Bass, Craig Dykstra, 2008-04-29 Bass and Dykstra have written extensively and collaboratively on Christian Practices arguing that the what Christians have done faithfully over time constitutes a life giving way of life and that this living of Christianity is more primary to what it means to be Christian than doctrinal confession that our confessions spring from faithful living rather than the other way around This book contains numerous essays that take up the question of Christian Practices and ministry the preparation of ministers theological education etc in a post Enlightenment understanding of the relationship of practice and head knowledge Because the book is the result of a community conversation it doesn't have a clear thesis but it models its conviction that reflection on theology arises from community conversation around our life in discipleship together An extremely helpful beginning to a conversation about ministry practices of faith clergy preparation etc as the time has come to integrate the kind of learning that comes in the classroom with the kind that only comes from living the faith with others Amazon.com Embodying Confidence and Grace Callista Isabelle, 2019-11-08 Embodying Confidence and Grace by Callista Isabelle will guide those who serve as presiding ministers for the assembly's worship It includes reflection on the essentials of presiding and practical guidance for how to prepare and lead the assembly with confidence and grace Table Manners Simon Reynolds, 2014-02-10 There is a growing if not urgent need for those being trained for ordained and lay ministry to be provided with a more solid grounding in liturgical principles and Simon Reynolds seeks to address this by demonstrating how good liturgical leadership can be the foundation from which all other theological historical pastoral and missiological issues arise Searching for Sacred Space John Ander Runkle, 2002 Discusses important questions about the relationship between sacred spaces and worship Preaching and Stewardship Craig A. Satterlee, 2011-06-29 Both new and veteran preachers alike find the annual stewardship sermon a challenge and are eager for encouraging practical advice In Preaching and Stewardship Craig Satterlee offers a nuts and bolts handbook on preaching stewardship raising issues preachers need to consider when preparing stewardship sermons and offering advice on how to address them Satterlee argues that stewardship preaching must include a bold and concrete proclamation of God's love will and justice as well as an invitation to grow as stewards in response to this proclamation He focuses each chapter on a question preachers ought to ask themselves as they prepare the stewardship sermon beginning with What do you mean by stewardship and Why should we give to the church In chapters 3 through 6 he explores what the

Bible says about stewardship In chapter 7 he names some of the assumptions both preachers and worshipers bring to the stewardship sermon The final chapter a variety of ways congregations can support the stewardship sermon Satterlee illustrates the premise of each chapter with anecdotes from congregational life Preachers who desire examples of stewardship sermons will especially appreciate stewardship sermons he shares from various preachers to illustrate points in the main text
