Golemon, 2010-01-31 Helping a community of faith re vision its personal and collective narratives is one of the greatest leadership challenges of the age In Finding Our Story Larry Golemon lead researcher of the Alban Institute s Narrative Leadership in Ministry project has assembled essays by congregational consultants who use the power of story to help congregations heal strengthen and reinvent themselves These consultants describe how narrative therapy works explore its promise and its challenges and share the practical wisdom of their own experiences along with their favorite models of narrative change to show how congregations can be transformed by reauthoring the operative stories they live by Living Our Story Larry A. Golemon, 2010-12-31 Living Our Story explores how good narrative work the retrieval construction and performance of valued stories takes place in ministry Authors Larry A Golemon Lee Ramsey N Graham Standish Tim Shapiro Carol Johnson Mike Mather Niles Elliot Goldstein and Diana Butler Bass examine this question from a variety of perspectives including the role of the pastor or rabbi as narrative leader the sacred and mundane stories that shape congregational life and identity storytelling as a means of community building and story sharing as a practice of hospitality Through the stories they themselves tell these authors show how stories witness to God s presence in the unfolding of human life and how the best leaders craft stories that reveal how God is at work among the people and inspire them to become a part of this larger story Organic Community (ēmerision: Emergent Village resources for communities of faith) Joseph R. Myers, 2007-05-01 Community is a fundamental life search and one of the key aspects people look for in a congregation But community can t be forced controlled or easily created The problem says Joseph R Myers is that churches are too focused on developing programs instead of concentrating on environments where community will spontaneously emerge Organic Community challenges key leaders to become environmentalists people who create or shape environments Outlining nine organizational tools for creating a healthy environment Myers shows readers how to diagnose their current situation and implement patterns that will develop possibilities for healthy communities The Handbook of Leadership and Professional Learning Communities C. Mullen, 2009-10-13 Contributors offer ideas applications and resources for helping leaders and educators tackle the challenges of building successful professional learning communities This wide ranging text will prove indispensable for any democratically accountable leader committed to organizational change through communities of practice Seeking Sanctuary in Small-Town America: Stories of Jewish Perseverance and Community Pasquale De Marco, 2025-07-07 In the late 19th and early 20th centuries thousands of Jewish immigrants from Eastern Europe and Russia settled in small towns across the United States This book tells their story a story of courage resilience and determination These immigrants faced discrimination and prejudice but they also found opportunities that they would not have had in the crowded cities They established businesses raised families and built communities that would thrive for generations to come Through oral histories archival research and historical photographs this book brings to life the experiences of Jewish immigrants in small town

America It is a story that has been largely overlooked but it is a story that deserves to be told This book is not only a valuable contribution to the history of Jewish immigration in America but it is also a testament to the human spirit It is a story of how people can overcome adversity and build new lives for themselves no matter how difficult the circumstances It is a story that will inspire and uplift readers of all backgrounds and it is a story that will help us to better understand the diversity of the American experience This book is a must read for anyone interested in American history immigration history or Jewish studies It is also a valuable resource for anyone who is interested in stories of courage resilience and the power of community If you like this book write a review on google books

Commerce and Community Robert Garnett Jr.,Paul

Lewis,Lenore T. Ealy,2014-11-27 Since the end of the Cold War the human face of economics has gained renewed visibility and generated new conversations among economists and other social theorists The monistic mechanical economic systems that characterized the capitalism vs socialism debates of the mid twentieth century have given way to pluralistic ecologies of economic provisioning in which complexly constituted agents cooperate via heterogeneous forms of production and exchange Through the lenses of multiple disciplines this book examines how this pluralistic turn in economic thinking bears upon the venerable social theoretical division of cooperative activity into separate spheres of impersonal Gesellschaft commerce and ethically thick Gemeinschaft community Drawing resources from diverse disciplinary and philosophical traditions these essays offer fresh critical appraisals of the Gemeinschaft Gesellschaft segregation of face to face community from impersonal commerce Some authors issue urgent calls to transcend this dualism whilst others propose to recast it in more nuanced ways or affirm the importance of treating impersonal and personal cooperation as ethically epistemically and economically separate worlds Yet even in their disagreements our contributors paint the process of voluntary cooperation the space commerce and community with uncommon color and nuance by traversing the boundaries that once separated the thin sociality of economics as science of commerce from the thick sociality of sociology and anthropology as sciences of community This book facilitates critical exchange among economists philosophers sociologists anthropologists and other social theorists by exploring the overlapping notions of cooperation rationality identity reciprocity trust and exchange that emerge from multiple analytic traditions within and across their respective disciplines

Scars and Stories Xena

Mindhurst,AI,2025-01-24 Scars and Stories presents a groundbreaking exploration of how physical and emotional scars shape human identity and resilience This thought provoking work challenges the traditional negative perception of scars revealing them as powerful indicators of both healing and personal growth Through a unique combination of neuroscience psychology and anthropology the book demonstrates how scars serve as biological markers of survival and psychological timestamps of our life experiences The book s three part structure guides readers through a comprehensive understanding of scarring beginning with the biological and psychological mechanisms at play Using accessible language and compelling case studies it examines how the body s sophisticated repair system mirrors emotional healing processes The second section delves into personal narratives and trauma recovery while the final part provides practical frameworks for transforming scar related experiences into tools for self development What sets this work apart is its holistic approach to understanding scars as active components in identity formation rather than mere remnants of trauma Drawing from longitudinal studies cross cultural research and therapeutic practices it offers valuable insights for both healthcare professionals and individuals on their healing journey The book masterfully balances scientific accuracy with emotional intelligence making complex concepts accessible while providing evidence based strategies for processing trauma and building resilience Spirit of the Arts

