The Rising Moon Michael Leigh, 2018 The Rising Moon Michael Beckett Leigh, 1988 Borneo Studies in History, Society and Culture Victor T. King, Zawawi Ibrahim, Noor Hasharina Hassan, 2016-08-12 This edited book is the first major review of what has been achieved in Borneo Studies to date Chapters in this book situate research on Borneo within the general disciplinary fields of the social sciences with the weight of attention devoted to anthropological research and related fields such as development studies gender studies environmental studies social policy studies and cultural studies Some of the chapters in this book are extended versions of presentations at the Borneo Research Council s international conference hosted by Universiti Brunei Darussalam in June 2012 and a Borneo Studies workshop organised in Brunei in 2012 The volume examines some of the major debates and controversies in Borneo Studies including those which have served to connect post war research on Borneo to wider scholarship It also assesses some of the more recent contributions and interests of locally based researchers in universities and other institutions in Borneo itself The major strength of the book is the inclusion of a substantial amount of research undertaken by scholars working and teaching within the Southeast Asian region In particular there is an examination of research materials published in the vernacular notably the outpouring of work published in Indonesian by the Institut Dayakologi in Pontianak In doing so the book also addresses the urgent matters which have not received the attention they deserve specifically subjects themes and issues that have already been covered but require further contemplation elaboration and research and the scope for disciplinary and multidisciplinary collaboration in Borneo Studies The book is a valuable resource and reference work for students and researchers interested in social science scholarship on Borneo and for those with wider interests in Indonesia and Malaysia and in the Southeast Asian region

Rising Sun over Borneo Ooi Keat Gin, 1999-04-12 This study focuses on Japanese wartime policies and their implementation and the consequent effects these policies had on the local population Each ethnic group including the European community is examined to evaluate its reaction and response to the Japanese military government and Japanese policies towards these The group effects of the Japanese period on post war developments help to evaluate the significance and influence of this short domination by a non Western Domination and Contestation Faisal S. Hazis, 2012 This book makes an important contribution to understanding the ongoing political evolution of politics in Sarawak It also provides a case study of the engagement of a dominant state with social forces in a multi ethnic society Prof Harold Crouch Emeritus Professor Department of Political Social Change School of International Political Strategic Studies Australian National University Taking off from Joel Migdal s notions of the strongman politician strong society weak state and the state in society the author discusses how the federal government accommodates Taib Mahmud's chief ministership over Sarawak and how his long tenure is anchored in winning political support from the Sarawak Muslim Bumiputera community. An insightful book on contemporary Sarawak politics. Prof Francis Loh Kok Wah, School of Social Sciences, Universiti Sains Malaysia. This volume will go a long way in explaining why a single Melanau family has been able to dominate Sarawak politics for the past four decades. Prof James Chin Head, School of Arts and Social Sciences, Monash University Malaysia Campus.

Borneo in the Cold War, 1950-1990 Keat Gin Ooi, 2019-08-02. Although by about 1950 both British Borneo including the protected sultanate of Brunei and Indonesian Borneo seemed settled under their different regimes and well on the way to post-war reconstruction and economic development, the upheavals which affected Southeast and East Asia during the Cold War period also deeply affected Borneo. Besides the impact of the Korean and Vietnam Wars and the Malayan Emergency and communist uprisings in other Southeast Asian states, there was within Borneo the attempted communist takeover of Sarawak from the 1950s, a failed coup d'état in Brunei in 1962, Sukarno's Konfrontasi confrontation with Malaysia and the horrific purge of Leftists and ethnic Chinese in the late 1960s. This book details these momentous events and assesses their impact on Borneo and its people. It is a sequel to the author's earlier books The Japanese Occupation of Borneo 1941-1945 (2011) and Post War Borneo 1945-1950. Nationalism, Empire and State Building (2013) collectively a trilogy.

