Internationale de Droit Comparé Karen B. Brown,David V. Snyder,2011-12-30 This title presents twenty nine topics prepared by leading scholars in more than 20 countries providing a comparative analysis of cutting edge legal topics of the 21st century Considering topics of vital moment to contemporary legal scholars the title includes pieces on Surrogate Motherhood The Balance of Copyright in Comparative Perspective International Law in Domestic Systems Constitutional Courts as Positive Legislators Same sex Marriage Climate Change and the Law The Regulation of Private Equity Hedge Funds and State Funds and Regulation of Corporate Tax Evasion Each chapter surveys legal developments in the U S and Canada Europe Asia Latin and South America Africa and the Middle East in a format that permits the reader easy access to similarities and differences in the approaches of the selected national regimes This comprehensive volume tells the story of parallel trends in the evolution of legal doctrine despite jurisdictional cultural and political barriers While each of the covered countries stands alone as a sovereign in a technologically advanced world their disparate systems nonetheless have converged to adopt comparable strategies in dealing with complex legal issues The volume is a critical addition to the library of any scholar hoping to keep abreast of the major trends in contemporary law Centennial Fever Javier Moreno-Luzón, 2024-01-05 Commemorations that shaped major elements of Spanish identity at the beginning of the 20th century are full of centennials and anniversaries that elaborate and renew the Spanish national mythology In Centennial Fever Javier Moreno Luz n one of the most prominent Spanish historians of his generation studies the milestones that defined transnational dimensions of celebration at the beginning of the 20th century including the Peninsular War the first Spanish Constitution the independence of Latin American States the discovery of the Pacific Ocean and the death of Miguel de Cervantes and the publication of Don Quixote of La Mancha Through these truly global events a cultural community is created called Hispanoamerica or La Raza on which Spanish nationalism has become dependent Comparative Research, 1982 Political Conflict and Development in East Asia and Latin America Richard Boyd, Galjart Benno, Tak-Wing Ngo, 2007-01-24 Long run processes of socio economic change generate prodigious problems of social conflict and social control and governments responsible for these processes must therefore manage the resultant conflict Consequently the success or failure of a government s management of such conflicts is a crucial factor in development outcomes This volume investigates the political struggle for development specifically in two vital regions East Asia and Latin America This analysis calls into question the dominant emphasis on institutional and cultural bases for stable growth A careful historical account of the two regions is presented which permits the rigorous testing of conventional wisdoms regarding development Of importance to a broad range of academics in the spheres of development studies politics political economy and sociology this book will also make an interesting read for those with a general interest in these areas Explaining Religious Party Strength Mário Rebelo, 2022-12-30 Explaining Religious Party Strength explores why religious political parties are electorally successful in some countries but not in others Drawing on insights from political science and sociology this book argues that religious parties are typically formed for defensive reasons reacting against state builders attempts to secularize public services such as education welfare and healthcare Building on these findings the author argues that the strength of religious parties is determined by the infrastructural power of the state Weak states that fail to provide adequate public services open up space for religious communities to build a dense network of private schools hospitals and charities which translates into votes for religious political parties By contrast strong states that provide efficient public services squeeze out private welfare providers undermining the electoral strength of religious political parties The author tests this theory through statistical analysis using a new dataset on all religious parties which have participated in national parliamentary elections between 1800 and 2015 He includes comparative historical analyses of Roman Catholic political parties in France and Italy and Sunni Islamic political parties in Egypt Turkey and Albania This book will interest students and scholars of religion and politics specifically those interested in party formation voting and political activism as well as policymakers Bodies of Maize,

Eaters of Grain: Comparing material worlds, metaphor and the agency of art in the Preclassic Maya and Mycenaean early civilisations Marcus Jan Bajema, 2017-09-30 This book offers a comparative study of the civilisations of the Late Preclassic lowland Maya and Mycenaean Greece The approach used here seeks to combine traditional iconographic approaches with more recent models on metaphor and the social agency of things
