with a remarkable body of work Launched with an equally extraordinary exhibition the movement they called Imitation Realism introduced collage assemblage and installation to Australian art for the first time Laying the groundwork for a distinctive Australian postmodernism Imitation Realism was also the first Australian art movement to respond in a profound way to Aboriginal art and to the tribal art of New Guinea and the Pacific region By the mid 1960s Brown was already the most controversial figure in Australian art In 1963 a key work was thrown out of a major travelling exhibition for being overtly sexual a year later he publicly attacked Sydney artists and critics for having failed the test of integrity Finally in 1966 67 Brown became the only Australian artist to have been successfully prosecuted for obscenity Brown spent the last 28 years of his life in Melbourne where his reputation for radicalism and nonconformity was cemented with his multiplicity of styles exploration of themes of sexuality and transgressive commitment to the ideal of street art and graffiti Against a background of the counter culture and the social and political upheavals of the 1960s and 1970s Brown s art and remarkable life of personal and creative struggle is without parallel in Australian art

Noel Counihan Prints 1931-1981 Robert Smith, Noel Counihan, 1981

Dick Watkins Mary Eagle, 2024-09-17 Dick Watkins belongs to the generation of artists whose careers were launched at the high flying end of American based Abstraction Almost immediately he faced up to the abrupt end of the Modern era Culture was no longer to be framed by progress In 1970 taking stock of the situation he announced that he was a copyist there being no such thing as a new creation in art shaped as it was by visual languages Nor did he intend to limit his curiosity about the relation of art to life by restricting himself to a personal style There followed a long and passionately adventurous exploration into many subjects and styles during which Watkins was often the first to signal changes taking place in Western culture The result is that for half a century he has been a major if controversial figure in Australian art

The Art of Robert Juniper Elwyn Lynn, Robert Juniper, 1986

When Modern Became Contemporary Art Charles Green, Heather Barker, 2024-09-19 This book is a portrait of the period when modern art became contemporary art It explores how and why writers and artists in Australia argued over the idea of a distinctively Australian modern and then postmodern art from 1962 the date of publication of a foundational book Australian Painting 1788 1960 up to 1988 the year of the Australian Bicentennial Across nine chapters about art exhibitions curators and critics this book describes the shift from modern art to contemporary art through the successive attempts to define a place in the world for Australian art But by 1988 Australian art looked less and less like a viable tradition inside which to interpret our art Instead vast gaps appeared since mostly male and often older White writers had limited their horizons to White Australia alone National stories by White men like borders had less and less explanatory value Underneath this a perplexing subject remained the absence of Aboriginal art in understanding what Australian art was during the period that established the idea of a distinctive Australian modern and then contemporary art This book reflects on why the embrace of Aboriginal art was so late in art museums and histories of Australian art arguing that this was because it was not part of a national story dominated by colonial then neo colonial dependency It is important reading for all scholars of both global and Australian art and for curators and artists