Continuity and Change in Brunei Darussalam Victor T. King, Stephen C. Druce, 2020-10-29. This book analyses the processes of social and economic change in Brunei Darussalam. Drawing on recent studies undertaken by both locally based scholars and senior researchers from outside the state, the book explores the underlying strengths, characteristics and uniqueness of Malay Islamic Monarchy in Brunei Darussalam in a historical context and examines these in an increasingly challenging regional and global environment. It considers events in Brunei's recent history and current socio-cultural transformations which give expression to the traumatic years of decolonisation in Southeast Asia. A wide range of issues focus on foreign non-Bruneian narratives of Brunei as against insider or domestic accounts of the sultanate, the status of minority ethnic groups in Brunei and the concept of Brunei society as well as changes in the character and composition of the famous water village Kampong Ayer as the cultural heartland of Brunei Malay culture and the socio-cultural and economic effects of the resettlement of substantial segments of the population from a life on water to a life on land. A timely and very important study on Brunei Darussalam, the book will be of interest to anthropologists, sociologists, historians, geographers and area studies specialists in Southeast Asian Studies and Asian Studies.

Regime Resilience In Malaysia And Singapore Greg Lopez, Bridget Welsh, 2022-11-08. Prominent scholars across the political divide and academic disciplines analyse how the dominant political parties in Malaysia and Singapore, United Malays National Organisation (UMNO) and the People's Action Party (PAP), have stayed in power. With a focus on developments in the last decade and the tenures of Prime Ministers Najib Tun Razak and Lee Hsien Loong, the authors offer a range of explanations for how these regimes have remained politically resilient.

Capturing Globalization James H Mittelman, Norani Othman, 2003-09-02 What are the moral codes and normative principles inscribed in globalization How do diverse communities optimize their positions and try to capture these processes What are the foremost cultural and political attempts to govern the market What are the social and ethical limits to a framework based on deregulation privatization and liberalization These related themes reveal how issues such as religion private capital flows poverty the state and democracy transnational class structures disruptions in culture and new patterns in the use of language are part of the globalization process Empirically the research derives from data from fieldwork within and outside Southeast Asia with a common reference point based on research in Malaysia Following the trauma of the late 1990s with environmental abuses in Southeast Asia transnational turmoil in currency trading and the meltdown of stock markets this book seeks to understand how and to what extent communities can reclaim political and social control over the dynamics of globalization This highly original contribution to the globalization debate will be invaluable to researchers in a number of disciplines including political science anthropology history economics Asian Studies and sociology

The Hakkas of Sarawak Kee Howe Yong, 2013-12-06 This book tells the story of the Hakka Chinese in Sarawak Malaysia who were targeted as communists or communist sympathizers because of their Chinese ethnicity the 1960s and 1970s Thousands of these rural Hakkas were relocated into new villages surrounded by barbed wire or detained at correction centres where incarcerated people were understood to be sacrificial gifts to the war on communism and to the rule of Malaysia's judicial administrative regime The Hakkas of Sarawak looks at how these incarcerated people struggled for survival and dealt with their defeat over the course of a generation Using methodologies of narrative theory and exchange theory Kee Howe Yong provides a powerful account of the ongoing legacies of Cold War oppression and its impact on the lives of people who were victimized by these policies

Shadows in the Forest Peter Dauvergne, 1997 This book is the first to analyze the environmental impact of Japanese trade corporations and aid on timber management in the context of Southeast Asian political economies It is also one of the first comprehensive studies of why Southeast Asian states are unable to enforce forest policies and regulations

Nation Building Wang Gungwu, 2005 The book addresses questions such as how should historians treat the earlier pasts of each country and the nationalism that guided the nation building tasks Where did political culture come in especially when dealing with modern challenges of class secularism and ethnicity What part do

