 2022 500 pages The Fertility Doctor Margaret Marsh,Wanda Ronner,2008-10-31 As Louise Brown the first baby conceived by in vitro fertilization celebrates her 30th birthday Margaret Marsh and Wanda Ronner tell the fascinating story of the man who first showed that human in vitro fertilization was possible John Rock spent his career studying human reproduction The first researcher to fertilize a human egg in vitro in the 1940s he became the nation s leading figure in the treatment of infertility his clinic serving rich and poor alike In the 1950s he joined forces with Gregory Pincus to develop oral contraceptives and in the 1960s enjoyed international celebrity for his promotion of the pill and his campaign to persuade the Catholic Church to accept it Rock became a more controversial figure by the 1970s as conservative Christians argued that his embryo studies were immoral and feminist activists contended that he had taken advantage of the clinic patients who had participated in these studies as research subjects Marsh and Ronner s nuanced account sheds light on the man behind the brilliant career They tell the story of a directionless young man a saloon keeper s son who began his working life as a timekeeper on a Guatemalan banana plantation and later became one of the most recognized figures of the twentieth century They portray his medical practice from the perspective of his patients who ranged from the wives of laborers to Hollywood film stars The first scholars to have access to Rock s personal papers Marsh and Ronner offer a compelling look at a man whose work defined the reproductive revolution with its dual developments in contraception and technologically assisted

Trends in Adolescent Fertility and Contraceptive Use in the Developing World Thomas M. McDevitt,Arjun Adlakha,Vera Harris-Bourne,Timothy B. Fowler,1996 World report on the health of refugees and migrants ,2022-07-20 Worldwide more people are on the move now than ever before yet many refugees and migrants face poorer health outcomes than the host populations Addressing their health needs is therefore a global health priority and integral to the principle of the right to health for all The key is to strengthen and maintain health systems by ensuring that they are refugee and migrant sensitive and inclusive Health outcomes are influenced by a whole host of determinants However refugees and migrants face additional determinants such as precarious legal status discrimination social cultural linguistic administrative and financial barriers lack of information about health entitlements low health literacy and fear of detention and deportation This groundbreaking publication outlines current and future opportunities and challenges and provides several strategies to improve the health and well being of refugees and migrants It is an advocacy tool for national and international policy makers involved in health and migration Evidence on the health of refugees and migrants remains fragmented comparable data across countries and over time are urgently needed to track progress towards the health related United Nations Sustainable Development Goals With only 8 years until the 2030 target date to transform our world the time to act is now

Highlights in contraception and family planning 2021/22 Berna Dilbaz, Tamara Fetters, 2023-10-05 Sexual and Reproductive Health and Rights in Sub-Saharan Africa Nana K. Poku, 2021-02-03 This book provides a clear and detailed examination of why it is so difficult to secure comprehensive political engagement and actionable effective policy on sexual and reproductive health rights in sub Saharan Africa In an engaging analysis Nana Poku employs expert knowledge to examine the prospects for large scale improvements He explores not only the full range of normative sensitivities but also conceptual misunderstandings legal difficulties and complex challenges of securing and maintaining adequate funding while AIDS remains a pandemic in the region Up to date succinct yet highly detailed lucid and compelling in its diagnoses of highly complex issues this book is a valuable accessible study of a topic that is regional in focus but with clear global implications

Health Inequities in India T.K. Sundari Ravindran, Rakhal Gaitonde, 2017-12-21 This timely contribution to the global literature on health inequities approaches the subject through a synthesis and analysis of relevant published literature on India Amongst the BRICS countries India ranks the lowest in the gender gap index and has the highest poverty rate and there is clear evidence that socio economic inequalities have increased in India in the twenty first century These have direct impact on the health conditions of its people however there has been relatively little concerted research attention on health inequities in India This volume fills the gap by synthesizing research evidence since the year 2000 on the topic This is perhaps the first volume on this topic of such scope and breadth Its uniqueness lies in the synthesis of evidence across a range of axes of disadvantages within a single volume socio economic position caste gender other socially constructed vulnerabilities such as disability HIV status migrant status and health system factors contributing to or mitigating inequities in health Each core chapter not only summarizes research findings but also engages critically with the perspectives reflected in the chapters and proposes a framework for understanding the mechanisms through which health inequities result This volume highlights and addresses research gaps in both methodology and content and is valuable to researchers and students of public health and allied health disciplines including the social sciences and also to policy makers and donors Contraception Marcus Filshie, John Guillebaud, 2013-10-22 Contraception Science and Practice serves as a guidebook for elucidating the science of contraception and at the same time for utilizing the methods better to meet human needs. Organized into 17 chapters, this book first explores the world view on birth control as well as the complications of combined oral contraception. Subsequent chapters show the relationship between oral contraception and cancer, practical prescribing of the combined oral contraceptive pill, the progestogen-only pill, and systemic hormonal contraception by non-oral routes. Other chapters elucidate postcoital contraception, intrauterine contraceptive devices, male and female barrier contraceptive methods, natural family planning, and contraception for the older woman. Cervical ripening prior to termination of pregnancy, abortion, female sterilization and its reversal, vasectomy and its reversal, and progress towards a systemic male contraceptive are also discussed. This book will be valuable to physicians engaged in teaching or research in birth control techniques as well as a reference book and resource for many others.
