The Allure of the Nation Tze-ki

Hon,2015-03-20 Covering half a century from 1895 to 1945 The Allure of the Nation examines three interlocking aspects of Chinese nationalist modernity 1 the quest to balance global connectivity and ethnic authenticity 2 the desire to balance national unity and local autonomy 3 the drive to balance history's place as a tool of political propaganda and as a weapon used to critique orthodoxy and political suppression By viewing the nation as a cluster of spatial temporal relations that link individuals to a territorial state this book provides a different view of early twentieth century China where the party state did not have full control of political and cultural affairs and alternative political perspectives such as local self government and democratic aristocracy could be freely expressed The Marshall Mission to China, 1945-1947 Roger B. Jeans,2011-08-28 This book breaks new ground in our understanding of a pivotal period in the history of American foreign policy the early Cold War and the struggle for dominance in China between the Nationalists and Communists The famous Marshall Mission to China has been the focus of intense scrutiny ever since General George C Marshall returned home in January 1947 and full scale civil war consumed China Yet until recently there was little new to add to the story of the failure to avert war between the Chinese Nationalists under Chiang Kai shek and the Chinese Communists led by Mao Zedong Drawing on a newly discovered insider's account Roger B Jeans makes an invaluable contribution to our understanding of Marshall's failed mediation effort and the roles played by key Chinese figures Working from the letters and diary of U S Army Colonel John Hart Caughey Jeans offers a fresh interpretation of the mission From beginning to end Caughey served as Marshall's executive officer in effect his right hand man assisting the general in his contacts with the Chinese and drafting key documents for him Through his writings Caughey provides a rare behind the scenes view of the general's mediation efforts as well as intimate glimpses of the major Chinese figures involved including Chiang Kai shek Madame Chiang and Zhou Enlai In addition to daily contact with Marshall Caughey often rubbed shoulders with these major Nationalist and Communist figures As a meticulous eyewitness to history in the making Caughey offers crucial insight into a key moment in post World War II history The Soldier Image and State-Building in Modern China, 1924-1945 Yan Xu,2019-02-15 Based on groundbreaking research this book is the first of its kind to provide a close examination in English of the extensive imagery of the soldier figure in the war culture of early twentieth century China This study moves away from the traditional military history perspectives and focuses on the neglected cultural aspect of the intersection of war and society in China during a crucial period that led to the eventual victory of the Chinese Communist Party over the Nationalist Party Integrating history literature and arts this appealing narrative reveals multiple meanings of the soldier figure created by different political social and cultural forces in modern China Drawing from a wide range of sources including government documents speeches newspaper articles memoirs military textbooks and yangge drama Yan Xu recounts stories of unforgettable Chinese political leaders including Chiang Kai shek and Mao Zedong She also examines the wartime experiences of previously marginalized social groups including women soldiers wounded soldiers student soldiers military writers and vocational education professionals giving voice to those largely forgotten by military historians This book opens up a new area in modern Chinese history and Chinese military history by revealing that the cultural discourse on the soldier image is essential to understanding Chinese nationalism state building and civil military relations in the early twentieth century

