Shaping Childcare Practice in Scotland Malcolm Hill, 2002 The first anthology to deal exclusively with fostering and adoption issues in Scotland this book draws together seminal papers from Adoption Fostering journal over the last 20 years all by leading practitioners and researchers in the field Addressing the ways in which adoption and fostering policy and practices has changed radically over the last two decades this is essential reading for managers practitioners students academics and all those with an interest in the development of Scottish adoption and foster care Rebuilding Family Relations for Children and Youth Separated from Family Sarah Hean, Vanessa Heaslip, Jonathan Parker, Pravin Tembjerg, 2024-10-16 This edited volume explores a range of causes for separation of children and young people from family the impact of these causes and methods that both professionals and families may employ to build or rebuild these relations In particular contributions focus on six high priority crises through which children and young people become either permanently or temporarily separated from their families removal by child welfare services migration family breakdown placement into institutional care incarceration and or the death of a parent Authors emphasize the feelings of grief and loss experienced both by the child and their family whatever the separation context and the eventual impact on the young person s mental health They conclude that reunification with the family is not always possible or desirable and permanent alternative sources of care and or attachment may be required But if reunification is possible it is a complex and a multidimensional pathway as children move from one care context to the next Innovation coproduction with the birth family and tackling stigma and discrimination associated with family separations is a high priority
