Kimball, 2016-09-13 This book is a critical study of ten postwar Japanese novels that focus on man's search for identity in the modern world With the presentation of the Nobel Prize for Literature to a Japanese author in 1969 the international significance of modern Japanese literature was formally recognized by the Western world The best indication of the West's present keen appreciation of modern Japanese literature is the large number of excellent translations that have appeared in recent years In Crisis in Identity a common theme modern man's search for identity has been traced through ten major novels This quest takes place in conjunction with wartime cannibalism the atomic bombing of Hiroshima expatriation senile eroticism and personal and social alienation The works in which these are depicted include Diary of a Mad Old Man Junichiro Tanizaki House of the Sleeping Beauties Yusunari Kawabata Black Rain Masuji Ibuse Fires on the Plain Shohei Ooka The Temple of the Golden Pavilion Yukio Mishima The Woman in the Dunes Kobe Abe A Personal Matter Kenzaburo Oe If you have not yet read these novels Crisis in Identity will provide a stimulating introduction to them if you have it will reveal new insights      Historical Dictionary of Modern Japanese Literature and Theater J. Scott

Miller, 2021-06-05 With the Meiji Restoration in 1868 Japan opened its doors to the West and underwent remarkable changes as it sought to become a modern nation. Accompanying the political changes that Western trade ushered in were widespread social and cultural changes. Newspapers, novels, poems, and plays from the Western world were soon adapted and translated into Japanese. The combination of the rich storytelling tradition of Japan with the realism and modernism of the West produced some of the greatest literature of the modern age. Historical Dictionary of Modern Japanese Literature and Theater, Second Edition, contains a chronology, an introduction, and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has more than 500 cross-referenced entries on authors, literary and historical developments, trends, genres, and concepts that played a central role in the evolution of modern Japanese literature. The Columbia Anthology of Modern Japanese Literature J. Thomas Rimer, 2011-11-15 Featuring choice selections from the core anthologies The Columbia Anthology of Modern Japanese Literature: From Restoration to Occupation, 1868-1945 and The Columbia Anthology of Modern Japanese Literature: From 1945 to the Present, this collection offers a concise yet remarkably rich introduction to the fiction, poetry, drama, and essays of Japan's modern encounter with the West. Spanning a period of exceptional invention and transition, this volume is not only a critical companion to courses on Japanese literary and intellectual development but also an essential reference for scholarship on Japanese history, culture, and interactions with the East and West. The first half covers the three major styles of literary expression that informed Japanese writing and performance in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries: classical Japanese fiction and drama, Chinese poetry, and Western literary representation and cultural critique. Their juxtaposition brilliantly captures the social, intellectual, and political challenges shaping Japan during this period, particularly the rise of nationalism, the complex interaction between traditional and modern forces, and the encroachment of Western ideas and writing. The second half conveys the changes that have transformed Japan since the end of the Pacific War, such as the heady transition from poverty to prosperity, the friction between conflicting ideologies and political beliefs, and the growing influence of popular culture on the country's artistic and intellectual traditions. Featuring sensitive translations of works by Nagai Kafu, Natsume Soseki, Oe Kenzaburo, Kawabata Yasunari, Mishima Yukio, and many others, this anthology relates an essential portrait of Japan's dynamic modernization. The Fantastic in Modern Japanese Literature Susan Napier, 2005-07-22 An exploration of the dark side to Japanese literature and Japanese society. A wide range of fantasists form the basis for a ground-breaking analysis of the fantastic. Modern Japanese Literature in Western Translations, 1972

Artistic Detachment in Japan and the West Steve Odin, 2001-04-01 Artistic Detachment in Japan and the West takes up the notion of artistic detachment or psychic distance as an intercultural motif for East-West comparative aesthetics. The work begins with an overview of aesthetic theory in the West from the eighteenth-century empiricists to contemporary aesthetics and concludes with a survey of various critiques of psychic distance. Throughout, the author takes a highly innovative approach by juxtaposing Western aesthetic theory against Eastern, primarily Japanese, aesthetic theory. Weaving between cultures and time periods the author focuses on a remarkably wide range of theories in the West the Kantian notion of disinterested contemplation Heidegger's Gelassenheit semiotics and pragmatism in Japan Zeami's notion of riken no ken the Kyoto School's interpretation of nothingness D T Suzuki's analysis of the function of no mind and the writings of Kuki Shuzo on Buddhist detachment Portrait of the artist fiction by such writers as Henry James James Joyce Mori Ogai and Natsume Soseki demonstrates how the main theme of detachment is expressed in literary traditions The role of sympathy or pragmatism in relation to disinterest is examined suggesting conflicts within or challenges to the notion of detachment Researchers and students in Eastern and Western areas of study including philosophers and religionists as well as literary and cultural critics will deem this work an invaluable contribution to cross cultural philosophy and literary studies

