Modern Canadian Stories:

Modern Canadian stories John Stevens, 1980 10 Days That Shaped Modern Canada Aaron Hughes, 2022-09

Revisiting ten notable days from recent history Aaron W Hughes invites readers to think about the tensions events and personalities that make Canada distinct These indelible dates interweave to offer an account of the political social cultural and demographic forces that have shaped the modern nation The diverse episodes include the enactment of the War Measures Act hockey s Summit Series the patriation of the Constitution the Multiculturalism Act the cole Polytechnique Massacre victories for gay rights Quebec s second referendum on secession The Tragically Hip s farewell concert the Truth and Reconciliation Commission and ongoing Black equality struggles Each day represents a window on contemporary Canada jumpstarting reflection and conversation about who we are as a nation and how we got here Ten Days That Shaped Modern Canada is the perfect guide for all those curious about the forces that shape our country and about how we understand our place in the world The list of significant days are The 13th of October 1970 The day that then Prime Minister Pierre Elliot Trudeau uttered the phrase Just watch me when asked by a CBC reporter about how far he intended to go to end the FLQ crisis Front de lib ration du Qu bec Three days later he invoked the War Measures Act that curtailed the civil liberties of Canadians across the country The 28th of September 1972 The day Paul Henderson scored his famous goal in the dying seconds of the final game with the Russians in Moscow to win the Summit Series for Canada at the height of Cold War The come from behind victory which united the nation in a way never seen before revealed as much about Cold War politics as it did about contrasting hockey styles The 17th of April 1982 The day that the Constitution was patriated and the Charter of Rights and Freedoms enshrined within The Charter would go on to shape many features of Canadian life including preventing discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation and allowing women safe and legal access to terminate their pregnancies The 21st of July 1988 The day that the Multiculturalism Act was signed into law thereby continuing the trend of transforming what had been a largely white and Christian Canada into one of the most diverse countries on earth The 6th of December 1989 The day of the cole Polytechnic massacre in Montreal which began a national conversation on violence against women and subsequently led to a debate on gun ownership The 25th of May 1995 The day the Supreme Court of Canada ruled on Egan v Canada a case brought to the Supreme Court by two gay men who sued Ottawa for the right to claim a spousal pension under the Old Age Security Act Though the court ruled against them all nine judges agreed that sexual orientation was a protected ground and that protection extends to partnerships of lesbians and gay men paving the way for same sex unions and the redefinition of marriage The 30th of October 1995 The day that the Quebec Referendum brought Canada to the brink of a constitutional crisis one towards which it had been moving for years The 2nd of June 2015 The day that the Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC released its summary report that documented decades of injustices against Indigenous populations in for example the residential school system and that set a path forward for reconciliation The 20th of

August 2016 The day of The Tragically Hip's Last Concert in the band's hometown of Kingston ON The Hip a band for which at least the Anglophone part of country had a special place in its heart because of among other things its Canadian infused lyrics had often functioned as a symbolic antidote to the hegemony of American imports The 8th of March 2018 The day federal Finance Minister Bill Morneau and Bank of Canada Governor Stephen Poloz unveiled the new ten dollar bill at a ceremony in Halifax with the portrait of Viola Desmond on it Modern Canadian Stories Giose Rimanelli,1966

