

Moving On

In this war we're always moving,

Moving on;

When we make a friend another friend has gone;

Should a woman's kindly face

Make us welcome for a space,

Then it's boot and saddle, boys, we're

Moving on.

In the hospitals they're moving,

Moving on;

They're here today, tomorrow they are gone;

When the bravest and the best

Of the boys you know "go west",

Then you're choking down your tears and

Moving on.

Moving Poetry:

Moving Poetry Shirley Geok-lin Lim, Page Richards, 2001-11-01 One book to be read two ways A delightful collection of children's poems Ideas on inspiring creativity in young people 160 children took part in poetry writing workshops led by a group of Hong Kong's foremost poets Their poems shed an intriguing light on life in Hong Kong seen by a new generation This anthology has a particular significance for parents and teachers It shows that using English freely and creatively is an important step towards full command of the language The poet editors convey the fun of this venture and explain the techniques used to encourage the children's natural creativity Their essays provide a source of ideas for teachers interested in exploring creative writing Another section of poems by the poet teachers and undergraduate assistants drawn from the creative writing classes at the University of Hong Kong provides added pleasure for the poetry lover This collection showcasing the talents of budding young Hong Kong poets projecting their powerful and diverse voices into the future is for people who enjoy poetry and for those who wish to nurture the natural creativity of children Beautiful poems an admirable project Kenneth Koch Professor of English and Comparative Literature at Columbia University author of Wishes Lies and Dreams From a uniquely vibrant place where ancient cultures coincide with one another and with our planet's future comes this collection of poems energetic surprising direct subtle in a word moving The volume brings together the fundamental art of poetry and the transforming spirit of youth Robert Pinsky Professor of English at Boston University Poet Laureate of the United States 1997 2000 Moving Poetry is an ambitious and heartening collection sometimes funny sometimes melancholy invariably expert It proves once again the value of encouraging young people to stretch their imaginations and proves how great is the benefit to us all Andrew Motion Professor of Creative Writing at the University of East Anglia Poet Laureate of Great Britain Cloud Moving Hands Cathy Song, 2007-09-23 These poems threaded by the teachings of Buddha examine loss the death of a loved one the longing for a child the yearning for another place and time and the suffering such attempts transpire but ultimately the poems are an affirmation that to be born into human life is our greatest opportunity to transform loss and sorrow into awakening joy Reasons for Moving Mark Strand, 1968 Unfettering Poetry J. Robinson, 2006-04-29 This book calls attention to the pervasive but largely unacknowledged poetics of the Fancy evident in poetry written during the British Romantic period These poetics Robinson demonstrates are an early nineteenth century version of what will become the visionary experimental open form poetics of the twentieth century Poetry Unbound Mike Chasar, 2020-04-28 It's become commonplace in contemporary culture for critics to proclaim the death of poetry Poetry they say is no longer relevant to the modern world mortally wounded by the emergence of new media technologies In Poetry Unbound Mike Chasar rebuts claims that poetry has become a marginal art form exploring how it has played a vibrant and culturally significant role by adapting to and shaping new media technologies in complex unexpected and powerful ways Beginning with the magic lantern and continuing through the dominance of the internet Chasar follows poetry's travels off the page into new media formats including silent film sound film and television Mass and nonprint media have not stolen poetry's audience he contends but have instead given people even more ways to experience poetry Examining the use of canonical as well as religious and popular verse forms in a variety of genres Chasar also traces how poetry has helped negotiate and legitimize the cultural status of emergent media Ranging from Citizen Kane to Leave It to Beaver to best selling Instapoet Rupi Kaur this book reveals poetry's ability to find new audiences and meanings in media forms with which it has often been thought to be incompatible Illuminating poetry's surprising multimedia history Poetry Unbound offers a new paradigm for understanding poetry's still evolving place in American culture

Moving the Piano Faith Shearin, 2011 In the title poem of Shearin's Moving The Piano a piano hangs above a city street bundled and displaced awkward when it should be elegant similar to her childhood of damaged Christmas trees misunderstood pets and untended lawns The piano is temporarily displaced seen differently because it is lifted away from its ordinary surroundings suspended above the burdens of the earth The poems in this collection also seek to hold objects and emotions aloft to allow them to dangle above the usual landscape allowing the reader a new vantage point The book contains many poems that explore the particulars of life on the island of Kitty Hawk where she was a child they pay attention to untended lawns sunburns turtles motherhood dead pets and wilted Christmas trees One very brief poem explains how to live without money The collection pays notice to foxes and jellyfish to the places where she can hear the ocean it ponders aging and money and motherhood Shearin says of the piano We cannot turn away from its startling moment of freedom its perilous fling before it returns to the burdens of this earth Her poems capture that perilous fling Her first collection The Owl Question won the May Swenson Award and the poems in her second The Empty House helped her win a grant from The National Endowment for the Arts Her work has appeared regularly in Ploughshares The Sun and North American Review and has been read aloud by Garrison Keillor on his show The Writer's Almanac Recent work also appears in the Autumn House Anthology of Contemporary American Poets The poems in Moving the Piano were written over a period of three years on the island of Kitty Hawk with the help of grants from the NEA and the Barbara Deming Memorial Fund They contain the images and emotions and ideas that she finds most compelling and moving

SPECIAL OFFER 30% discount for a complete set order 5 vols The Romanticism series in the Comparative History of Literatures in European Languages is the result of a remarkable international collaboration The editorial team coordinated the efforts of over 100 experts from more than two dozen countries to produce five independently conceived yet interrelated volumes that show not only how Romanticism developed and spread in its principal European homelands and throughout the New World but also the ways in which the affected literatures in reaction to Romanticism have redefined themselves on into Modernism A glance at the index of each volume quickly reveals the extraordinary richness of the series total contents Romantic Irony sets the broader experimental parameters of comparison by concentrating on the myriad expressions of irony as one of the major impulses in the Romantic philosophical and artistic revolution and by combining cross cultural and interdisciplinary studies with special attention also to literatures in less