Ethnomusicology Jennifer Post,2013-03-01 Ethnomusicology A Research and Information Guide is an annotated bibliography to books recordings videos and websites in the field of ethnomusicology The book is divided into two parts Part One is organized by resource type in categories of greatest concern to students and scholars It includes handbooks and guides encyclopedias and dictionaries indexes and bibliographies journals media sources and archives It also offers annotated entries on the basic literature of ethnomusicological history and research Part Two provides a list of current publications in the field that are widely used by ethnomusicologists Multiply indexed this book serves as an excellent tool for librarians researchers and scholars in sorting through the massive amount of new material that has appeared in the field over the last decades The History of China , Reference Sources in History Ronald H. Fritze,Brian E. Coutts,Louis A. Vyhnanek,2004-03-09 Fully annotated and completely updated the most comprehensive guide to reference books in the field of history Reference Sources in History catalogs atlases encyclopedias dictionaries handbooks sourcebooks bibliographies and chronologies and makes sense of it all Its broad scope and systematic organization make it an accessible reliable resource for experienced and inexperienced researchers alike Fully annotated and updated the new edition summarizes hundreds of reference works on every conceivable subject in history from ancient to modern from Afghanistan to Zimbabwe This edition also reflects the dramatic impact of the digital revolution on historical research by integrating a wide range of Internet and CD ROM sources Reference Sources in History is a time saving alternative to searching the reference stacks or getting lost in an online thicket of dubious historical websites Confucian Concord Federico Brusadelli,2020-09-25 In Confucian Concord Federico Brusadelli offers an intellectual analysis of the Datong Shu Written by Kang Youwei 1858 1927 and conceived as his most esoteric and comprehensive legacy to posterity the book was eventually published posthumously in 1935 considered too advanced for the times in Kang s own opinion Connecting Datong Shu to its author s intellectual biography and framing it within the intellectual and political debate of the time Brusadelli investigates the conceptual and philosophical implications of Kang s global prophecy showing how an apparently utopian and escapist piece of literature was actually an attempt to save at least ideally the imperial political order updating the traditional Confucian universalism to a new modern world After Empire Peter Zarrow,2012-03-28 From 1885 1924 China underwent a period of acute political struggle and cultural change brought on by a radical change in thought after over 2 000 years of monarchical rule the Chinese people stopped believing in the emperor These forty years saw the collapse of Confucian political orthodoxy and the struggle among competing definitions of modern citizenship and the state What made it possible to suddenly imagine a world without the emperor After Empire traces the formation of the modern Chinese idea of the state through the radical reform programs of the late Qing 1885-1911 the Revolution of 1911 and the first years of the Republic through the final expulsion of the last emperor of the Qing from the Forbidden City in 1924. It contributes to longstanding debates on modern Chinese nationalism by highlighting the evolving ideas of major political thinkers and the views reflected in the general political culture. Zarrow uses a wide range of sources to show how statism became a hegemonic discourse that continues to shape China today. Essential to this process were the notions of citizenship and sovereignty which were consciously adopted and modified from Western discourses on legal theory and international state practices on the basis of Chinese needs and understandings. This text provides fresh interpretations and keen insights into China's pivotal transition from dynasty to republic.

Twentieth Century China James H. Cole, 2004. Emphasizing reference works published since 1964, these volumes cover books, periodicals, and inclusions in edited volumes on the 1911 Revolution, the Republic of China 1949, post-1911 Taiwan, post-1911 Hong Kong and Macao, and post-1911 overseas Chinese.

Information Sources of Political Science Stephen W. Green, Douglas J. Ernest, 2005-07-15. A thoroughly revised and updated new edition of the world's leading comprehensive bibliography of American and international politics. The eagerly anticipated new edition of the widely acclaimed Information Sources of Political Science is the most comprehensive English language political bibliography available, offering the surest way for students and researchers to get straight to the information they need. Like no other volume, it provides a fully rounded view of the field, both in the United States and internationally, including relevant works in history, economics, sociology, and education. Its 2,500 entries cover a wide variety of source types: indexing and abstracting services, major bibliographical tools, encyclopedias, dictionaries, handbooks, directories, statistical compilations, and more. In addition, this edition is the first to feature substantial coverage of electronic resources, both databases and Internet sites. Each source receives its own annotation, with entries grouped in categories to bring together like works for easy comparison. This work is a cornerstone reference for academic and public libraries.

Culture, Music Education, and the Chinese Dream in Mainland China Wai-Chung Ho, 2018-01-04. This book focuses on the rapidly changing sociology of music as manifested in Chinese society and Chinese education. It examines how social changes and cultural politics affect how music is currently being used in connection with the Chinese dream. While there is a growing trend toward incorporating the Chinese dream into school education and higher education, there has been no scholarly discussion to date. The combination of cultural politics, transformed authority relations, and officially approved songs can provide us with an understanding of the official content on the Chinese dream that is conveyed in today's Chinese society and how these factors have influenced the renewal of values-based education and practices in school music education in China.