Steven Félix-Jäger,2017-11-01 A contribution to the field of theological aesthetics this book explores the arts in and around the Pentecostal and charismatic renewal movements It proposes a pneumatological model for creativity and the arts and discusses different art forms from the perspective of that model Pentecostals and other charismatic Christians have not sufficiently worked out matters of aesthetics or teased out the great religious possibilities of engaging with the arts With the flourishing of Pentecostal culture comes the potential for an equally flourishing artistic life As this book demonstrates renewal movements have participated in the arts but have not systematized their findings in ways that express their theological commitments until now The book examines how to approach art in ways that are communal dialogical and theologically cultivating Curriculum and Teaching Dialogue Barbara Slater Stern,2008-10-01 Curriculum and Teaching Dialogue is the journal of the American Association of Teaching and Curriculum AATC An important historical event in the development of organizations dealing with the scholarly field of teaching and curriculum was the founding of the AATC on October 1 1993 The members of the AATC believed that the time was long overdue to recognize teaching and curriculum as a basic field of scholarly study to constitute a national learned society for the scholarly field of teaching and curriculum teaching is the more inclusive concept curriculum is an integral part of teaching the what to teach aspect Since that AATC has produced scholarship in teaching and curriculum and serve the general public through its conferences journals and the interaction of its members The purpose of the organization as originally defined in Article 1 Section 2 of the AATC Constitution To promote the scholarly study of teaching and curriculum all analytical and interpretive approaches that are appropriate for the scholarly study of teaching and curriculum shall be encouraged Curriculum and Teaching Dialogue seeks to fulfill that mission Stories Between Us: Oral Histories from a Countercultural Congregation Lena Rebecca

We all want a place where our stories matter, our voices are heard, our uniqueness is celebrated, our failures are embraced, and our hopes are unleashed. That kind of deep, life-changing community was modeled perfectly by Jesus and the ragged bunch of disciples with whom he chose to spend his time. But how can we create it in our lives? Using the relationship of Jesus to his disciples in the upper room, Bill Donahue presents a simple but compelling approach to community life that was modeled by Jesus and offered to us all today. Using a table, a towel, and the truth, Jesus created an irresistible community where everyone finds a place to belong, live fully in the truth, and serve others with joy. Foreword by Dr. Henry Cloud. Journey in the Wilderness Gil Rendle, Gilbert R. Rendle, 2010

The last forty years have seen transitions in mainline churches that feel for many like a journey into the wilderness. Yet God is calling us in this moment not to grieve over the changes we have experienced but to hear the call to a new mission and a new faithfulness. In Journey in the Wilderness, Gil Rendle draws on decades as a pastor and church consultant to point a way into a hopeful future. The key to embracing the wilderness is to learn new skills in leading change to reach beyond a position of privilege and power to become churches that serve God's hurting people. Create Community That Buys: Connection-Driven Growth That Compounds

Okechukwu Divine Obinna, 2025-09-10 Create Community That Buys: Connection-Driven Growth That Compounds is your roadmap to building not just customers but a loyal tribe that fuels your business for years to come. In today's world, ads are skipped, attention spans are shrinking, and hard selling no longer works. But there's one strategy that never goes out of style: genuine human connection. This book shows you how to turn audiences into communities and communities into customers who buy again and again. When people feel seen, valued, and part of something bigger, they don't just purchase once. They become advocates who bring others, creating growth that compounds naturally. Inside, you'll learn how to build trust that makes selling effortless Create content and conversations that spark belonging Design offers that feel like a contribution not a pitch Turn one time buyers into lifelong supporters Harness the power of word of mouth inside a thriving community Whether you re an entrepreneur freelancer or creator this book gives you the framework to shift from chasing sales to cultivating a movement When you nurture community first revenue follows stronger faster and more sustainably than ever Stop marketing to strangers Start leading a community that buys and watch your growth multiply The regional travel guide for Smolyan (Bulgaria) ,2025-09-24 Design as Democracy David de la Pena,2017-12-07 How can we design places that fulfill urgent needs of the community achieve environmental justice and inspire long term stewardship By bringing community members to the table with designers to collectively create vibrant important places in cities and neighborhoods For decades participatory design practices have helped enliven neighborhoods and promote cultural understanding Yet many designers still rely on the same techniques that were developed in the 1950s and 60s These approaches offer predictability but hold waning promise for addressing current and future design challenges Design as Democracy is written to reinvigorate democratic design providing inspiration techniques and case stories for a wide range of contexts Edited by six leading practitioners and academics in the field of participatory design with nearly 50 contributors from around the world it offers fresh insights for creating meaningful dialogue between designers and communities and for transforming places with justice and democracy in mind Divergent Traditions Orin Brightfield,AI,2025-02-20 Divergent Traditions examines a critical question Is societal progress faltering as traditional values decline without adequate replacements from the modern order The book explores the erosion of established norms and the shortcomings of modern ideologies focusing on how this divergence impacts societal well being The decline of traditional social structures such as family and community is examined alongside the rise of new ideologies questioning whether these new frameworks truly address the needs previously met by tradition This analysis considers the resulting societal fragmentation where shared values become elusive hindering collective action The book argues that our current era is not a simple transition from old to new but a period of divergence leading to a loss of social capital and increased polarization Drawing from historical and social science perspectives the book presents a nuanced understanding of tradition acknowledging its limitations while also recognizing its functional roles For instance the decline in civic engagement and intergenerational knowledge transfer are explored as specific examples of eroding traditions Beginning with a framework for understanding tradition and modernity the book progresses through case studies and analyses of contemporary ideologies It supports its arguments with sociological surveys historical analysis and case studies offering a balanced assessment of both tradition and modernity Divergent Traditions provides valuable insights for students policymakers and anyone interested in the challenges facing contemporary societies particularly those concerned about social cohesion and political polarization