Japanese and Western Literature Armando Martins Janeira, 2016-08-09 Japanese and Western Literature delves deeply into Japanese culture to discover the concepts that similarize and differentiate Japanese and Western literary creations Paralleling Japanese literary creations and fundamental thought with those of the West the author draws many illuminating comparisons for example between the novels of Murasaki Shikibu and Marcel Proust between the Portuguese poet Torga and the haiku master Issa and between the picaresque novel in Japan and in the West Contrastive studies are also made into such concepts as time nature love and tragedy This broad yet incisive survey of Japanese literary genres and themes is more than a comparative study of literature however it is an attempt to grasp the core of Japanese culture by setting it against world culture From this born a complex of new ideas and problems and author is able to probe the extent of Western influence on Japanese fiction poetry and essays in the past hundred years Practices of the Sentimental Imagination Jonathan Zwicker, 2020-03-23 The history of the book in nineteenth century Japan follows an uneven course that resists the simple chronology often used to mark the divide between premodern and modern literary history By examining the obscured histories of publication circulation and reception of widely consumed literary works from late Edo to the early Meiji period Jonathan Zwicker traces a genealogy of the literary field across a long nineteenth century one that stresses continuities between the generic conventions of early modern fiction and the modern novel In the literature of sentiment Zwicker locates a tear streaked lens through which to view literary practices and readerly expectations that evolved across the century Practices of the Sentimental Imagination emphasizes both qualitative and quantitative aspects of literary production and consumption balancing close readings of canonical and noncanonical texts sophisticated applications of critical theory and careful archival research into the holdings of nineteenth century lending libraries and private collections By exploring the relationships between and among Japanese literary works and texts from late imperial China Europe and America Zwicker also situates the Japanese novel within a larger literary history of the novel across the global nineteenth century Origins of Modern Japanese Literature Kōjin Karatani, 1993 Karatani Kojin is one of Japan's leading critics In his work as a theoretician he has described Modernity as have few others he has re-evaluated the literature of the entire Meiji period and beyond As one critic has said Karatani's thought has had a profound effect on the way we formulate the questions we ask about modern literature and culture his argument is compelling moving even and in the end the reader comes away with a different understanding not only of modern Japanese literature but of modern Japan itself Among the many authors discussed are Soseki Natsume Doppo Kunikida Katai Tayama and Shoyo Tsubouchi

Queer Subjects in Modern Japanese

Literature Stephen D. Miller, 2022-12-14 Queer Subjects in Modern Japanese Literature Male Love Erotics and Intimacy 1886 2014 is an anthology of translated Japanese literature about men behaving lovingly erotically and intimately with other men Covering more than 125 years of modern and contemporary Japanese history this book aims to introduce a diverse array of authors to an English speaking audience and provide further context for their works While no anthology can comprehensively represent queer Japanese literature these selections nonetheless expand our understanding of queerness in Japanese culture

Social Trauma, Narrative Memory, and Recovery in Japanese Literature and Film David Stahl, 2019-07-02 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of major works in Japanese literature and film through the interpretive lens of trauma and PTSD studies. Focusing critical attention on the psychodynamics and enduring psychosocial aftereffects of social trauma, it also evaluates the themes of dissociation, failed mourning, and psychological defence fantasies. Building on earlier studies, this book emphasizes the role of protagonists in managing to effect partial recovery by composing memoirs in which they transform dissociated traumatic memory into articulate narrative memory or bring about advanced recovery by pioneering alternative means of orally communicating working through and overcoming debilitating personal histories of traumatization and victimization. In so doing, Stahl also demonstrates that what holds true on the individual and microcosmic level also does so on the collective and macrocosmic level. This new critical approach sheds important new light on canonical Japanese novels and films and enables recognition and appreciation of integral psychosocial aspects of these traumatic narratives. As such, the book will be of huge interest to students and scholars of Japanese film and literature as well as those of trauma studies.

Representing the Other in Modern Japanese Literature Rachael Hutchinson, Mark Williams, 2006-09-27 Representing the Other in Modern Japanese Literature looks at the ways in which authors writing in Japanese in the twentieth century constructed a division between the Self and the Other in their work. Drawing on methodology from Foucault and Lacan, the clearly presented essays seek to show how Japanese writers have responded to the central question of what it means to be Japanese and of how best to define their identity. Taking geographical, racial, and ethnic identity as a starting point to explore Japan's vision of non-Japan, representations of the Other are examined in terms of the experiences of Japanese authors abroad and in the imaginary lands envisioned by authors in Japan. Using a diverse cross-section of writers and texts as case studies, this edited volume brings together contributions from a number of leading international experts in the field and is written at an accessible level, making it essential reading for those working in Japanese studies, colonialism, identity studies, and nationalism.

Affect, Emotion and Sensibility in Modern Japanese Literature Reiko Abe Auestad, 2024-07-29 This book takes the unique approach of combining cognitive approaches with more established close reading methods in analysing a selection of Japanese novels and a film. They are by four well-known male authors and a director: Natsume Soseki, Shiga Naoya, Kenzaburo Iwano, Masuji Imamura, Shunpei and five female authors: Kirino Natsuo, Kawakami Mieko, Murata Sayaka, Tsushima Yoko, and Ishimure Michiko, from the early twentieth century up to the early millennium. It approaches the different artistic strategies that oscillate between emotional immersion and critical reflection. Inspired by new developments in cognitive theory and neuroscience, the book seeks to put a spotlight on the aspects of modern Japanese novels that were not fully appreciated earlier: the eclectic and fluid nature of the novel as a form and the vital roles played by affects and emotions often complicated under the impact of trauma Rejuvenating previously established cultural theories through a cognitive and emotional lens narratology genre theory historicism cultural study gender theory and ecocriticism this book will appeal to students and scholars of modern literature and Japanese literature
