The worldwide commemorations of the three hundredth anniversary of Shakespeare's death were held amid the global upheaval of the First World War As empires battled for world domination and nations sought self determination diverse communities vied to claim Shakespeare as their own to underpin their sense of collective identity and cohesion Unearthing previously unknown Tercentenary events in Europe the British Empire and the USA Monika Smialkowska demonstrates that the 1916 Shakespeare commemorators did not speak with one unified voice Tributes by marginalised social ethnic and racial groups often challenged the homogenising narratives of the official celebrations Rather than the traditionally patriotic Bard used to support totalising versions of national or imperial identity this study reveals Shakespeare as a site of debate and contestation in which diverse voices local and global nationalist and universalist militant and pacifist combined and clashed in a fascinating open ended dialogue Shakespeare Tercentenary Commemoration, 1616-1916 Frederick Christian Wellstood,2016-12-22 Excerpt from Shakespeare Tercentenary Commemoration 1616 1916 Shakespeare's Birthplace Catalogue of an Exhibition of Original Documents of the XVIth and XVIIth Centuries Preserved in Stratford Upon Avon Illustrating Shakespeare's Life in the Town The main portion of the exhibited documents consists of thirty nine original records of the 16th and 17th centuries which are the property either of the Corporation of stratford upon avon or of the Shakespeare's Birthplace Trustees The thanks Of the Trustees are due to the Corporation for the opportunity which has been accorded them Of bringing together the two sets of archives which are invaluable complements of one another About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally
