Modern Art And The Object:

Modern Art And The Object Ellen H. Johnson, 2019-03-04 This book is devoted to a reexamination of modern art from the point of view of the artist's approach to the object. It chronicles the complex changing relationship between art and the object over the past hundred years, a fundamental organicism relationship as one thing grows out of another. Modern Art and the Object ELLEN H. JOHNSON, Taylor & Francis Group, 2019-06-28 From Space in Modern Art to a Spatial Art History Jutta Vinzent, 2019-12-02 This book traces artists' theories of constructive space in the first half of the twentieth century. Drawing on these concepts and recent theories on space, it develops a methodology termed Spatial Art History that conceives of artworks as physical spatio-temporal things which produce the social to overcome the reductive understanding of art as a mere mirror or facilitator of society. Dictionary Of Modern Art Matthew Baigell, 2021-12-13 Alphabetically arranged and crossreferenced entries provide background information on major American painters, sculptors, printmakers, and photographers, plus important topics and movements central to American art from the sixteenth century to the present.

The Changing Boundaries and Nature of the Modern Art World Richard Kalina, 2021-04-08 Concentrating on the shifting boundaries and definition of art, Richard Kalina offers a panoramic view of the contemporary art scene over the last 30 years. His focus is on the ongoing development of concepts, the transformation of art worlds, and the social matrices in which they are created. Discussing painting in general and abstract painting in particular, his survey takes in photorealism, sculpture, and art forms found outside of the modernist tradition. Kalina's group of artists includes Mel Bochner, Joan Mitchell, Cy Twombly, Franz West, and Alma Thomas, who in their ongoing projects explicitly or implicitly questioned the aesthetic assumptions of their times. Merging an examination of animating philosophies and context, political, social, and personal, with a sharply focused look at the works of art themselves, Kalina brings us closer to understanding the social matrices in which art is embedded and responds to bigger questions about the object nature of the work of art in today's world. Frameworks for Modern Art Jason Gaiger, 2003-01-01 This generously illustrated volume, the first in the Art of the Twentieth Century series, introduces and explores a range of contemporary issues and debates about art and its place in the wider culture today. The opening chapter discusses key concepts such as modernity, modernism, autonomy, spectatorship, and globalization. Four case studies follow, each devoted to a specific work of art across the span of the century: Marcel Duchamp's Bottlerack, Barnett Newman's Eve, Ana Mendieta's Siluetas series, and Yarla by the Australian Aboriginal Yuendumu community. These works have been selected not only for their intrinsic interest but also for the way in which they open up wider questions of meaning and interpretation that are central to understanding twentieth-century art. Boundaries of Modern Art Richard Pooler, 2013-02-04 Conceptual art in the Western world is in crisis. That is the view of many people who are disillusioned with what they regard as its attention-seeking antics, where artists themselves have proudly proclaimed the death of art. Why has art been on this road to destruction, and how did it get there? How does one make sense of the bewildering complexity of

Conceptual art and how does one extract meaning from its diverse and sometimes bizarre manifestations This predicament needs explanation and an exploration of the theoretical underpinnings of modern and contemporary art and a means to evaluate it This book starts with a summarised overview of the major art movements since the beginning of the twentieth century a tracing of the extraordinary journey that art has followed in modern times The next part considers contemporary art movements to explore whether they have value and how that value can be determined Are the activities that take place in the name of art actually art Or as some would have it is it a gigantic sham manipulated by clowns to make a trap for fools To some it is an outrage that modern and contemporary artists can splash paint around quickly and freely with a modicum of skill or assemble a range of found objects and regard themselves as gifted and creative artists Others see this as a new forward rolling wave with art at last released from the suffocation and restrictions of the past The rules have been cast aside There are fresh ways of exploring and seeing the world and expressing it freely The world is constantly changing and art must change with it Modern art has followed a long journey Traditions have been largely cast aside and replaced with an unceasing search for the new Our apparent progress is now being questioned Where do we go from here Are we on the right road The second half of this book discusses how we can make sense of contemporary art and assign value to an artwork Traditional painting and sculpture have physical limits Conceptual art does not This is a new freedom but is it freedom for art or freedom from art

