Branche,F.

Virgili,2012-10-26 This collection offers a new reflection on rape in war time through 15 case studies ranging from Greece to Nigeria It questions the specificity of rape as a universal transgression its place in memories of war its legacies including children born from rape and the challenge of writing about intimate violence as both a scientist and a human      The Art and Architecture of Islam 1250-1800 Sheila S. Blair,Jonathan M. Bloom,1996-09-25 They discuss for example how the universal caliphs of the first six centuries gave way to regional rulers and how in this new world order Iranian forms techniques and motifs played a dominant role in the artistic life of most of the Muslim world the one exception was the Maghrib an area protected from the full brunt of the Mongol invasions where traditional models continued to inspire artists and patrons By the sixteenth century say the authors the eastern Mediterranean under the Ottomans and the area of northern India under the Mughals had become more powerful and the Iranian models of early Ottoman and Mughal art gradually gave way to distinct regional and imperial styles      Claiming Citizenship and Nation Aishwarya

Pandit,2021-07-15 The book provides insight into the changing nature of Muslim politics and the ideas of citizenship in independent India It studies the electoral mobilization of minority groups across North India particularly in Uttar Pradesh where Muslims have been demographically dominant in various constituencies The volume discusses themes such as the making and unmaking of the Congress heartland and the threat of revival of Muslim communalism alongside issues of representation property language politics rehabilitation and citizenship politics of Waqf personal law and Hindu counter mobilization The author utilizes previously unused government and institutional files private archives interviews and oral resources to address questions central to Indian politics and society An important intervention this book will be useful for scholars and researchers of politics Indian history minority studies law political studies nationalism electoral politics partition studies political sociology sociology and South Asian Studies      Adjudication in Religious Family Laws Gopika

Solanki,2011-04-25 This book argues that the shared adjudication model in which the state splits its adjudicative authority with religious groups and other societal sources in the regulation of marriage can potentially balance cultural rights and gender equality In this model the civic and religious sources of legal authority construct transmit and communicate heterogeneous notions of the conjugal family gender relations and religious membership within the interstices of state and society In so doing they fracture the homogenized religious identities grounded in hierarchical gender relations within the conjugal family The shared adjudication model facilitates diversity as it allows the construction of hybrid religious identities creates fissures in ossified group boundaries and provides institutional spaces for ongoing intersocietal dialogue This pluralized legal sphere governed by ideologically diverse legal actors can thus increase gender equality and individual and collective legal mobilization by women effects institutional change      Nation-state and Minority Rights in India Tanweer Fazal,2014-08-01 The blood laden birth pangs of the Indian nation state undoubtedly had a bearing on the contentious issue of group rights for cultural minorities Indeed the trajectory of the concept minority rights evolved amidst multiple conceptualizations political posturing and violent mobilizations and outbursts Accommodating minority groups posed a predicament for the fledgling nation state of post colonial India This book compares and contrasts Muslim and Sikh communities in pre and post Partition India Mapping the evolving discourse on minority rights the author looks at the overlaps between the Constitutional and the majoritarian discourse being articulated in the public sphere and poses questions about the guaranteeing of minority rights The book suggests that through historical ruptures and breaks communities oscillate between being minorities and nations Combining archival material with ethnographic fieldwork it studies the identity groups and their vexed relationship to the ideas of nation and nationalism It captures meanings attributed to otherwise politically loaded concepts such as nation nation state and minority rights in the everyday world of Muslims and Sikhs and thus tries to make sense of the patterns of accommodation adaptation and contestation in the life world Successfully confronting and illuminating the challenge of reconciling representation and equality both for groups and within groups this exploration of South Asian nationalisms and communal relations will be of interest to academics in the field of South Asian Studies in particular Sociology and Politics      Religious Nationalism Peter van der Veer,1994-02-07 Religious nationalism is a subject of critical importance in much of the world today Peter van der Veer s timely study on the relationship between religion and politics in India goes well beyond other books on this subject He brings together several disciplines anthropology history social theory literary studies to show how Indian religious identities have been shaped by pilgrimage migration language development and more recently print and visual media Van der Veer s central focus is the lengthy dispute over the Babari mosque in Ayodhya site of a bloody confrontation between Hindus and Muslims in December 1992 A thought provoking range of other examples describes the historical construction of religious identities cow protection societies and Sufi tombs purdah and the political appropriation of images of the female body Salman Rushdie and the role of the novel in nationalism Mahatma Gandhi and Swami Vivekananda the Khalsa movement among Sikhs and nationalist archaeology and the televised Ramayana Van der Veer offers a new perspective on the importance of religious organization and the role of ritual in the formation of nationalism His work advances our understanding of contemporary India while also offering significant theoretical insights into one of the most troubling issues of this century      Heroes of the Age David B. Edwards,1996-10-02 Edwards contends that Afghanistan s troubles derive less from foreign forces and the ideological divisions between groups than they do from the moral incoherence of Afghanistan itself      Moderate or Militant Mushirul Hasan,2008-02-13 In this book Mushirul Hasan articulates a vision of Islam or rather the many different kinds of Islam instead of the frightening monolith of popular perception living in harmony with other faiths and of Indian Muslims inheritors of the great Indian civilization living in a plural society Engaging with the debates surrounding the society polity and history of India s Muslims and using historical and literary sources as well as the writings of modern Muslim thinkers like Aziz Ahmad and Mohammad Mujeeb Hasan traces the development of contemporary ideas about Muslims from the mid nineteenth century onwards through British rule and the partition to the present day For Hasan a truly secular reading of Indian history reveals Indian Islam as one that exists in a pluralist milieu book uses case studies to trace a shift in plural legal orders from the multicentric law of early empires to the state centered law of the colonial and postcolonial world In the early modern world the special legal status of cultural and religious others itself became an element of continuity across culturally diverse empires In the nineteenth century the state s assertion of a singular legal authority responded to repetitive legal conflicts not simply to the imposition of Western models of governance Indigenous subjects across time and in all settings were active in making changing and interpreting the law and by extension in shaping the international order
