis and the end of the New Order as well as the deft guidance of key policymakers. The book also examines the origins of the economic crisis of the late 1990s in Indonesia and the actions taken to address the crisis during those difficult years. The authors were directly involved in many of the events recounted in this book, particularly Ginandjar Kartasasmita through his career in the Indonesian government under various ministerial positions. Thus the book provides insights that could only come from those directly involved in the decision making. It also explains the transitions that occurred in Indonesia in the context of academic theories of democratic transition and consolidation, thereby adding to the body of knowledge in this area. The Indonesian story holds lessons therefore for the management of financial crisis and for the urgency of reform and development of economic and political institutions.
