Martin, 1992 Late Victorian Holocausts Mike Davis, 2002-06-17 Examining a series of El Nino induced droughts and the famines that they spawned around the globe in the last third of the 19th century Mike Davis discloses the intimate baleful relationship between imperial arrogance and natural incident that combined to produce some of the worst tragedies in human history Late Victorian Holocausts focuses on three zones of drought and subsequent famine India Northern China and Northeastern Brazil All were affected by the same global climatic factors that caused massive crop failures and all experienced brutal famines that decimated local populations But the effects of drought were magnified in each case because of singularly destructive policies promulgated by different ruling elites Davis argues that the seeds of underdevelopment in what later became known as the Third World were sown in this era of High Imperialism as the price for capitalist modernization was paid in the currency of millions of peasants lives Food Sovereignty, Agroecology and Biocultural Diversity Michel. P. Pimbert, 2017-11-01 Contestations over knowledge and who controls its production are a key focus of social movements and other actors that promote food sovereignty agroecology and biocultural diversity This book critically examines the kinds of knowledge and ways of knowing needed for food sovereignty agroecology and biocultural diversity Food sovereignty is understood here as a transformative process that seeks to recreate the democratic realm and regenerate a diversity of autonomous food systems based on agroecology biocultural diversity equity social justice and ecological sustainability It is shown that alternatives to the current model of development require radically different knowledges and epistemologies from those on offer today in mainstream institutions including universities policy think tanks and donor organizations To achieve food sovereignty agroecology and biocultural diversity there is a need to re imagine and construct knowledge for diversity decentralisation dynamic adaptation and democracy The authors critically explore the changes in organizations research paradigms and professional practice that could help transform and co create knowledge for a new modernity based on plural definitions of wellbeing Particular attention is given to institutional pedagogical and methodological innovations that can enhance cognitive justice by giving hitherto excluded citizens more power and agency in the construction of knowledge The book thus contributes to the democratization of knowledge and power in the domain of food environment and society Chapters 1 and 8 of this book are freely available as downloadable Open Access PDFs at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
