Cullinan, Brod Bagert, 1993 A Family of Readers Martha V. Parravano, Roger Sutton, 2012-10-09 Two of the most trusted reviewers in the field join with top authors illustrators and critics in a definitive guide to choosing books for children and nurturing their love of reading A FAMILY OF READERS is the definitive resource for parents interested in enriching the reading lives of their children It's divided into four sections 1 Reading to Them Choosing and sharing board

books and picture books with babies and very young children 2 Reading with Them Launching the new reader with easy readers and chapter books 3 Reading on Their Own Exploring what children read and how they read by genre and gender 4 Leaving Them Alone Respecting the reading privacy of the young adult Roger Sutton knows how and why children read He must as the editor in chief of THE HORN BOOK which since 1924 has been America's best source for reviews of books for young readers But for many parents selecting books for their children can make them feel lost Now in this essential resource Roger Sutton and Martha V Parravano executive editor at the magazine offer thoughtful essays that consider how books are read to and then by young people They invite such leading authors and artists as Maurice Sendak Katherine Paterson Margaret Mahy and Jon Scieszka as well as a selection of top critics to add their voices about the genres they know best The result is an indispensable readers companion to everything from wordless board books to the most complex and daring young adult novels

The Oxford Companion to Children's Literature Daniel Hahn, Michael Morpurgo, 2015 The last thirty years have witnessed one of the most fertile periods in the history of children's books A fascinating reference guide to the world of children's literature this volume covers every genre from fairy tales to chapbooks school stories to science fiction comics to children's hymns

The Continuum Encyclopedia of Children's Literature Bernice E. Cullinan, Diane Goetz Person, 2005-01-01 Provides articles covering children's literature from around the world as well as biographical and critical reviews of authors including Avi C S Lewis J K Rowling and Anno Mitsumasa

Campbell's Scoop Patty Campbell, 2010-02-19 At the request of her many fans Patty Campbell editor of the Scarecrow Studies in Young Adult Literature series has selected some of her best essays articles columns and speeches in Campbell's Scoop These pieces define the boundaries between children's and adult literature and review the trends censorship problems and glories of the genre Other essays reflect on some concerns and interests of young adult literature as it has matured the verse novel ambivalent endings violence the sometimes dubious value of awards and honor lists the graphic novel and the difficulties of the genre's recent overwhelming success A section titled Inside ALA looks at the author's many years of service to that organization with among other pieces a firsthand look at the Best Books committee at work and a report of her attempt to unite booksellers and librarians in common cause Many of these selections show the idiosyncratic wit and passion that have made Campbell's column a favorite with Horn Book readers an exploration of the meaning of the glut of YA novels with death as a theme or character an indignant denunciation of the fictional abuse of animals a snarky analysis of chick lit and a technical review from the belly dancing critic of a YA novel featuring that ancient art On a more serious note Campbell pleads for what she calls Godsearch in books for teens and pays tribute to her late friend Robert Cormier Without question the essays in Campbell's Scoop provide readers with the unique insights of an advocate who is passionate about young adult literature and its future
