Winans,2012-10-01 Shambala Edgar V. Winans,2003-01-01 Shambala Edgar V. Winans,2017-07-24 Excerpt from Shambala The Constitution of a Traditional State Let us dwell for a moment on the implications of the word must in the preceding paragraph for in that monosyllable lies a great deal of implicit theory as I have noted elsewhere 2 Man is committed to social existence by the nature of his physical needs but this commitment places each individual in the dilemma of self interest versus social demand Society must provide orderly processes for the regular resolution of this in herent conflict if the society is to continue The must therefore has no reference to moral requisites nor to inevitability but rather to survival If the society is to continue as a society then it must have certain organizational features The precise nature of these features will vary from one society to another that is these functions may be performed by variant structural elements But the functions must be performed or the society will cease to exist This is true for all societies however primitive or developed it is also true for societies of a particular character and the range of organizational choices are therewith narrowed We shall see that the special demands of statehood make certain organizational features necessary if the state is to exist as an entity About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Shambala. The Constitution of a Traditional State ... Foreword by Walter Goldschmidt, Etc. [With Plates.]. Edgar Vincent WINANS,Walter Rochs GOLDSCHMIDT,1962 The Early State Henri J. M. Claessen,Peter Skalnik,2011-11-02 No detailed description available for The Early State Sri Lanka at the Crossroads of History Zoltán Biedermann,Alan Strathern,2017-06-07 The peoples of Sri Lanka have participated in far flung trading networks religious formations and Asian and European empires for millennia This interdisciplinary volume sets out to draw

Sri Lanka into the field of Asian and Global History by showing how the latest wave of scholarship has explored the island as a crossroads a place defined by its openness to movement across the Indian Ocean Experts in the history archaeology literature and art of the island from c 500 BCE to c 1850 CE use Lankan material to explore a number of pressing scholarly debates They address these matters from their varied disciplinary perspectives and diverse array of sources critically assessing concepts such as ethnicity cosmopolitanism and localisation and elucidating the subtle ways in which the foreign may be resisted and embraced at the same time The individual chapters and the volume as a whole are a welcome addition to the history and historiography of Sri Lanka as well as studies of the Indian Ocean region kingship colonialism imperialism and early modernity

The Making of a Mixed Language Maarten Mous,2003-12-19 The Mbugu or Ma language Tanzania is one of the few genuine mixed languages reputedly combining Bantu grammar with Cushitic vocabulary In fact the people speak two languages one mixed and one closely related to the Bantu language Pare This book is the first comprehensive description of these languages It shows that these two languages share one grammar while their lexicon is parallel In the distant past the people shifted from a Cushitic to a Bantu language and in the process rebuilt a language of their own that expresses their separate ethnic identity in a Bantu environment This linguistic history is explained in the context of the intricate history of the people The discussion of the processes that were involved in the formation of Ma a Mbugu is extremely relevant for both creole studies and for contact linguistics in general

The Family Estate in Africa Robert F. Gray,P.H. Gulliver,2013-11-05 Too often accounts of African family life have tended to describe the family in purely static terms The contributors to this book emphasize the developmental or time dimension of the family analysing it as a process In the seven different societies described in East Africa the Congo and the Transvaal the changing nature of the distribution of rights in the family property and resources is directly linked with the growth and change of the family itself First published in 1964

Peasant Intellectuals Steven M. Feierman,1990-11-14 Scholars who study peasant society now realize that peasants are not passive but quite capable of acting in their own interests But do coherent political ideas emerge within peasant society or do peasants act in a world where elites define political issues Peasant Intellectuals is based on ethnographic research begun in 1966 and includes interviews with hundreds of people from all levels of Tanzanian society Steven Feierman provides the history of the struggles to define the most basic issues of public political discourse in the Shambaa speaking region of Tanzania Feierman also shows that peasant society contains a rich body of alternative sources of political language from which future debates will be shaped

Post-Colonial Nations in Historical and Cultural Context Dmitri M. Bondarenko, 2023-05-30 Using historical and anthropological analysis in Post Colonial Nations in Historical and Cultural Context Dmitri M Bondarenko examines nation building in Tanzania Uganda and Zambia He examines the nation and state as concepts and how these are changing globally particularly in regard to the idea that the fundamental characteristic of a nation is a culturally homogeneous community This feature became a cornerstone of the concept of the nation at its formation in the West by the end of the eighteenth century but post colonial migration flows from the Global South to the Global North are increasing multi culturalism in the North In contrast liberated states of Asia and Africa have been multi cultural from earlier on as they inherited the colonial borders in which typically many peoples were united Throughout the book Bondarenko argues that this history of multi culturalism is an advantage to development in the Global South and that it s necessary to depart from the classical Western concept of the nation to simultaneously support citizen unity while preserving cultural diversity

Collaborative Governance of Tropical Landscapes Carol J Pierce Colfer, Jean-Laurent Pfund, 2012-07-26 This book provides a novel approach to governance relating to biodiversity and human well being in complex tropical landscapes including forests and protected areas It focuses attention at the interface between communities and the landscape level building on interdisciplinary research conducted in five countries Cameroon Indonesia Laos Madagascar and Tanzania In each country the research was set within the framework of a major national policy thrust The book improves our understanding of and ability to manage complex landscapes mosaics of differing land uses in a more adaptive and collaborative way that benefits both the environment and local communities It includes both single country and cross site analyses and focuses on themes such as resettlement land use planning non timber forest product use and management the disconnect between customary and formal legal systems and the role of larger scale policies in local level realities Chapters also analyze experience with monitoring and a local governance assessment tool The work also provides guidance for those interested in management and governance at lower and intermediate levels village district scales likely to grow in importance in the global effort to mitigate and adapt to climate change

On Kings Marshall Sahlins, David Graeber, 2017-12-15 In anthropology as much as in popular imagination kings are figures of fascination and intrigue heroes or tyrants in ways presidents and prime ministers can never be This collection of essays by two of the world s most distinguished anthropologists David Graeber and Marshall Sahlins explores what kingship actually is historically and anthropologically As they show kings are symbols for more than just sovereignty indeed the study of kingship offers a unique window into fundamental dilemmas concerning the very nature of power meaning and the human condition Reflecting on issues such as temporality alterity and utopia not to mention the divine the strange the numinous and the bestial Graeber and Sahlins explore the role of kings as they have existed around the world from the BaKongo to the Aztec to the Shilluk and beyond Richly delivered with the wit and sharp analysis characteristic of Graeber and Sahlins this book opens up new avenues for the anthropological study of this fascinating and ubiquitous political figure

Challenging Authorities Arne S. Steinforth, Sabine Klocke-Daffa, 2021-09-20

When the notion of alternative facts and the alleged dawning of a postfactual world entered public discourse social anthropologists found themselves in unexpectedly familiar territory In their empirical experience fact knowledge accepted as true derives its salience from social mechanisms of legitimization thereby demonstrating a deep interconnection with power and authority In this perspective fact is a continually contested and volatile social category Due to the specific histories of their colonial and post independence experience African societies offer a particularly broad array of insights into social processes of juxtaposition opposition and even outright competition between different postulated authorities The contributions to the present volume explore the variety of ways in which authority is contested in Southern and Eastern Africa investigating localized discourses on which institution what kind of knowledge or whose expertise is accepted as authoritative thus highlighting the specificities and pluralities in modern societies This edited volume engages with larger theoretical questions regarding power and authority in the context of post colonial states neo traditional authority claiming space conflict and in justice and contestations of knowledge It offers in depth critical analyses of ethnographic data that put contemporary African phenomena on equal footing with current controversies in North America Europe and other global settings