Modern Realism in English-Canadian Fiction Colin Hill,2012-05-07 Much of the scholarship on twentieth century Canadian literature has argued that English Canadian fiction was plagued by backwardness and an inability to engage fully with the movement of modernism that was so prevalent in British and American fiction and poetry Modern Realism in English Canadian Fiction re evaluates Canadian literary culture to posit that it has been misunderstood because it is a distinct genre a regional form of the larger international modernist movement Examining literary magazines manifestos archival documents and major writers such as Frederick Philip Grove Morley Callaghan and Raymond Knister Colin Hill identifies a modern realism that crosses regions as well as urban and rural divides A bold reading of the modern realist aesthetic and an articulate challenge to several enduring and limiting myths about Canadian writing Modern Realism in English Canadian Fiction will stimulate important debate in literary circles everywhere REAL. Vol. 1 Herbert Grabes,H. J. Diller,Hans Bungert,2020-05-18 No detailed description available for GRABES REAL VOL 1 REAL E BOOK Creative Canada ,1971-12-15 Did he ever play Hamlet Has she worked in television What was the title of his first novel Under whom did she study How many children has he Answers to such questions about contemporary Canadian artists have often been difficult even impossible to find This series has been created to provide the answers it covers creative and performing artists who have contributed as individuals to the culture of Canada in the twentieth century Each volume in the series presents a cross section of many different kinds of artists authors of imaginative works artists and sculptors musicians performers composers conductors and directors and performing artists in ballet modern dance radio theatre television and motion pictures directors designers and producers in theatre cinema radio television and the dance choreographers and for cinema cartoonists and animators Within each category of art is included a selection of those who have achieved national and international recognition those who have been recognized locally and some now deceased who markedly influenced their contemporaries locally nationally or internationally This is not a critical compilation rather it is an objective and factual reference work for those interested in contemporary Canadian culture Information was collected by painstaking research in a wide variety of sources and wherever possible it has been verified by the artist to make each entry as accurate and comprehensive as possible The Canadian Short Story Reingard M. Nischik,2007 Beginning in the 1890s reaching its first full realization by modernist writers in the 1920s and brought to its heyday during the Canadian Renaissance starting in the 1960s the short story has become Canada's flagship genre It continues to attract the country's most accomplished and innovative writers

today among them Margaret Atwood Mavis Gallant Alice Munro Carol Shields and many others Yet in contrast to the stature and popularity of the genre and the writers who partake in it surprisingly little literary criticism and theory has been devoted to the Canadian short story This collection redresses that imbalance by providing the first collection of critical interpretations of a range of thirty well known and often anthologized Canadian short stories from the genre's beginnings through the twentieth century A historical survey of the genre introduces the volume and a timeline comparing the genre's development in Canada the US and Great Britain via representative examples completes it The collection is geared both to specialists in and to students of Canadian literature For the latter it is of particular benefit that the volume provides not only a collection of interpretations but a comprehensive introduction to the history of the Canadian short story Reingard M Nischik is professor and chair of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany The English Short Story in Canada Reingard M. Nischik,2017-04-20 In 2013 the Nobel Prize for Literature was for the first time awarded to a short story writer and to a Canadian Alice Munro The award focused international attention on a genre that had long been thriving in Canada particularly since the 1960s This book traces the development and highlights of the English language Canadian short story from the late 19th century up to the present The history as well as the theoretical approaches to the genre are covered with in depth examination of exemplary stories by prominent writers such as Margaret Atwood and Alice Munro Profiles in Canadian Literature 8 Jeffrey M. Heath,1991-01-01 Profiles in Canadian Literature is a wide ranging series of essays on Canadian authors Each profile acquaints the reader with the writer's work providing insight into themes techniques and special characteristics as well as a chronology of the author's life Finally there is a bibliography of primary works and criticism that suggests avenues for further study I know of no better introduction to these writers and the studies in question are full of basic information not readily obtainable elsewhere U of T Quarterly Modern North American Criticism and Theory Julian Wolfreys,2006-04-21 Modern North American Criticism and Theory presents the reader with a comprehensive and critical introduction to the development and institutionalization of literary and cultural studies throughout the twentieth century and at the beginning of the twenty first Focusing on the growth and expansion of critical trends and methodologies with particular essays addressing key figures in their historical and cultural contexts the book offers a narrative of change transformation and the continuous quest for and affirmation of multiple cultural voices and identities From semiotics and the New Criticism to the identity politics of whiteness studies and the cultural study of masculinity this book provides an overview of literary and cultural study in North America as a history of questioning debate and exploration Reference Sources for Canadian Literary Studies Joseph Jones,2005-01-01 Reference Sources for Canadian Literary Studies offers the first full scale bibliography of writing on and in the field of Canadian literary studies Approximately one thousand annotated entries are arranged by reference genre with sub groupings related to literary genre Picturing Canada Gail Edwards,Judith Saltman,2014-07-31 The study of children's illustrated books is located within the broad histories of print culture publishing the book trade and concepts of childhood An interdisciplinary history Picturing Canada provides a critical understanding of the changing geographical historical and cultural aspects of Canadian identity as seen through the lens of children's publishing over two centuries Gail Edwards and Judith Saltman illuminate the connection between children's publishing and Canadian nationalism analyse the gendered history of children's librarianship identify changes and continuities in narrative themes and artistic styles and explore recent changes in the creation and consumption of children's illustrated books Over 130 interviews with Canadian authors illustrators editors librarians booksellers critics and other contributors to Canadian children's book publishing document the experiences of those who worked in the industry An important and wholly original work Picturing Canada is fundamental to our understanding of publishing history and the history of childhood itself in Canada

