Rights and Obligations in North-South Relations Moorhead Wright, 1986-06-18 Human Rights and Foreign Policy Dilys M. Hill, 1989-02-16 This is an exploration of the moral and pragmatic dilemmas involved in the relationships between states in an era of change derived from a workshop held by the Centre for International Policy Studies The concern of those present was to examine human rights in the contemporary world International Society and the Development of International Relations Theory B. A. Roberson, 2002-04-30 A critical appreciation of the development of the international society idea and its influence on and relation to the development of the international relations theory A critical look is taken at the intellectual development of key members of the English School The concept of the School itself and the place of the School's theory in contemporary international relations approaches are examined Evangelicals and American Foreign Policy Mark R. Amstutz, 2014 Mark Amstutz offers a timely and insightful look at how Evangelicals have shaped America's role in the world and how they can best use their power without compromising their principles Cries of the Sea Peter Bautista Payoyo, 2021-09-27 A treasure lies at the bottom of the oceans This treasure takes the form of a legal and ethical principle which may illuminate the potential for an enriching international community in a world of growing disparities It is the principle of the Common Heritage of Humanity The 1982 United Nations Convention on Law of the Sea delineated an Area and then proclaimed the Area and its resources the common heritage of mankind The author suggests that the terms common heritage and humanity invite a larger perspective on the law underlying the Convention Cries of the Sea provides a unique view of the deep blue sea through the lens of the politics of international ocean law and policy and in particular through the exposition of the Common Heritage of Humanity as a fundamental principle of international law The book explains why and how the Common Heritage principle constitutes an indispensable ingredient in any global programme for sustainable development Legal philosophers and practitioners alike in the ocean arena and beyond will find that this work offers an intriguing intellectual and moral challenge This book received the first Arvid Pardo Prize for outstanding scholarship on the Law of the Sea Non-formal Education for Human Rights in Zambia Alfred W. Chanda, 1999

Multilateral Sanctions Revisited Andrea Charron, Clara Portela, 2022-09-15 Sanctions are back with a vengeance with new objectives measures challenges and opportunities Shaping the thinking of generations of scholars Canadian visionary Margaret Doxey anticipated and analyzed these issues making now the time to rediscover her seminal lessons and apply them to emerging sanctions practices that are taking shape in an increasingly geopolitically contested environment Written by an international team of women Multilateral Sanctions Revisited explores UN measures regional sanctions autonomous measures and their interrelations Informed by Doxey's insights the authors trace the evolution of scholarship surrounding multilateral sanctions The first section analyzes how different actors such as great powers and regional organizations employ multilateral sanctions Turning to contemporary issues the book's second section addresses the application and consequences of multilateral sanctions including the norms they enforce the pernicious problem of evasion and future challenges such as sanctioning cryptocurrencies Multilateral Sanctions Revisited is both a source for academics and a guidebook for practitioners written by leading and emerging sanctions scholars from three continents International Ethics Mark R. Amstutz, 2018-02-23 Mark Amstutz illustrates the role of moral norms in global politics and the ethical foundation of the rules institutions and structures of global society with twenty six new and revised case studies including the ethics of climate change the refugee crisis and the Syrian civil war The cases address the following major global issues human rights war unconventional military operations foreign intervention international economic relations justice among states and global justice This comprehensive study will be of special interest to students and practitioners of international affairs who are concerned with the role of political morality and ethical judgment in global affairs Development Economics and Policy David Sapsford, John-ren Chen, 1998-08-10 Hans Singer is undoubtedly one of if not the world's major scholars in the field of Development Economics Over the last six decades he has made numerous contributions to the subject both as scholar and practitioner This book contains 27 essays that were prepared for a conference that was held in Innsbruck Austria in May 1996 to celebrate his 85th birthday and represents a major and important overview of issues in development economics from the most eminent scholars in the field The Golden Handshake of the First World Timo Kyllönen, 1993 Economic Development in Africa Olusola Akinrinade, J. Kurt Barling, 2013-11-07 Economic development is one of the key issues that has confronted Africa since the beginning of independence more than a quarter century ago The countries of Africa have not only recognised the need for international assistance but also the need for self help along with various collective efforts in tackling the problems of development The principal concern of Economic Development in Africa is with the contributions of the international environment to the development process in Africa It considers efforts conceived within bilateral multilateral and regional frameworks acting as an introduction to the economic and political dimensions of these approaches This specially commissioned collection brings together a number of scholars working in the field of International Relations with specialist interest in Africa Ethics of Charitable Food Leire Escajedo San-Epifanio, Esther M. Rebato Ochoa, 2022-05-10 This book provides an in depth analysis of different dimensions of contemporary food charity It does so against the background of an increasing number of food banks and other forms of food philanthropy The book examines the incongruity of considering food donation as an expression of pure altruism Taking into account the dignity and rights of people it addresses how hunger is seen and explained in rich countries and how philanthropy and democracy coexist It looks at the relationship that exists between religious traditions and the current food donation narrative It discusses the risks of stigmatizing food recipients and clarifies ways to better deal with food poverty and food waste Paradoxically food insecurity and food waste have grown exponentially in the last decade More and more people are not able to access food properly The amount of perfectly edible food that is discarded also grows The consolidation of democracies welfare policies and economic growth do not guarantee that all citizens can meet their basic needs in the so called rich countries This book analyses the current state of affairs and presents facts and reflections from diverse sources and from a cross disciplinary perspective
