Differences, Learning, and Instruction David H. Jonassen, Barbara L. Grabowski, 2012-12-06 Written for teachers trainers and instructional designers anyone who is responsible for designing or preparing instruction this book begins with one basic premise individual differences mediate learning at all levels and in all situations That is some learners find it easier or more difficult to learn some skills or to learn from certain forms of instruction because they vary in terms of aptitude cognitive styles personality or learning styles This volume describes most of the major differences in a readable and accessible way and demonstrates how to design various forms of instruction and predict the ease with which learners will acquire different skills Most books that discuss any learner differences focus on those that characterize special education populations whereas this book focuses on normal learners Designed as a handbook this volume is structured to provide easy and consistent access to information and answers and prescriptions and hypotheses When definitive answers are not possible because there is no research documentation the authors suggest theories designed to stimulate future research

Time Issues in Strategy and Organization T. K. Das, 2019-10-01 The field of strategy science has grown in both the diversity of issues it addresses and the increasingly interdisciplinary approaches it adopts in understanding the nature and significance of problems that are continuously emerging in the world of human endeavor These newer kinds of challenges and opportunities arise in all forms of organizations encompassing private and public enterprises and with strategies that experiment with breaking the traditional molds and contours The field of strategy science is also perhaps inevitably being impacted by the proliferation of hybrid organizations such as strategic alliances the upsurge of approaches that go beyond the customary emphasis on competitiveness and profit making and the intermixing of time honored categories of activities such as business industry commerce trade government the professions and so on The blurring of the boundaries between various areas and types of human activities points to a need for academic research to address the consequential developments in strategic issues Hence research and thinking about the nature of issues to be tackled by strategy science should also cultivate requisite variety in issues recognized for research inquiry including the conceptual foundations of strategy and strategy making and the examination of the critical roles of strategy makers strategic thinking time and temporalities business and other goal choices diversity in organizing modes for strategy implementation and the complexities of managing strategy to name a few This book series on Research in Strategy Science aims to provide an outlet for ideas and issues that publications in the field do not provide either expressly or adequately especially as regards the comprehensive coverage deserved by certain emerging areas of interest The topics of the volumes in the series will keep in view this objective to expand the research areas and theoretical approaches routinely found in strategy science the better to permit expanded and expansive treatments of promising issues that may not sufficiently align with the usual research coverage of publications in the field Time Issues in Strategy and Organization contains contributions by leading scholars on time issues in the field of strategy science research The 8 chapters in this volume cover the topics of future orientation in strategy making time conceptualizations in interorganizational relationships real time management in the digital economy spatio temporal aspect of strategic leadership a systemic cognitive perspective on organizational temporality ecosystem types and the timing of open innovation strategies and the temporalities of strategic risk behavior and partner opportunism in strategic alliances The chapters collectively present a wide ranging review of the noteworthy research perspectives on the temporal issues in strategy and organization

Risk-Taking Behavior Jacques Frank Yates,1992-02-18 Offering contributions from the fields of psychology economics medicine and business this study examines the psychological foundations and ramifications of risk taking behaviour It provides recommendations on the encouragement of appropriate risk taking in a business setting Studies in Decision Making Martin Irle, Lawrence B. Katz,2019-07-08 No detailed description available for Studies in Decision Making Safety in Manual Materials Handling ,1978 School Desegregation Research Jeffrey Prager,Douglas Longshore,Melvin Seeman,2012-12-06 The desegregation situation is the keynote theme of the following chapters I Each of them touches on a different dimension of the situation the historical the temporal the spatial But the reader perusing the essays with the situation in mind should remember that the desegregation situation should not be interpreted literally Authorities and adults certainly school age children probably are influenced by their awareness of a sequence of past and future situations Some may even operate with William James s 1890 p 608 notion of the specious present that has melted in our grasp fled ere we could touch it gone in the instant of becoming thus reducing the potency of the present situation Others may be dancing to a slower tempo of change thus becoming more responsive to the present situation Whatever the perceived tempo many must share the view that the future may reverse the direction of the past Some may see that new future direction as unswerving unending or long lasting others may see it as short lived And it is through attention to the phenomenological description of desegregation that these issues can be explored a theme that is considered in several of the following chapters

Presidential Risk Behavior in Foreign Policy William A. Boettcher III,2005-04-15 Bringing together research on the situational determinants of risk propensity and on individual personality predispositions Boettcher draws on findings from political science psychology economics business and sociology to develop a Risk Explanation Framework REF to study the person in the situation Using structured focused comparison he examines six foreign policy cases from the Truman and Eisenhower administrations to explore how aspirations fears time pressures and other factors influence risk taking This is thus an important contribution to the study of international relations foreign policy decision making prospect theory and risk behavior personality theory and information processing Cognitive Styles and Learning Strategies Richard Riding,Stephen Rayner,2013-10-23 First Published in 1998 This book deals with what may well turn out to be the missing element in the study of individual differences cognitive style Its intention is to distinguish between and integrate the research attempts particularly over the past half century to make sense of style differences In several respects this book is unique in that it contains material that is not covered in any other and draws together the various aspects of psychology relevant to the study of individual differences It is in this sense both a textbook and a source of reference for many professionals working in a range of contexts The content of the book has relevance for a wide audience Organisational Behaviour Stephen P. Robbins,2009 This book is the first Southern African edition of Stephen P Robbins s Organizational Behaviour the best selling organisational behaviour textbook worldwide The Risk Taking of Students in the First Course of the Teacher