The Contingent Object of Contemporary Art Martha Buskirk, 2005-02-18 An exploration of transformations in the nature of the art object and artistic authorship in the last four decades In this book Martha Buskirk addresses the interesting fact that since the early 1960s almost anything can and has been called art Among other practices contemporary artists have employed mass produced elements impermanent materials and appropriated imagery have incorporated performance and video and have created works through instructions carried out by others Furthermore works of art that lack traditional signs of authenticity or permanence have been embraced by institutions long devoted to the original and the permanent Buskirk begins with questions of authorship raised by minimalists use of industrial materials and methods including competing claims of ownership and artistic authorship evident in conflicts over the right to fabricate artists works Examining recent examples of appropriation she finds precedents in pop art and the early twentieth century readymade and explores the intersection of contemporary artistic copying and the system of copyrights trademarks and brand names characteristic of other forms of commodity production She also investigates the ways that connections between work and context have transformed art and institutional conventions the impact of new materials on definitions of medium the role of the document as both primary and secondary object and the significance of conceptually oriented performance work for the intersection of photography and the human body in contemporary art Buskirk explores how artists active in the 1980s and 1990s have recombined strategies of the art of the 1960s and 1970s She also shows how the mechanisms through which art is presented shape not only readings of the work but the work itself She uses her discussion of the readymade and conceptual art to explore broader issues of authorship reproduction context and temporality The Changing Boundaries and Nature of the Modern Art World Richard Kalina, 2021-04-08 Concentrating on the shifting boundaries and definition of art Richard Kalina offers a panoramic view of the contemporary art scene over the last 30 years His focus is on the ongoing development of concepts the transformation of art worlds and the social matrices in which they are created Discussing painting in general and abstract painting in particular his survey takes in photorealism sculpture and art forms found outside of the modernist tradition Kalina's group of artists includes Mel Bochner Joan Mitchell Cy Twombly Franz West and Alma Thomas who in their ongoing projects explicitly or implicitly questioned the aesthetic assumptions of their times Merging an examination of animating philosophies and context political social and personal with a sharply focused look at the works of art themselves Kalina brings us closer to understanding the social matrices in which art is embedded and responds to bigger questions about the object nature of the work of art in today's world Objects of Desire Margit Rowell, 1997 Exhibition 5 25 8 26 97 Dist by Abrams Explores the genre in the 20th c Contemporary Art and Digital Culture Melissa Gronlund, 2016-12-08 Contemporary Art and Digital Culture analyses the impact of the internet and digital technologies upon art today Art over the last fifteen years has been deeply inflected by the rise of the internet as a mass cultural and socio political medium while also responding to urgent economic and political events from the financial crisis of 2008 to the ongoing conflicts in the Middle East This book looks at how contemporary art addresses digitality circulation privacy and globalisation and suggests how feminism and gender binaries have been shifted by new mediations of identity It situates current artistic practice both in canonical art history and in technological predecessors such as cybernetics and net art and takes stock of how the art world infrastructure has reacted to the internet's promises of democratisation An invaluable resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students of contemporary art especially those studying history of art and art practice and theory as well as those working in film media curation or art education Melissa Gronlund is a writer and lecturer on contemporary art specialising in the moving image From 2007 2015 she was co editor of the journal Afterall and her writing has appeared there and in Artforum e flux journal frieze the New Yorker com and many other places A Dictionary of Modern and Contemporary Art Ian Chilvers, John Graves-Smith, 2009 This unique and authoritative reference work contains more than 2 000 clear and concise entries on all aspects of modern and contemporary art Its impressive range of terms includes movements styles techniques artists critics dealers schools and galleries There are biographical entries for artists worldwide from the beginning of the 20th century through to the beginning of the 21st from the Finnish architect Alvar Aalto to the French sculptor Jacques Zwobada With international coverage indications of public collections and publicly sited works and in depth entries for key topics for example Cubism and abstract art this dictionary is a fascinating and thorough guide for anyone with an interest in modern and contemporary culture amateur or professional Formerly the Dictionary of 20th Century Art the text has been completely revised and updated for this major new edition 300 entries have been added and it

Still Life Fernando Domínguez Rubio, 2020-08-20 How do you keep the cracks in Starry Night from spreading How do you prevent artworks made of hugs or candies from disappearing How do you render a fading photograph eternal or should you attempt it at all These are some of the questions that conservators curators registrars and exhibition designers dealing with contemporary art face on a daily basis In Still Life Fernando Domínguez Rubio delves into one of the most important museums of the world the Museum of Modern Art MoMA in New York to explore the day to day dilemmas that museum workers face when the immortal artworks that we see in the exhibition room reveal themselves to be slowly unfolding disasters Still Life offers a fascinating and detailed ethnographic account of what it takes to prevent these disasters from happening Going behind the scenes at MoMA Domínguez Rubio provides a rare view of the vast technological apparatus from climatic infrastructures and storage facilities to conservation labs and machine rooms and teams of workers from conservators and engineers to guards and couriers who fight to hold artworks still As MoMA reopens after a massive expansion and rearranging of its space and collections Still Life not only offers a much needed account of the spaces actors and forms of labor traditionally left out of the main narratives of art but it also offers a timely meditation on how far we as a society are willing to go to keep the things we value from disappearing into oblivion

The Advaita of Art Harsha V. Dehejia, Creative Thinking C J Hollins, 2012-01-28 What would Cézanne Monet Picasso Kandinsky and the other founders of modern art think of Damien Hirst's shark in formaldehyde or Tracey Emin's unmade bed Has modern art moved on since the breakthroughs of these early pioneers or are we going round in circles Has modern art merely become a carnival of the shocking grotesque and ridiculous because modern artists have failed to comprehend what Modernism emerged to explore Have modern artists become so intoxicated by the need for notoriety and celebrity status that they are no longer interested in the quest for a genuine art experience In this collection of essays written between 1968 and 2010 C J Hollins reveals his thoughts on these questions in an unflinching attempt to open our eyes to the enigma of modern art From early cave paintings and traditional masterpieces Hollins explores the development of art ending at the current crisis point of our times More importantly he offers concrete theories of what the modern artist should be striving to achieve to move us closer to a new way of perceiving the world

Unconsolable Contemporary Paul Rabinow, 2017-10-19 In Unconsolable Contemporary Paul Rabinow continues his explorations of a philosophic anthropology of the contemporary Defining the contemporary as a moving ratio in which the modern becomes historical Rabinow shows how an anthropological ethos of the contemporary can be realized by drawing on the work of art historians cultural critics social theorists and others thereby inventing a methodology he calls anthropological assemblage He focuses on the work and persona of German painter Gerhard Richter demonstrating how reflecting on Richter's work provides rich insights into the practices and stylization of what following Aby Warburg one might call the afterlife of the modern Rabinow opens with analyses of Richter's recent Birkenau exhibit both the artwork and its critical framing He then chronicles Richter's experiments in image making as well as his subtle inclusion of art historical and critical discourses about the modern This Rabinow contends enables Richter to signal his awareness of the stakes of such theorizing while refusing the positioning of his work by modernist critical theorists In this innovative work Rabinow elucidates the ways meaning is created within the contemporary
