students live with the richness of thousands of years of Jewish history, culture and tradition. Teaching Jewish History tackles separately each of the key Jewish historical periods: Biblical, Rabbinic, Medieval, Early Modern, Enlightenment and Modern, as well as the North American Jewish experience. The authors shift focus away from rote memorization of dates, names and places and instead examine each period through the lens of core historical concepts: the Diaspora, Covenant, acculturation, assimilation and building community. History comes to life, helping students, whether elementary, middle or high school or adult, develop a stronger Jewish identity. Teaching Jewish History gives teachers the tools to understand and explain the meaning of key concepts, terms, names, places and events in each period of history. Identify and examine primary source documents and objects such as artifacts, diaries, sacred texts, photographs and artwork. Conduct meaningful discussions of how the core concepts of Jewish history recur in and are relevant to each historical period. Develop a variety of activities including field trips, mock trials, oral histories and role playing activities. Place historical events on a timeline. Use additional historical and educational resources such as books, articles, videos and Internet sites. Teaching Jewish History is an invaluable resource for the novice and the expert teacher of religious and day school children and for educators working with adults in synagogues, community centers and family education programs.

Knit India Through Literature Volume III - The West Sivasankari, 2024-05-24. Knit India Through Literature is a mega literary project, first of its kind in Indian literature, is the result of the penance yagna done for 16 years by Sivasankari, a noted Tamil writer. Knit India Through Literature has involved intense sourcing, research and translation of literature from 18 Indian languages. The project, she says, aims to introduce Indians to other Indians through literature and culture and help knit them together. The interviews of stalwart writers from all 18 languages, approved by the eighth schedule of Indian Constitution, accompanied by a creative work of the respective writer, are published with her travelogues of different regions along with an in-depth article by a scholar on the cultural and literary heritage of each of the language in four volumes: South, East, West and North respectively. Her travelogues, her interviews and the overview of each literature she has sought all reveal one important unity: the concern our writers and poets express in their works for the problems that beset our country.
