A Bibliography of Industrial Relations G. S. Bain, Gillian B. Woolven, G. B. Woolven, 1979-03-29. Reference book comprising a bibliography aiming to bring together secondary source interdisciplinary material on labour relations in the UK between the years 1880 and 1970. Covers employees' attitudes, trade unions, and employees' associations, employers' organizations, the labour market, and working conditions, etc.

The Japanese Enterprise System W. Mark Fruin, 1992. This volume merges four streams of inquiry and interpretation in a study of the evolution and emergence of Japan's leading industrial firms during the twentieth century. First, it is a historical study of how the industrial institutions of modern Japan appeared and matured. Second, it is an organization study of the basic forms of social and economic interaction in Japan. Third, it is a development study of how circumstances of rapid technical and economic change have shaped the Japanese business system. It is also a strategy study of how Japanese managers have responded to and shaped these circumstances. This fourfold synthesis offers a model of institutional development under conditions of late economic development and private initiative that falls somewhere between a capitalist development state and a free market economy. Business policy, rather than industrial policy, is accentuated, revealing a set of robust institutions and a dynamic to activate and interrelate them.