external or regional pressures play when the nations are still being built The authors have thought deeply about the issues of writing nation building histories and have tried to put them not only in the perspective of Southeast Asian developments of the past five decades but also the larger areas of historiography today Singapore Edwin Lee,2008 In 2015 Singapore celebrates its 50th anniversary of independence This book covers the complex historical forces and circumstances that shaped this nation It tells of Britain's imperial visions and schemes and of how their failure cast a shadow on the story of Singapore's incorporation into the Federation of Malaysia and expulsion from it Limbang Rebellion Eileen Chanin,2020-01-31 In early December 1962 there was a surprise rebel uprising in northern Borneo The leader of the anti colonialist North Kalimantan National Army Sheikh Azahari mounted the insurrection that became known as the Brunei Revolt It aimed to thwart Britain and Malaya's plan to combine the British territories of Borneo into a new Federation of Malaysia The river town of Limbang an administrative centre in the British colony of Sarawak became the pivot of the rebellion that was to be the opening act of the military and diplomatic conflict known as Konfrontasi Combining eyewitness accounts with thorough research Limbang Rebellion reveals what it was like to be thrown into this intense and unexpected conflict in which hostages were taken and threatened with execution It describes the involvement of the Royal Marines under Captain Jeremy Moore MC and the daring rescue mission he led under challenging circumstances which included being vastly outnumbered by the rebel forces The result is a gripping account of seven dramatic days when a small town in northern Borneo suddenly seized the world's attention The Historical Construction of Southeast Asian Studies Park Seung Woo,Victor T King,2013-06-17 At a time when Southeast Asian Studies is declining in North America and Europe this book serves to remind us of the fresh constructive and encouraging view of the field from Asia On behalf of Taiwan's Southeast Asian research community I sincerely congratulate Professors Park and King for making such a great and timely contribution to the making of Southeast Asian Studies in Asia Hsin Huang Michael Hsiao Director of Institute of Sociology Academia Sinica and former President of Taiwan Association of Southeast Asian Studies The Historical Construction of Southeast Asian Studies Korea and Beyond is an important and long overdue step in the task of bringing Southeast Asian Studies to where it rightfully belongs the Asian region At the same time it avoids being narrowly regionalistic and instead views Southeast Asia as an open system that transcends national units or fixed territorial categories and welcomes the contributions of both Asian and non Asian scholars in crafting a fresh post colonial approach to the study of the region's societies and peoples Eduardo Climaco Tadem Professor of Asian Studies University of the Philippines Diliman An insightful and systemic analysis of the intriguing trajectories evolving themes and multi lingual scholarship of Southeast Asian Studies in Asia and beyond this book serves as an important foundation in setting future research agendas as well as for closer global collaborations in knowledge production in Asian Studies Liu Hong Tan Kah Kee Professor and Chair School of Humanities and Social Sciences Nanyang Technological University Singapore The Malays Anthony Milner,2011-03-25 Just who are the Malays This provocative study poses the question and considers how and why the answers have changed over time and from one region to another Anthony Milner develops a sustained argument about ethnicity and identity in an historical Malay context The Malays is a comprehensive examination of the origins and development of Malay identity ethnicity and consciousness over the past five centuries Covers the political economic and cultural development of the Malays Explores the Malay presence in Brunei Singapore Indonesia Thailand Cambodia Sri Lanka and South Africa as well as the modern Malay show state of Malaysia Offers diplomatic speculation about ways Malay ethnicity will develop and be challenged in the future

Malaysia@50: Economic Development, Distribution, Disparities Jomo Kwame Sundaram, Chong Hui Wee, 2013-09-16
Malaysia has grown and changed a great deal since it was formed on 16 September 1963 It was then seen as an unlikely nation hastily put together as a federation of British controlled territories in the region Brunei's refusal to join at the eleventh hour and Singapore's secession before its second birthday only seemed to confirm such doubts Yet it has not only survived but even thrived often cited as a developing country worthy of emulation Ruled by the same ruling coalition since the mid 1950s it has been tempting to emphasize continuities and there certainly have been many Looking back at its last half century this volume first considers changes in development policy in response to national as well as international developments The remaining three parts consider how public policy has been influenced by and has in turn influenced economic distribution public finance and economic federalism Besides the familiar focus on ethnic disparities regional and other distribution issues are considered The discussion of government taxation as well as spending also focuses on distribution implications Although constitutionally a federation Malaysia has been more centralized than most federal states The way forward requires greater sensitivity to the complex political economy of Malaysia's unlikely but nonetheless resilient federation and ruling coalition This book is published and distributed worldwide by World Scientific Publishing Co Pte Ltd except Malaysia