A Bird in the House Margaret Laurence, 2010-01-26 One of Canada's most accomplished authors combines the best qualities of both the short story and the novel to create a lyrical evocation of the beauty pain and wonder of growing up In eight interconnected finely wrought stories Margaret Laurence recreates the world of Vanessa MacLeod a world of scrub oak willow and chokecherry bushes of family love and conflict and of a girl's growing awareness of and passage into womanhood The stories blend into one masterly and moving whole poignant compassionate and profound in emotional impact In this fourth book of the five volume Manawaka series Vanessa MacLeod takes her rightful place alongside the other unforgettable heroines of Manawaka Hagar Shipley in The Stone Angel Rachel Cameron in A Jest of God Stacey MacAindra in The Fire Dwellers and Morag Gunn in The Diviners

The Routledge Introduction to the Canadian Short Story Maria Löschnigg, 2022-12-30 This volume aims to introduce undergraduates graduates and general readers to the diversity and richness of Canadian short story writing and to the narrative potential of short fiction in general Addressing a wide spectrum of forms and themes the book will familiarise readers with the development and cultural significance of Canadian short fiction from the early 19th century to the present A strong focus will be on the rich reservoir of short fiction produced in the past four decades and the way in which it has responded to the anxieties and crises of our time Drawing on current critical debates each chapter will highlight the interrelations between Canadian short fiction and historical and socio-cultural developments Case studies will zoom in on specific thematic or aesthetic issues in an exemplary manner The Routledge Introduction to the Canadian Short Story will provide an accessible and comprehensive overview ideal for students and general readers interested in the multifaceted and thriving medium of the short story in Canada

Literary History of Canada Carl F. Klinck, Alfred G. Bailey, Claude Bissell, Roy Daniells, Northrop Frye, Desmond Pacey, 1976-12-15 Hailed as a landmark in Canadian literary scholarship when it was originally published in 1965 the Literary History of Canada is now being reissued revised and enlarged in three volumes This major effort of a large group of scholars working in the field of English language Canadian literature provides a comprehensive up to date reference work It has already proven itself invaluable as a source of information on authors genres and literary trends and influences It represents a positive attempt to give a history of Canada in terms of writings which deserve attention because of significant thought form and use of language Volume 3 has been newly written for this edition of the History and covers the years from about 1960 to 1974 The contributors to this volume are Claude Bissell Desmond Pacey Lauriat Lane jr Michael S Cross Thomas A Goudge John Webster Grant John H Chapman William E Swinton Henry B Mayo Malcolm Ross Brandon Conron Clara Thomas Sheila A Egoff John Ripley William H New George Woodcock and Northrop Frye

Alice Munro: Writing Her Lives Robert Thacker, 2011-05-03 This is the book about one of the world's great authors Alice Munro which shows how her life and her stories intertwine For almost thirty years Robert Thacker has been researching this book steeping himself in Alice Munro's life and work working with her co-operation to make it complete The result is a feast of information for Alice Munro's admirers everywhere By following the parallel tracks of Alice Munro's life and Alice Munro's texts he gives a thorough and revealing account of both her life and work There is always a starting point in reality she once said of her stories and this book reveals just how often her stories spring from her life The book is chronological starting with her pioneer ancestors but with special attention paid to her parents and to her early days growing up poor in Wingham Then all of her life stages the marriage to Jim Munro the move to Vancouver then to Victoria to start the bookstore the three daughters the divorce the return to Huron County and the new life with Gerry Fremlin leading to the triumphs as story by story book by book she gains fame around the world until rumours of a Nobel Prize circulate
