ALICE ROBERTS Engaging authoritative and full of fascinating stories of the past RAY MEARS A gentle personal and very readable book JULIA BLACKBURN AUTHOR OF TIME SONG A triumph JAMES CANTON AUTHOR OF THE OAK PAPERS I loved this book FRANCIS PRYOR On paths roads seas in the air and in space there has never been so much human movement In contrast we think of the past as static frozen in time But archaeologists have in fact always found evidence for humanity's irrepressible restlessness Now latest developments in science and archaeology are transforming this evidence and overturning how we understand the past movement of humankind In this book archaeologist Jim Leary traces the past 3.5 million years to reveal how people have always been moving how travel has historically been enforced or prohibited by people with power and how our forebears showed incredible bravery and ingenuity to journey across continents and oceans With Leary to show the way you'll follow the footsteps of early hunter gatherers preserved in mud and tread ancient trackways hollowed by feet over time Passing drovers wayfarers and pilgrims you'll see who got to move and how people moved And you'll go on long distance journeys and migrations to see how movement has shaped our world evocative and enlightening travelogue explores places prehistoric pagan and Christian Smith also reveals how football stadiums and music festivals have become contemporary places of pilgrimage Though the routes walked are often ancient the pilgrims he meets are always modern But underpinning the remarkable book is a timeless truth that making journeys has always been a way of making meaning So often Smith finds the unravelling of a path goes in tandem with the unravelling of the soul
